

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTONRESULT OF PRIMARIES IN THE FOURTH WARD.

Alderman Owen D. John and Constable John J. Davies were re-nominated—Very Large Vote Was Polled—Litigation That Has Resulted from the Construction of Michael Larkin's House—Meeting of the Board of Trade Tomorrow Night—Notes of Personal Nature.

Two out of three of the present incumbents in the ward offices of the Fourth ward were nominated for re-election by the Republican party at a caucus held in the second district of the ward Saturday afternoon. The successful aspirants were, Alderman Owen D. John and Constable John J. Davies. The former received a plurality of 372, there being two other candidates. His majority was 238. Constable Davies received a plurality of 77, there being two other candidates. Present Assessor Morris T. Watkins also a candidate for re-election, was defeated for the nomination by one of his two opponents. The successful aspirant was Daniel E. Edwards, who had a plurality of 62 votes over his opponents.

There were no contests for the district offices in the First and Second districts. In the Third, Griff W. Jones received one majority over his opponent, George Schell, for register of voters. In the Fourth, James H. Grace, who was the eleventh hour candidate, received a plurality of 12 over his opponent for register of voters.

The total vote cast in the four districts was 815. This is 89 short of the number cast in the last general election. This is the ward where Swallow, Prohibitionist, received 186 more votes than Stone, Republican, and carried the ward. There, too, was where the greatest loss of a liberal translation of the new party rules was felt. However, only 89 votes less were cast at the primary than at a general election.

There were no disturbances and the primaries were conducted in an apparently satisfactory manner in each district. In some instances, persons voting neglected to mark their ballots, taking for granted, it is supposed, that the "indication" mark at the head of the flag ticket vote a "straight" ticket of their choice. The result, by districts, is as follows:

First district—Alderman, Owen D. John, 53; John E. Lewis, 33; John T. Jones, 4; Constable, John J. Davies, 37; Griff Price, 34; John H. Neat, 12; assessor, Daniel E. Edwards, 62; Henry Greenwood, 31; Morris T. Watkins, 15; Register of voters, David R. Jones, 32; Judge of election, Minor E. Worden, 32; Inspector of election, W. Bromley Williams, 62.

Second district—Alderman, Owen D. John, 12; John E. Lewis, 21; John T. Jones, 29; Constable, John J. Davies, 18; Griff Price, 43; John H. Neat, 6; assessor, Daniel E. Edwards, 91; Henry Greenwood, 16; Morris T. Watkins, 62.

Globe Warehouse

Glove Selling

Is one of the leading features in this store these days. No doubt the weather in part accounts for this, but the effect of our superior stock on public opinion cannot be underestimated, for nothing like it has ever been seen in this city.

Gloves for Everybody

Are seen at their best here. My lady, who sets as much store on a perfect fitting, rightly made and accurate match in her gloves as she does in the style of her dress, never meets with disappointment here, while the laboring man, who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow, may also be suited with the rough, strong protection for his hands against the elements which his calling requires, and there isn't a single link missing in the long chain of makes, degrees, materials, prices, etc., that run between the daintiest gloves for evening wear or dress occasion and the commonest leather mittens, where comfort is sought, instead of elegance.

Even the Children

Of both sexes can find what they want here in gloves, and while their coldweather needs have been amply provided for, gloves for dress occasions and social functions have also been provided for the rising generation, with no sparing hand or stint in style.

LABOR AND WAGES

Michael Larkin, of Chestnut street, appeared as defendant in a suit brought against him before Alderman John Saturday evening by six carpenters employed on a contract entered into by Mr. Larkin and Contractor Hawley. The suit was brought to recover wages. The defendant was represented by Attorney Jessup, while Attorney Jefferys appeared for the plaintiffs.

It seems that Contractor Hawley entered into contract with Mr. Larkin to build a dwelling on Chestnut street. The amount of the contract was $425. When the work was about half done some difficulty arose and Contractor Hawley threw up the job. Wages to the amount of about $190 were due the workmen. Other workmen were put on the job to complete it and it looked as if the first gang would be out of their wages. Hence the suit against the owner of the dwelling. Alderman John reserved his decision until tomorrow evening. This job has provoked considerable trouble in the laboring circles, and the carpenters' union have had its attention called to it.

