

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

JOHN BARRETT, OF PROSPECT AVENUE, INJURED.

Military Portion of Century Company Met Last Night and Acted Upon Several Invitations—Officers of Branch 85, of C. M. B., Are Nominated—Meeting of the Republican Vigilance Committee of the Nineteenth Ward—Final Meeting of the Executive Committee.

John Barrett, of Prospect avenue, was injured in a painful manner while at work at the south mill of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company yesterday. He is employed at the rail department and while engaged at his routine duties he fell, landing on his left shoulder. Presently he was on his feet and again resumed his work, but in a short time was compelled to quit, owing to intense pain.

He repaired to his home and Dr. J. A. Manly was sent for. Upon examination it was found that his collar bone was fractured. The injury will confine Mr. Barrett to his home for some time.

MET FOR DRILL

The military portion of the Century hose company met for drill practice last night at Naiter's hall. Captain O'Hara was in command and he gave his men an interesting drill. At the conclusion of the practice the company met in special session to take action on three matters which needed immediate consideration.

From the entertainment committee of St. John's fair, signed by P. J. Kelly, chairman, and M. J. Cusick, secretary, was read an invitation requesting the company to attend the fair in uniform on Monday night, Jan. 4. It was decided to accept the invitation. The members are confident that the prize for the largest number of men in uniform will be won by the Century's. It was also agreed upon that the company will participate in the parade of the Dunmore fire department on the afternoon of Dec. 27, at 4 o'clock, incident to the fair of the John B. Smith and independent hose companies of Dunmore, Louis Schwanz, Henry J. Spruks and Louis Brombacher were chosen delegates to represent the company at the meeting Sunday next at Cedar avenue. Every detail incident to the session will take preparatory steps to arrange for the annual state convention of firemen, to be held in this city October next.

At the hotel of Joseph Krainer, on Prospect avenue, a meeting was held last night of the Republican vigilance committee of the four districts of the Nineteenth ward for the purpose of setting a date for the holding of the ward caucus to place in nomination a candidate for common council, constable and other minor offices. The meeting was interesting, yet there was not any conclusion arrived at. It was decided to appoint a committee of four, one from each district, who will designate the day to hold the caucus. The men upon whom the work was assigned are Frank Maher, George Napp, Charles Schauer and Ferdinand Quick. The committee will meet at the call of the chairman, Mr. Schauer. He states that it is probable that they will convene within a few days.

THE FINAL MEETING. The executive committee of management of the fair of St. John's church congregation held the final meeting last night prior to the opening of the fair, which will take place Saturday night. At last night's session the chairman of the various sub-committees reported that the duties assigned to their respective bodies was completed. Everything is now in readiness awaiting the opening of the fair. The carpenters, who were engaged at the erection of the booths, finished their work last night.

Today the expert window-dressers and trimmers of Jonas Long's Sons and the Globe Warehouse will commence the decorative work. Tomorrow and Saturday will be devoted to putting in position the various gifts donated for the fair.

NEWS OF NEWS.

The mothers' meeting at the Young Women's Christian association yesterday was an enjoyable session. Informal addresses were made by several of the ladies, and a programme of music was given. Coffee and cake were served during the meeting.

Dr. Stewart Resner, of Cedar avenue, was removed yesterday to a private hospital for treatment. There is a deep sense of regret entertained by the many who know the brilliant young physician, over his illness.

County Commissioner John Demuth is unable to be absent again, after a second attack of sickness within a short period.

Stephen S. Spruks and Peter Kuehner are spending a few days hunting at the Spruks farm near Ransom.

Mrs. Herman Ekel, of Alder street, is recovering from a severe attack of illness.

The Neptune Engine company will meet in special session tomorrow night to complete all arrangements for the twenty-second annual ball of the company, to be held at Schnipf's hall Monday night next.

The committee of arrangements of the Christmas festival of the Junior Maennerchor held a meeting last night at the home of Abram Weichel, on Cedar avenue. Every detail incident to the auspicious occasion has been given due attention.

An Absent-Minded Man.

