GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

PATRICK BROWN HAD A VERY CLOSE CALL.

When Found in a Cell in the Station House He Was Almost Dead - Says His Brother-in-Law, John Brink, Hit Him on the Head with a Piece of Iron-Three Funerals - Boys Arrested on Charges of Malicious Mischief and Given a Hearing Before Alderman Ruddy.

Lieutenant of Police Zang and Patrolman Peter Haggerty were given a surprise shortly after midnight Saturday, which, to say the least, was not agreeable. Early in the night Patrick Brown, of Keyser Valley, was locked in the Alder street pelice station by Constable Woelkers. found the man on Cedar avenue, stagg sting along incapable of finding his way. Woelkers placed on the docket the charge of

When Zang and Haggerty went to the station house for lunch at the time noted, Patrolman Haggerty went over to Brown's cell. Looking at the man it appeared to him that he was dying. The door was opened and Brown was carried out and laid on a quickly prepared bed near the stove in the office. The opinion of the patrolman was a right one. Lieutenant Zang immediately hustled for a physician, but as fate decreed the two near by physicians were out on urgent calls. Patrolman Haggerty, who several years ago read medicine at Dublin, remained by Brown and worked hard on him.

The beats of his pulse and heart were so weak that they could not be felt. Haggerty was positive the man was gead. Bringing him into the sir he dashed water on him and forced some whiskey cown his throat. He then raised Brown, shaking him vigcrously, and in a few minutes his patient revived. The ambulance of the Lackawanna hospital was sent for and Brown was removed there. An exam-Ination showed two deep gashes on his head. Loss of lood caused the Loss of blood caused the his head. lieved had he not been treated in time would have died. He was taken back to jail later.

When arraigned in police court yesterdhy morning he told Alderman Storr that Saturday pight he went to visit a brother-in-law on this side. A heated argument occurred and it resulted in his being hit on the head several times with a stove raker. While endeavoring to find his way home he matism. was arrested by the constable. The alderman discharged him

Brown later appeared before Alderman Lentes and gave information for arrest of his brother-in-law, who is John Brink, of Charry street, charging him with assault and battery and attempt to kill. The warrant will be served today.

THREE PUNERAUS. The funeral of Walt 2, the 8-year-

Dr.Bull's Will cure incipient con-scraption, broadchits, grappe, asthma, ma all Cough Syrup other throat or lung af-factions without fail. You can always rely on it. Price only 25 cents.

old son of Patrolman and Mrs. Ernest Schmidt, was held yesterday afternoon from the parental home, 623 Prospect avenue. Services were held at the touse and grave by Rev. George Bubech, of the German Methodist Episco pal church. Interment was made at the Minooka cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Henry Scwhenker, Walter Kemmerer, William Myers and John Winkler, Charles Dickman and Herman Sewhenker. From her late home, 1025 South Washington avenue, the funeral of Mrs. Carl Glash took place yesterday afternoon with services at the house commencing at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. J. Schmidt, of the Church of Peace, officiating. Interment was made in the family plot at the Pittston avenue cemetery. There were many floral tributes placed on the bier. Adam Gremier, William Scheffler, M. H. Gallagher, John Stoksi, Jacob Gerhardt and Fred Ehrhardt were the pall-bearers. The funeral of Miss Carrie Rosen took place Saturday afternoon from Scranton generally is concerned. George Rosen, 609 Cedar avenue. The to rest in the Pittston avenue cemeing and Adam Kroyer.

NUBS OF NEWS.

James McCarrick and John Constantine, lads about 14 years of age, were boys broke a large plate window at conducted yesterday morning by Alhis store. Hearings in the matter was postponed until tomorrow night.

James F. Best, the hotelman, received in his immense lot of Yuletide presents an alligator measuring nearly pan B. Thirteenth regiment, at Camp McKenzie at Augusta Ca. shipped the creature to Mr. Best, which is attracting much attention.

