Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Dec. 13 .- Those to whose hearts the benison of the true Christmas spirit has come will not forget at this time those less favored than themselves. There are in every community those to whom the advent of the coming festal season is but an intensification of misery. In cheerless homes, with scant clothing and still scantier food, there are some who, as they hover over wretched fires, will think bitterly of the day when they too entered with bright and happy hearts Into the spirit of the munificence of santa Claus, and invited to be welcomed at the profuse and hospitable board. if there be a misery more unendurable than another, is it not that sorrows crown of sorrow," that the bright world has no longer brightness, that the season of festivity brings no joy, and that while friends meet friends in gladness of souls, there is no kindly hand to grasp, and that, in the general enjoyment, there is for the wretched but one duil road of poverty and pain? Make some heart happy on Christmas morning

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

"Care killed a cat." There is work for care in Susquehanna. Nowadays an honest politician is as scarce as a straw hat.

It makes a difference about a man's value, whether you take him at his own estimation or that of his wife's. Geese may be silly, but they know enough to go to a warm climate when it becomes cold.

At a church sewing society in Sherman, three months since, Mrs. Priscilla Watrous was relating a story to the ladies about the sufferings of some missionaries in Africa. Just as she had said: "For twelve days the women the party ate nothing," she of was seized with paroxysms. A ten weeks' severe illness ensued. When she regained consciousness, two weeks since, she concluded her sentence, "and for four days they were without wat-An hour later she finishes the narrative commenced at the church sewing circle meeting. He also says, "The chorus is unusually large and the voices well balanced. It is given considerable work to do and it does it well. It showed to excellent advantage in the Russian National hymn, and in the really fine march with which the second act closed. Mr. Hopper made one of the best speeches in his life after the second act, and his little talk after the 'Frog' song was highly diverting.'

At the Gaiety.

One of the most entertaining bills of the season is promised at the Gaiety theatre, beginning Monday, Dec. 19, for three days, when Roeber & Crane Bros. Vaudeville and Athletic company will make its appearance. The programme employs the service of artists of distinct individuality in the vaudeville and athletic world and several alluring. dramatic and musical features. Among the artists are Alf Grant, Crane Bros, Bigger and Dreher, Ford and Dot West, West and Williams, Rosalie, Marjorie Maxwell. The above will appear in taking and original specialties. The unquestioned champion Graeco Roman wrestler of the world, Ernest Roeber, and Leo Pardello, his wrestling partner, will be seen in wrestling con tests. Roeber is also open to meet allcomers, Graeco-Roman style, and offers $50 to any man he can not throw in fifteen minutes, or $250 to any one gaining a fall.

"Shore Acres" Coming.

"Shore Acres" was witnessed by very novel theatre party during its lot run at the Boston theatre. The party Lacka, Township School X. City of Scranton St. Imp. 8% Mt. Vernon Coal Co. Scranton Axle Works Scranton Traction 6% bonds. was composed of Sunday school teachers, and there was just a half hundred of them. They all seemed to enjoy the play hugely and laughed and cried over the various scenes just as you and I have laughed and cried over them "Shore Acres" certainly has obtained ; great hold upon the public and promises to outlive the present generation of theatre patrons. This play with entire new scenery and a fine company will be given at the Lyceum, Saturday matinee and night.

The Great Whistler Next Week.

The whistling of Harold F. C. Flint. who will appear with the New York Stock company at the Academy of Music all dext week, is simply wonderful. Listening to his pure, bird-like tones, combined with such brilliant execution correct intonation, volume of sound and withall that most enjoyable quality. A remarkable feature is his whistling two separate tones at once. Critles pronounce Mr. Flint unexcelled, if not unequaled, in this country. Mon-day evening this celebrated company will open their engagement with Washington Irving's classic musterplece "Rip Van Winkle."

De Wolf Hopper in "The Charlatan'

Dr. Frank Howe, the dramatic critic of the Washington Star, and one of the most conservative and reliable in this country lately had some very flattering things to say of Sousa's new opera. "The Charletan," which De Welf Hopper will present at the Lyceum next Monday night Dr. Howe says "That the performing last night pleased the autions was existent from the continsome longister and applause. There is a mash why "The Charlatin" should the format hig a money-maker as 'El massage, manicuring, 25e.; chiropody. Quincy.