FUNERALS ON THIS SIDE

The funeral of the late Miss Eliza Jones was held Saturday afternoon from the residence, 137 North Hyde Park avenue. The remains were borne to the First Welsh Congregational church where services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. David Jones. He delivered an eloquent sermon to the large audience of relatives and friends in attendance. The choir assisted in the service by singing several selections. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Washington street cemetery where interment was made.

The funeral of Miss Katie, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schell, of 47 North Ninth street, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 137 North Hyde Park avenue. The remains were borne to the Washington street cemetery where interment was made. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. David Jones.

ACCIDENTS OF A DAY.

Edward Davis, of North Garfield avenue, met with a very serious accident Saturday evening, while getting off a coal train up at Glenburn. Davis, in company with several other young men boarded a coal train to go up to Glenburn to skate on the big ice dam at that place. When the train was rounding the long curve which swings around the head of the dam, the young men started to get off.

All alighted safely but Davis got off too early, got off right where a culvert runs under the tracks and unable to stop himself went down to the bottom. He fell about twelve feet. His companions hurried to his assistance and right shoulder blade is broken, the right wrist severely sprained, and his face and neck cut. His body is also bruised. He was carried to a nearby house and later brought to his home here, where he is under a physician's care.

W. T. Shoemaker, of 354 North Sumner avenue, employed as a miner in the Diamond mines, was terribly burned about the hands, face and neck by an accidental firing of powder. He was preparing a charge for a blast and in some unaccountable manner a spark from his lamp fell into the powder which instantly flashed up with the above results. He was removed to his residence and a physician called in.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Sadie Bush, of South Bromley avenue, is very ill at her home. Mr. and Mrs. S. Williams, of Edwinstown, have returned home from a visit with friends here.

Miss Laura Davis, of Wyoming, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Penny, of Washburn street.

H. T. Price, of Lafayette street, has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. J. Cavanaugh, of Waverly, has returned home from a visit here with friends.

Mrs. Ralph Shafer, of Ninth street, has as her guest Miss Sallie Miller, of Mountain Top, Pa.

Mrs. F. Marshall and children, of Sayre, are the guests of West Scranton relatives.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Another meeting of the committee who are endeavoring to formulate plans whereby a union or consolidation of St. Leo's battalion, St. Paul's Pioneer corps and the Father Mathew society, all of this side, can be accomplished, was held yesterday afternoon in St. Leo's battalion rooms. Nothing further than heretofore announced in The Tribune was accomplished, other than that each member of the committee should be prepared to suggest something definite at the next meeting which will be held the coming Sunday at the same time and place.

It has been decided by the committee in charge of the school which will be held in the First Welsh Congregational church Jan. 2, 1899, that the competitive piece "Aberystwyth" must be sung in the minor key of F sharp. Also that only the first stanza is to be sung, and piano accompaniment is optional.

Every member of Electric City castle, No. 375, Knights of the Golden Eagle, is requested to attend the regular meeting this evening in Hulbert's hall, on Wyoming avenue. Officers for the ensuing term are to be nominated.

A regular meeting of St. Brendan's council, No. 243, Young Men's institute, will be held this evening in the rooms over Jenkins' pharmacy, 101 South Main avenue. Every member is requested to attend.

The regular monthly meeting of the West Side board of trade will be held tomorrow evening, and as important business will be reported for action every member is urged to be present.

A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies in the Bible research class to attend the meetings of the Bible class which meets every Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Miss Della P. Evans, corner of South Hyde Park avenue and Division street. Miss Charlotte E. Savage, secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, is instructor.

At a recent business session of the Hampton Street Methodist Sunday school officers for the ensuing term were elected, viz: Superintendent, J. T. Bannister; assistant superintendent, H. C. Himm; secretary, Judson H. Himm; assistant secretary, Roland Whitling; treasurer, Charles A. Bennett; librarians, William G. Cadogan, George Nash, Samuel Edwards; chorister, W. M. Westbrook; organist, Miss Laura Scudliffe; assistant organist, Miss Cassie Lewis; missionary secretary, Mrs. J. Bonnings.

The "mother goose market" opens this evening at St. David's Episcopal church, corner of Jackson street and South Bromley avenue. The affair is in charge of the members of St. Agnes' chapter. It promises to be a first class affair.