At a recent meeting of the Scranton Athletic club the following nominations were made for officers to be elected a month hence: President, Edmund J. Robinson and Charles Mursch: vice president, Fred C. Neuls; financial secretary, Peter P. Neuls; recording sec-George Wirth; librarian, Charles Langman and John Roth: captain, Chris Rose, and Metz Bohn, trus-

The annual ball and country dance held at Natter's hall, on Alder street, this afternoon and tonight. The country dance will be given in the night and the afternoon will be devoted to the usual dancing. Indications point to omplete success of the undertaking. Mrs. Charles Neuls, of Cedar avenue, is confined to her home with rheu-

MINOOKA.

Messrs, Joseph Kelly and John Gibbons, students at St. Michael's college, Toronto, Capada, are spending their vacation with their parents here. F. J. Eagan, of Jermyn, spent Christ-

McCahill, who died Friday, will take left him, the horse for some unknown place this morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem high mass will be solemnized at street and down to Main avenue. St. Joseph's Catholic church. Interment will be made in the family plot in Minooka Catholic cemetery.

mas with his parents on Davis street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Eagan, of Jervisited Minooka friends yester-

Globe Warehouse

Last Days

view is to get rid of every item of Holiday Special-this, we've forced prices away down below the cost

The Blackboards at39c

The finely-made Desks at$2.49

The Drop-Leaf Toy Tables at.... 41c

The High Chairs, with Tray, at 49c

Tabourettes, in oak and walnut, at 49c

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Indefinitely, but what good would it do? Everything holidayish has been turned over by the money of the bargain hunters, and by Saturday night we hope to see our fixtures completely cleared of everything that was specially bought for Christmas.

Sweeping Reductions

in All Departments

mark in many cases.

The List Might

word to the wise, etc.

Be Prolonged

See

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MANNER IN WHICH CHRISTMAS WAS OBSERVED.

Two Marriages Were Quietly Performed Saturday Afternoon-Runaway That Caused Much Excitement-Funeral of John O'Rourke Yesterday Afternoon - Surprise Party for Geerge Asbury - Programme That Will Be Rendered by Children of Industrial School.

Few Christmas days in previous years have been ushered in so quietly as that of yesterday so far as West the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. main streets were thronged with sightseers and shoppers up to a late hour remains of the young lady were laid Saturday evening and the stores were busy throughout the whole day. tery. The pall-bearers were: Charles far as entertainment of any kind in Fueller, August Nagie, August Dels- the churches, etc., none occurred Saturday evening, as those who intend having appropriate observances will do so this evening.

During the evening and night of Saturday, the police made six arrests, five arraigned before Alderman Ruddy Sat- men and one woman. The charges urday night on the charge of malicious were helplessly drunk, drunk and fightmischief. William Tobin, of Pittston ing, and disorderly conduct. Four of avenue, in the Twentieth ward, was the prisoners were fined $7 each and the the prosecutor. He alleged that the other two $3.50 each, in police court derman Davies. Each fine was paid. Yesterday a service of some sort was conducted at each of the many churches and mission schools on this side. Extended notice of these services apfive feet, Henry Berghauser, of Com- pear in the local columns of The Trib-

Today the general observance of the day will occur, all the shops, mines, stores, etc., being closed. This evening, at almost every church and mission, the annual Christmas festivities will be enjoyed by the members of the Sunday schools of each. There will be the usual Christmas trees, gaily decorated, distribution of presents, candies Programmes for most of these affairs have already been published in these columns, and will undoubtedly be carried out in full.

So far as West Scranton is particularly concerned, the "Day of Days" of the Century fiese company will be has been very welcome. The mines and shops have worked on such good time and people have been provident. Only two drawbacks to a full and complete enjoyment present themselves, those of lack of snow and considerable illness owing to a general prevalency of the grip and kindred afflictions.

