FORMAL OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH FAIR.

P. W. Gallagher Made a Short Address, in Which He Predicted That Fiffeen Thousand Dollars Will Be Realized-Funerals of Patrick Cannon and Patrick Weir-Annual Ball of the Germania Engine Company Tonight-Club of Fifteen Met Saturday Night.

The fair of St. John's church congregation opened Saturday night at the basement hall of the church on Fig street. At 8 o'clock the large rooms were filled with the representative people of this and other parts of the city and valley. The interior of the hall is a bower of beauty, the decorations are artistic, the national colors having a prominent place. On the easterly side of the hall, running the whole length the stars with a blue background, and or the opposite portion are the stripes. The decorative work on the booths is very attractive. The booth of the Ladles Auxiliary to Division No. 2, Ancient Order of Hibernians, is trimmed in colors of mild green and white; those of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent association are the stars and stripes: purple and white adorn the St. Irene's society table; blue and white at the Sodality table, and the parish booth is decorated with pink and white. Added to these handsome trimmings is the vast array of beautiful and valuable gifts donated by the representative business houses and leading people of the city. J. W. Guernsey presented to the sodality table a piano valued a $400. Perry Brothers sent an organ to the Ladies Auxiliary. Congressman Connell has forwarded to Father Melley an order for a lot at Connell park valued at $700. Saturday night over two hundred persons bought chances on this valuable piece of ground. The complete list of goods at the fair would take up columns of space.

P. W. Gallagher, chairman of the executive committee, formally opened the fair. He made an interesting address paying a tribute to the women of the congregation for their indefatigable offorts. Mr. Gallagher said that those who contributed to the success of such an undertaking are engaged in a most noble work and eternal blessing was sure to be their reward. The chairman stated that he was of the opinion that fully $15,000 will be realized from the fair and that, he said, was a condress the Forest band gave a programme of popular music.

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price Ec. and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.