A festival will be held in the lecture room of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Dec. 20 and 21.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The primary election held in the First ward Saturday resulted in the nomination of David Reese for common council, Seth Smith for constable and R. J. Richards for ward assessor. Common Councilman Reese and Constable Smith are up for their second term.

NATURE MAKES THE CURES

Now and then she gets into a tight place and needs helping out. Things get started in the wrong direction. Something is needed to check disease and start the system in the right direction toward health. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with hypophosphites can do just this. It strengthens the nerves, feeds famished tissues, and makes rich blood.

It is sold by all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

New Arrangement by Which the Postoffice Will Be Kept Open Until Eleven O'clock Each Night—Saturday's Fire.

The borough and postoffice authorities have agreed upon a new and convenient manner of conducting business after the 7 o'clock p. m. mail, which will be a great benefit, as well as a great accommodation to business men and people having lock boxes, who now find it impossible to be at the post-office just when the mail is distributed, and as a result have to wait until the following day to receive their mail.

Instead of closing the office after the evening mail, as is the custom now, it will be kept open until 11 p. m. each evening with chief of Police J. G. Dierks on duty in the vicinity of the office, to watch it and keep the place clear of loiterers. The stamp window or mail delivering window will not be open any later than usual, but those having lock boxes can receive their mail from the office until the hour mentioned.

FILE ON PINE STREET.

An alarm of fire was sounded from box 31, corner of Pine and South Blakely streets about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire proved to be in the residence of Michael Carr, on Pine street, and occurred in the kitchen. The damage was slight, the fire being put out before the arrival of the companies. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been caused by children playing with matches, as the fire was discovered in one of the beds.

If there is one thing more than another which needs to be called to the borough's attention, it is the present fire alarm system, which is generally out of working order. When the alarm is sounded, the fire department is summoned three different alarms were sounded by the gong. This was not the first time, nor the second. It is impossible, frequently, for a fireman to go to a fire before going to the hose room to see what number is registered upon the indicator, thus losing valuable time.

OLD GLORY RAISED.

The fourteen friends, in compliance with one of the unwritten laws of the club, raised a large flag over Hotel Cecil Saturday morning. It is the quarters of the organization, in honor of the birth of a son to George Wirth, who is a member. The law referred to is that whenever a child is born into the family of a member the stars and stripes are set aloft to the breeze for one month.

The ceremonies incident to the hoisting of Old Glory Saturday night were truly befitting the occasion. A social session followed at which a number of representative South Scranton men were present. The happy father, who is a member of the firm of Richards, Wirth & Lewis, the Lackawanna avenue clothiers, was summoned by messenger. Upon his arrival he was warmly congratulated, and presented with a handsome speech by Albert Heier, president-elect of the Friends, made the speech of presentation.

OTHER NEW ARRIVALS.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Weber, of 706 Irving avenue, Saturday. Of the many who are cordially happy to welcome the new baby carriage, Mr. Peter Zang, from the fact that the advent of the little fellow to the world makes them grandparents.

A daughter was born Saturday to M. P. Judge, of the firm of Mulhern & Judge, luncheon and builders, 11 E. Dunlevy, of Cedar avenue, is rejoicing over the birth of a daughter at his home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ryan gave a dinner at their cozy and happy home, 623 Wilkes-Barre street, yesterday in honor of the christening of their first baby, a girl born ten days ago. The little one received the sacrament of baptism yesterday afternoon at St. Peter's cathedral. Rev. J. J. B. Feeley officiated. Miss Anne Ryan, an aunt of the child, and John B. Leonard were the sponsors.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

FAREWELL SERMON OF REV. J. A. MOFFITT AT ST. JOHN'S.

He Has Been the Curate at the Church for Some Time and Was Recently Appointed Pastor of the New Parish at Taylor—Century Hose Company Invited to Participate in a Fireman's Parade at Dunmore—George Bush Arrested for Recklessly Using a Firearm.

Every available portion of space of St. John's Catholic church on Fig street was occupied at the three masses celebrated yesterday, it being the last Sunday that Rev. J. A. Moffitt will be the assistant pastor of that congregation, he having recently been appointed pastor at Taylor. Present at the services were many of the denominations who entertain for the greatly beloved priest the deepest respect.