From the Kenner Journal. A Wisconsin physician thinks he is entitled to the prize for the champion absent-minded man. Some weeks ago a woman who lives some miles out of the city called at his office and paid a bill of $9 for professional services. Monday she came into his office again and asked him if he was always willing to rectify mistakes. Of course he replied that he was, and she thereupon produced the doctor's check for the amount he ordered, all in due form. After thinking hard for a moment he bowed on the physician that when the woman had paid him, on her previous visit he had seized his check-book instead of his receipt book, and being out of the check embraced about the same process as the making out of a receipt, and neither noted the mistake until the woman chanced to examine the paper at her home.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

PRETTY WEDDING AT JAMES' RESIDENCE LAST NIGHT.

Contracting Parties Were Miss Anna Rebecca James and John T. James, of Minersville—Concert Given by the Fadettes, of Boston, in the Jackson Street Baptist Church. West Side Conclave of Heptasophs Celebrated Its Seventh Anniversary—News Notes and Personals.

Miss Anna Rebecca James, daughter of Mrs. Mary James, of 112 Eynon street, was united in marriage to John T. James, of Minersville, last evening at 8 o'clock at the bride's residence. Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the South Main Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The parlor, wherein it occurred, was artistically decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. Only the immediate friends and relatives were in attendance.

The bride wore a becoming gown of blue serge trimmed with white silk. Her bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Reese, was attired in a costume of green. Both carried carnations. Arthur James, of Philadelphia, brother of the groom, attended him. Miss Edith Reese played the wedding march. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was tendered the couple and later a beautiful post-nuptial repast was served.

Mrs. James is a popular young woman. Mr. James is in the bakery and confectionery business in Minersville. They will remain here until Saturday and will then go to his home where they will hereafter reside. A reception will be tendered them there Saturday evening by his friends.

CONCERT BY FADETTES.

Those who attended the concert given by the noted women's orchestra, calling themselves the Fadettes, of Boston, last evening in the Jackson Street Baptist church, were satisfied that West Scranton has never been offered a finer entertainment. The affair was in charge of the official board of the church and the orchestra was secured by the pastor, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, after considerable effort. The orchestra is an artistic one, and the high order of the instruction of "Zigeunerweisen" was such as to satisfy the most exacting critic. The full orchestra accompaniment was perfect. A brass-quintette comprising Misses Grace Gooding, first cornet; Edith Taylor, second cornet; Annie Cunningham, first horn; Annie Cunningham, second horn; and both Payne, trombone, rendered "God Guard Thee Love," by Nessler and were accorded hearty applause.

In the selections from Tannhauser the orchestra, the waltzes and piccolo solos were finely given. The two-part piece, "The Little Landman," by Ellenberg, and "Gavotte Serenade," by Hartog, were inspiring. The tones and modulations were thrilling, showing an evident appreciation of the composer's theme. The several selections of popular quick steps and medleys were equally as well rendered.

SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

West Side Conclave, No. 219, Improved Order of Heptasophs, met in regular session last evening in Korte hall, on South Main avenue, and elected officers for the ensuing year. At the conclusion of the routine business of the organization of the Conclave, which has grown numerically stronger by 120 members since that time, was observed in an appropriate manner. Roger Evans presided as chairman. Remarks of a general nature were made by District Deputy W. V. Hendricks, of District No. 28; District Deputy E. D. Jones, of District No. 30; Archon R. C. Dean, of North Scranton Conclave, and C. W. Lull, P. A. Jones gave several photograph selections and J. Archie Jones recited. The Standard quartette rendered several selections and were heartily applauded. Cigars and refreshments were passed. The affair was thoroughly enjoyed by the Heptasophs and their many friends who were present. The committee of arrangements, comprising D. W. Phillips, L. A. Howell, W. J. Morgan, J. T. Edwards and D. W. Lull, met Monday evening at 7 p. m. at the residence of Evans, D. I. Phillips, alternate. Installation will be made next month.

The officers elected were: Past archon, W. L. Campbell; archon, John Davis; provost, Lewis A. Howell; prelate, Charles R. Hill; secretary, Stewart Ross; recorder, E. Evans; treasurer, E. D. Jones; inspector, W. H. Morgan; warder, H. T. Thomas; sentinel, E. E. Smith; trustees, G. W. Powell, J. Archie Jones, Thomas Langston, representative to Supreme Conclave at Buffalo in June next, Roger Evans; D. I. Phillips, alternate. Installation will be made next month.

