Edward Farr, of West Lackawanna $12.78 avenue, who owns the double frame dwelling house at 410-412 North Main avenue, which was badly damaged by fire early yesterday mornion, stated to a Tribune representative that the damage to the dwelling would probably who occupied No. 410, will reach $200 on furniture and clothing. N. Kaplin, who occupied No. 412, will probably lose nearly $300, also on furniture, clothing, etc. Thus the tool loss will vary be tween $800 and $1,000. Messie, Farr and Lewis hold sufficient insurance, but Mr. Kaplin's loss will be total.

Mr. Farr attributes the cause of the fire to the defectiveness of the chim ney. The dwelling was erected over forty years ago and has been in constant use ever since. He thinks the bottom of the chimney filled up with soot, which took fire during the night and the intense heat ignited the woodwork in the lower floors. It had gained considerable headway before its discovery. The prompt response of the fire department prevented probable total loss to all concerned and further spread of the fire to adjacent buildings.

At Musgrave's pharmacy, corner of North Main avenue and Jackson street in the Morgan's block, where a fire nearly destroyed the interior early Sunday morning, Messrs. Musgrave and Morgans, assisted by clerks, were busy all day yesterday estimating the amount of damage, B. G. Morgan, who owns the building, thinks that $250 will repair the interior defacing, and he has sufficient insurance to protect him from

Mr. Musgrave is unable even to approximate his damage, as it falls heavtest in the patent medicines, drugs and chemicals, and it will require two or three days to arrive at any definite