Father Moffitt was the celebrant of the 7 and 9 o'clock masses. His usual remarks were substituted by a farewell sermon. To the good priest and his innumerable friends the scene will be memorable. It was one of the hardest efforts of Father Moffitt's to say the formal farewell to his flock. His voice trembled with emotion and every eye was tear-stained.

He recalled the most pleasant and happy six years he spent among the parishioners of St. John's church. He came to them very much a stranger, but soon endeared himself to them. Father Moffitt told them that their feelings were reciprocated more fully than he could give utterance to. Yet he said that in the sadness of the occasion there was a radiant streak of gladness. His friends rejoiced as he did over the signal honor and blessing of God in choosing him to enter upon a new field of labor.

Father Moffitt concluded his farewell remarks by asking that his friends pray for him often, that he might faithfully continue in the performance of his noble and arduous duty.

Rev. E. J. Melley, pastor of St. John's church, celebrated the 10:30 mass and he had a glowing tribute to Father Moffitt as a priest and a man. While he regrets the leaving of his curate, he said he was greatly delighted that Father Moffitt was chosen for the important pastorate at Taylor. In his estimate the selection was an ideal one.

INVITED TO PARADE.

A committee of firemen from Dunmore, representing the John B. Smith and Independent hose companies of that town, visited the Century hose company yesterday to formally invite the members to participate in a parade to be held at the Centenary House tomorrow and to attend a banquet to be held in the night. The committee was composed of Chief O'Hara, ex-Chief Victor Burschell, James Quick, T. S. Kearney, John J. Cooney and Charles W. Schmitt. The approaching fair to be held under the auspices of the two Dunmore hose companies next open Christmas eve, and continue until Jan. 2.

The programme arranged for the Tuesday following comprises a parade at 4 o'clock, the Dunmore department, augmented by companies from this city, Peckville, Archbald, Jerrys, Pittston and Carbondale. The night will be devoted to a banquet, at which the visiting firemen, borough officials and prominent citizens will attend. James Quick made the speech inviting the Century company to the auspicious affair. Chief Hickey responded for the company. He replied that the military portion of the Wednesday night parade of Dunmore will be held at the meeting the invitation will be acted on.

RECKLESS FIRING.

George Bush, of Prospect avenue, was arraigned in police court yesterday on the charges of drunkenness and the reckless discharging of firearms at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The prisoner, with two companions less intoxicated than he, came up Willow street at the hour named.

Neating Pittston avenue, Bush began to fire his revolver and make incoherent remarks about a Spaniard. Patrolman Schmitt, who was standing nearby and arrested the patriotic Bush. Alderman Storrs fined him.

GREEN RIDGE.

Camp 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will hold an entertainment and banquet this evening.

Miss Dora Mahon, of Pittston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Kerr, of Manay avenue.

Miss Edith Buckland, of Carbondale, is visiting Miss Lillie Caville, of Green Ridge street.

Judd Stevens, who has been ill, is slightly improved.

NURS OF NEWS.

The Manhattan Social club will conduct an entertainment and dance at St. John's hall New Year's night. An excellent programme is being arranged for the event.

The twenty-sixth annual ball of Neptune engine No. 2 will be held at Germania hall Monday night next. Every detail of arrangement for the occasion has been given due attention. The mention of this fact is sufficient, as the annual dances of this pioneer and popular company are always of a delightful nature. Professor Saff and his orchestra will furnish the music.

The ball committee in charge of the country dance of the Centenary House company, which will be held at Natter's hall Monday, Dec. 26, held an interesting meeting yesterday. Incident to bringing about a successful conclusion of this undertaking is a vast amount of work. The committee, however, of management is equal to the occasion, and promise a huge treat to the immense gathering which will be present. As has been previously stated the afternoon of that date will be devoted to the usual order of dancing, the "hoe down" being the attraction for the night.

The Republican vigilance committee of the four districts of the Nineteenth ward will meet Wednesday night at the hotel of Joseph Kramer, on Prospect avenue. The meeting will be held for the purpose of designating the date for the holding of the caucus to nominate candidates for common councilman, constable and minor ward officers.