I. H. W. ENTERTAINMENT.

An excellent programme has been prepared for rendition at the entertainment which will be given this evening at the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church by the members of I. H. Mrs. Ann Argus, of South Everett avenue, is visiting in Wilkes-Barre.

Misses Sarah Spelman, of Homestead, and Mary Burke, of Carbondale, have returned home from a visit with Miss Mary Cullin, of South Van Buren avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moyles, of Thirteenth street, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moyles, of Oilplant.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

A suspicious shooting match is being arranged for Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 21, at the Dale farm. The affair will be in charge of the Keyser Valley sporting club.

Thomas Toomey, an engineer on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, who has been confined at his residence, 217 Fairview avenue, by slight injuries received while at work Tuesday.

The election of officers for the ensuing term of the Washburn street Presbyterian church Sunday school, which was to have been held last evening was postponed. A number of the members were in attendance, though the meeting will be called later.

Waco council, No. 45, Degree of Po-cobontas, met in regular session last evening in Redmen's hall on South Main avenue, and a large number of the members were in attendance. Great Po-cobontas Mrs. John Tyler, of Hartstead; and Great Winona Miss Mary W. Keeney, of Old Forge; paid the council an official visit and made addresses. Visiting members from sister councils Nos. 31 and 32 were also present. The degree term of Waco council presented Great Winona Keeney with a handsome bow and arrow, the insignia of her office. Later refreshments were served.

Every member of Washington camp, No. 178, Patriotic Order Sons of America, is requested to be present at the regular meeting. Nomination of officers and other important business is to be transacted.

The ladies of the Plymouth Congregational church served an excellent chicken supper to a large number of persons last evening. It was the annual church supper and the edibles were served in the lecture rooms. Several tables were arranged in parallel rows and beautified with small shaded lamps and flowers. Those in charge realized a substantial sum.

John J. Jones, of Archbald street, has announced himself as a candidate for register of voters in the Third district of the Sixth ward. Mosen James is out for inspector of election in the same district.

MINOOKA.

The Lackawanna township school board met in regular monthly session yesterday at No. 1 building. Daniel O'Leahon, of the Northeast district, who was appointed two months ago to fill out the unexpired term of his father, the late Hon. Dennis O'Leahon, did not put in an appearance since his appointment and yesterday the office was declared vacant. James Durkin was chosen to fill the vacancy.

John Carey, of West Minooka, a well-known resident of this place, died last evening after a few hours' illness. The deceased was a carpet weaver and worked at his looms yesterday. He is survived by Patrick, a fireman on board the United States cruiser Raleigh, of Admiral Dewey's squadron, and Misses Winifred, Ellen, Theresa and Mary, of this place. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

The Daniel O'Connell council, Young Men's Institute, will hold a special meeting this (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

A Rumor.

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF MISS RICHARDS AND HANDEL JONES.

Ceremony Was Performed at the Home of the Bride by Rev. David Jones—Boy Playing with Matches Started a Fire that Fortunately Was Discovered Just in Time. Cases Heard Before the Aldermen. Officers Elected by Providence Conclave of Heptasophs.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Richards, 261 Putnam street, last evening, their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Handel Jones, of the West Side, by the Rev. David Jones, late of Wales. The bride wore a light tan Bedford cord cloth dress, trimmed with white satin and green velvet. The bridesmaid, Miss Lizzie Davis, was attired in a brown cashmere, trimmed with pink satin.

The groom met the bride at the parlor door and escorted her to the front of the room, where beneath a large evergreen wedding bell the Rev. David Jones united them. After the ceremony a banquet was served and the newly married couple started for Philadelphia, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside on Washburn street after their return.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. William Simms, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Daggler, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Powell, Mr. and Mrs. George Powell, Dr. and Mrs. Bessie, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bevan, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Price, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiteher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richards, Mr. and Mrs. William Daxler, the Misses Rebecca Jones, Edith Jenkins, Maggie Roberts, Mary Davis, and Anna, Ella and Ada Daggler, the Messrs. Walter Jones, John Daggler, Gomer Lewis, Elias Anthony, Thomas Davis, John Richards, Charles Richards and Thomas, William and George Daggler.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN SERIOUS.

