Those Who Attended the Meeting Were the Guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fuller at Their Home on Jefferson Avenue-Miss Timberman Sang Two Selections in a Beautiful Manner-At the Conclusion of the Programme Refreshments Were Served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fuller entertained guests interested in the Free Kindergarten movement last night in their beautiful home on Jefferson avenue. The company was assembled in the Turkish room, where the rosy light of the lamps mingled with the glow of a blazing wood fire, and the soft ripple of a fountain added to the charm of the surroundings. *************** A. D. Holland, president of the local association, made a brief introductory address, in which he spoke of the advance of the work, and gave the urer's report, showing that $1,957.49 had been received. The expenditures amounted to about an equal sum.

Mr. Holland stated that a debt of $509 remained to be paid, but that the association had $510 with which to pay t. The school board has appropriated $1,000 to the system. He then introduced Miss Underwood, the chief kindergartner, whose work at the Penn avenue kindergarten is so satisfactory, Scranton has had a free system for six years, but for the past four years out regaining consciousness has not been managed as it is now, She spoke in an interesting way of her nationalities in that particular locality. She dwelt especially on the mothers' meetings, which had been such aids to

REPORT FROM NORTH SCRANTON.

Miss Clarke, who came recently from New England to take charge of the new kindergarten at the corner of Brick avenue and Market street, made an address. She stated that the need of the work was very evident in that locality. An original attendance of fifty was reported, with an average of thirty. Almost half enough pupils had been turned away to fill another large room. The mothers' meetings had also been most successful. Miss Clarke told many interesting details which had ome under her notice.

Miss Edith Hull, of the Chapel kindergarten at Lackawanna and Adams avenues, gave a beautiful and most interesting report,full of personal reminiscences. She has had a wide field for her lovable, gentle influence in that locality, and the effects have been felt. Rev. Dr. S. C. > The official statistics of the City of New York recently published show that nearly three-quarters of all the deaths of each year prize from consumption or some throat and lung trouble.

A person notices a slight cough, but think it is nothing; or perhaps he raises ensiderable phiegm in the morning, or there is a tickling in the throat or a tightess on the chest. These are the first motoms of consumption. Doctors differ is to whether corsumption can be cured in the last stages, but it can be cured in early every case if taken in time. Do not let it secure the least foothold. Some pure and powerful stimulant which strengthens nature and restores waste strengthens nature and restores waste tissue is the only certain manner of throwing off this terrible monster. Physicians have found that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is superior to any known preparation for this purpose. It is the only medical whiskey upon the market and is so acknowledged by the government. On the day previous, Dr. Guthrie, of Wilkes-Barre, was invited to a consulmethods and of the great variety of tation with the hospital staff, and after a close investigation of Mr. Allen's injuries, agreed that there was no fracture of the skuil. The patient seemed to show a slight improvement up until noon yesterday, when a change for the worse took place and he quietly passed away with his grief-stricken wife and mother at his bedside.

The deceased was born thirty-six years ago in California, and several years afterwards the family returned from the "1906" Washer company, to this city, where they formerly re

Before young Allen had attained his majority he became attached to the engineer corps of the Pennsylvania Coal ompany, of which he has been chief for the last five years. About twelve years ago Mr. Allen married Mary, the youngest daughter of Superintendent Andrew Bryden, and the result of this union is two children, Andrew and Margaret. Besides these, he is survived by his mother and one brother, Alexander who is a prominent contractor in Monterey, California. This family has had their share of affliction, for besides the death of an only daughter several years ago, a brother (Charles) was killed by falling from a building on which he was em Mr. Allen's remains were removed to

NEARLY A SCORE OF CASES WERE DISPOSED OF.

Orgill Acquitted of Attempt to Kill But Found Guilty of Assault and Battery and Aggravated Assault and Battery-M. J. Barrett Returned Guilty of False Pretenses. Two Embezzlement Cases Not Prosecuted-Kearney Again Convicted of Chicken Stealing.

Nearly a score of cases were disposed f in criminal court yesterday. Fully fifty per cent. of the witnesses had to have their testimony interpreted. In the felonious wounding case of John Orgill, the jury ignored the count charging intent to kill and found a verdict of guilty of assault and battery and aggravated assault and battery. A verdict of guilty with a recommen dation of extreme mercy was returned in the false pretense case of B. E.

Foley against M. J. Barrett. The defendant secured credit for $62 worth of milk by falsely representing that he owned a horse and wagon and had money in the Dime bank. Anthony Gallagher was returned not gullty of assault and battery on William Digman, and the defendant was directed to pay the costs. William H. Snover, charged with the embezzlement of $107.61 from E. F. Merriman, was allowed to go on payment of costs, the prosecutor not wishing to press the charge. Storekeeper Max Judkovics, of the

ers, Sylvester Chinasky, in a bar room Oct. 8 last, and was knocked down by Chimasky. The jury said guilty. Frank Melinsky, of the Ridge, failed o sustain the charge of killing homing pigeons which he preferred against his neighbor, Jack Hando, and in consequence thereof was saddled with the
