MR. MCKENZIE MUST NEEDS GO ATHIRST

NOUBLE OBSTACLES TO HIS EVER GETTING A DRINK.

If He Drinks He Goes to Jail; it a Saloonkeeper Seils Him a Drink the Saloonkeeper Imperils His License-Judge Gunster Gets After Defaulting Witnesses-Mrs. Williams' Case Goes to the Jury. Many Cases Disposed of in Criminal Court.

It would be wen for the sulconkeepers to secure a minute description of and keep a vigilant watch for one Willinm McKenzie, of the North End. Willlam was up in court vesterday on the charge of having committed perjury in swearing at a previous trial that James Flynn assaulted him and threatened to throw him into a watering trough. The jury found him guilty and when called for sentence he told Judge Yerkes that when he lodged the aforementioned information against Flynn he was drunk and knew not what he was doing, "Are you an habitual drinker?" the

'Well, I am and I amn't-I took the pledge once and kept it for two years and it wasn't till this trouble that I broke out," meekly mumbled McKen-

Would you be willing to take the pledge again?" Judge Yerkes inquired. "Judge, if you let me go, I'll never drink another drop as long as I live." 'Do you mean what you are saying? I do, your honor.

Very well, I'll give you a chance." And then the Judge had the stenog rapher draw up a total abstinence piedge which he had McKenzie sign, He then directed that the pledge be filed in the county archives and gave public notice that any saloonkeeper who would sell intoxicants to McKenzie would do so at the peril of having his license revoked instanter. McKenzie was charged that if he should break his pledge he would be called up and subjected to the suspended sentence.

Judge Gunster created a stir in the main court room during the afternoon by withdrawing a juror from a tippling Louse case and directing that attachments issue for half a dozen defaulting witnesses. The case was that in Maud Earle, the verdict was not guilwhich Constable James W. Clarke was prosecuting Telford Pudlevitch. The district attorney insisted on trying the case, that he might clear up his list, but the prosecutor was opposed to this and appealed to the judge for a continuance, saying his witnesses had failed to appear, although personally served with subpoenas.

After meditating for a few moments, the judge sald: "I'll withdraw a juror and like cases, I will not tolerate this virtual contempt of court on the part | following programm

Every Day vs. Holiday Goods

Just now this is particularly a Christ-mas store, but the blaze and glory of the Christmas goods do not blind us to the demands of everyday wearables. We hear and heed the voices that ask for Underwear, Dress Goods, Suits, etc. Regardless of what may be in the foreground, this is and always will be an everyday store.

About Some Silk Waists

It will hardly be believed that so much goodness and style could be dis-tributed at present prices, But the time for these handsome silk waists is short, so we shortened the prices. You wish exclusiveness, of course. In this stock there are some duplicates, but it's principally an assortment of one of-a-kind styles. All the desirable shades in desirable materials are shown -the best styles represented.

Small Furs and Large Ones

Not the cheap kinds that get ragged and mangy and rough in no time. But, of the good kinds that do not cost much, we have a rich gathering. All of the fashionable furs are here, not in the uncut skins, but in the witchery of collarettes, scarfs, capes, muffs and fackets-carefully put together and finished with an inner beauty that is to keeping with the exterior fuxury. seen our show? Dispel that thought. Ours is a sort of continued performance. New features in furs come each day, and go likewise, "fur" if at met your approval but out-reached your price perhaps was here last week, but this week has found an owner. Another, equally as satisfying and within the limits of your economies, has replaced it. Come and see,

New Prices for Tailor-Made Suits

A month hence you'd expect January prices on women's suits, but hardly now, at the height of the mid-season, Yet here and there on many of the more expensive and elaborate finished silk lined suits January prices have appeared-prices that are at least a third off the regular asking. These are lowered because we've not been able to find purchasers to fit the suits. But, If you're fitted, it's all the better for

After the Fever

Little Cirl Was Wook and Could Not Eat-Hood's Sarsaparilla Cave Her Appetite and Strength-Eczema Disappearing.

"My little girl was sick for several months with typhoid fever, and after she got over it she was weak and did not eat. My husband got her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, saying it would make her eat and give her strength - and it did. She had taken it only a short time when she was well and strong. Everyone who sees her is surprised at her improvement because she was so weak and thin, but now is fat and healthy. I am giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla now for eczema and the trouble is fast disappearing. My husband has taken it for rheumatism and it has done him good." Mrs. CLINTON B.