What might have been a serious catastrophe was averted Tuesday evening at the home of Fred Gillman, on Ferdinand street. Mr. Gillman was entertaining some friends in their sitting room, when his young son found a match on the floor and went into the parlor with the match lighted in his hands.

As he went in he drew the door shut and no one saw the jet of flame that darted up the chenille curtains as the match brushed against them. The boy came out of the room, shutting the door behind him, and a moment later a visitor, who saw that something was the matter, opened the door, to find the room all ablaze. The fire was quickly smothered. Mr. Gillman's loss is about $25.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A meeting of the taxpayers of this section will be held in the Armory, Friday evening, to discuss the Providence Road paving question. The main object is to secure the decision of the property owners along Main avenue as to what kind of pavement they wish.

There will be blank petitions on hand for signing, which will stipulate the kind of pave and the number of feet desired. Every one who is interested in the paving question should be there, so that a decision may be reached and then there will be no delay in re-enacting the paving ordinance by the council.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Mrs. Annie Thompson swore out a warrant before Alderman Roberts yesterday for the arrest of her husband, John Thompson, charging him with desertion and non-support. Thompson was held in $500 bail, which was furnished by W. B. Christmas.

William Holtham was committed to jail in default of $200 bail on the charge of assault and battery, preferred by his wife.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

At a regular business meeting of the Providence Conclave of Heptasophs the following officers were elected: Archon, James Reed; provost, E. A. Biddleman; inspector, William Reese; warder, Henry Warden; sentinel, William Cannon; secretary, A. B. Munn; treasurer, George Griffin; financial secretary, H. A. Thomas; trustee, George Griffin; Andrew Smith, J. K. Smith; representative to Grand lodge, O. P. Miller.

The Republican primaries will be held in the Second and Third wards, Saturday, from 4 until 7 p. m. The party congregational church fair was a decided success last evening, the prominent feature being a cake walk. Twenty couples participated in it. The cake was won by William Davis and Hattie Davis.

The Ladies' Aid society netted a sum of $183 at their fair held last week. The Country dance held last evening in St. Mary's hall was a decided success. About 300 attended. The hall was appropriately decorated and the costumes of most of the dancers suited the occasion.

DUNMORE.

The chief topic of conversation in the borough is the quickness with which the fire yesterday morning. He is a member of the Independent Hose company, and arrived at the scene of the fire and had a stream of water on the building within four minutes. All this was done single handed. This will be all probability be a poser for some of the Scranton laddies, but it proves that Dunmore holds the reputation for being the most progressive borough in the state.

Dunmore lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, elected the following officers at their last regular meeting: Past master, Vern Stalbert; master, E. E. Warner; vice master, Sam Snyder; secretary, Frank Diegert; financial secretary, M. E. O'Hara; delegate to annual convention, which will be held at New Orleans, H. P. Plum.

The social held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Easterline on Green Ridge street, last evening, under the auspices of the Junior Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church, was a promising one, both socially and financially and a good time was indulged in by all present. The principal features of the evening were the recitations by Miss Dora and Miss Van Cleft, and solo by Miss Bessie Powell, all of whom took part in the programme prepared for the occasion.

A good sized audience assembled in Odd Fellows' hall last night to see Captain James P. Long's allegorical production of the Battle of Gettysburg, under the auspices of Pequot tribe, No. 237, Improved Order of Red Men. Captain Long explained briefly, by the use of maps, the position of the Union and Confederate forces on the memorable days on which the battle was fought and won, and explained the pictures, three hundred in number, in an interesting manner, although laboring under great difficulties, having arisen from a sick bed to fill his Dunmore engagement. A neat sum was realized by the lodge.

Patrick Larkin and Charles Griner, who were arrested before Burgess Powell Tuesday evening and given until 3 o'clock yesterday morning to secure bail or else be sent to the county jail, were sent to that institution upon failure to secure the same.

Mrs. Mose Kellam, of Groves street, is spending a few days in New York city.

Howard Lesing, of Hawley, is the guest of friends in town.

The Neptune Fire company was at the scene of Wednesday morning's fire yesterday afternoon and quenched the blaze which had started again.

Master Eugene Flynn, of Chestnut street, is confined to his home with illness.