CAUSED ONLY EXCITEMENT. Thrilling but without accident or damage was the runaway in which the outfit owned by Mrs. Louis Schoen proprietress of the Star laundry, of Jackson street, participated in Saturday evening about 8 o'clock. The driver, Ira Davies, had left the horse standing near the curb, while delivering a laundry package in a house on North The funeral of the late Mrs. John Lincoln avenue. Shortly after Davies > cause, dashed off, turned onto Jackson Here in attempting to turn up Mair avenue, the galloping animal dashed directly into the lower entrance of John's Brothers Shoe store. One of the thills buried itself in one of the corner window frames and the impact threw the horse from its feet. He was immediately seized by a patroin an who | Hadley formerly resided here but his and attempted to arrest progress on Jackson street. The covered wagon stayed on its wheels, the harness was not broken and the horse only suffered t few scratches. Within a few mo ments Driver Davies proceeded with his delivering. A woman was just stepping from the doorway of the store when the horse dashed toward her, but stepped back in and was only sur-

WERE QUIETLY MARRIED.

Miss Esther Morgan and Thomas Y. Jones, both of this side, were married Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the Jackson Street Baptist church. by the pastor, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside in a newly furnished home on Keyser avenue.

A little later in the day Rev. De-Cruchy was called upon to officiate in Holiday Trade a similar capacity. Miss Elizabeth Lewis and Isaac Prosser, both residents of Old Forge were the contractng parties. They were unattended and unediately after the ceremony they returned to Old Forge where a reception was tendered them by their friends. They will reside in Old Forge, where both are well known

GEORGE ABSURY SURPRISED. The members of class No. 22, of the Scranton Street Baptist Sunday school, accompanied by their lady friends, tendered their teacher, G. Asbury, a Christmas eve surprise at his home Talk is useless at this late hour. The one point in on North Sumner avenue. Saturday Mr. Asbury was thoroughly surprised but proved an excellent host. ties now in stock, and to make sure of accomplishing Pleasant diversions were enjoyed by the visitors, and a short programme was carried out, at the conclusion of which the host was presented with a handsome and costly Bible. The presentation speach was delivered by David Holley, president of the class in a thoughtful manner, to which the recipient responded in his usual cheerful

At a sessonable hour refreshments were served, after which several flashlight photographs were taken by William Burt and Fred G. Peters. Those present were the Misses Jessie Asbury. Ruth Beddoe, Helen Fowler, Eva Philiips, Martha Wilkes, Clera Carpenter, Clara Reid, Lizzie Butt, Annie Bevan and Alice Williams: Messrs, John Davis, George Asbury, Charles Carpenter, Harry Conkin, Frank Dagger George Phillips, William Butt, Fred G. Peters, David Holley and Fred Gray.

FUNERAL OF JOHN O'ROURKE.

The funeral of the late John O'Rourke was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of an uncle, M. Dunnigan, 1529 Luzerne street, and many friends were in attendance. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

The remains were borne to St. Patrick's church where a blessing was pronounced by Rev. D. A. Dunne. terment was made in the Cathedral cemetery. The pailbearers were Patrick and John Kenny, M. Dunnigan, TONIGHT AND TOMORROW NIGHT And each day and night during this week you can get at any druggist's Kemp's Bulsam for the Throat and Lungs, acknowledged to be the most successful remedy ever sold for Coughs, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption. Get a bottle today and keep it always in the house, so you can check your cold at once. Price 5c. and 50c. Sample bottle free.

Thin, pale and consump- DAY'S DOINGS IN tive persons should use ome constructive tonic that will enrich the blood, increase the nerve force and renew wasted tissues.

Scott's Emulsion is based upon scientific principles. We digest the oil for you by mechanical processes, thus strengthening your digestive organs by resting them. It stops wasting, and produces energy, vigor and warmth. The hypophosphites in it invigorates the nerves, and brain tissues. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

jr., M. McHugh, Patrick and James

MISSION ENTERTAINMENT. The children of the Industrial and Mission school connected with the Scranton Street Baptist church and taught by Miss Anna E. Morgan, have prepared an excellent entertainment which they will give this evening at the church. The church will be decorated and presents will be distributed to the members of the Sunday school, Following is the programme:

Christmas Fairies Drill

Recitation, "The Twelve Sisters, Jesste John

Alice Williams and Roy Wheeler Recitation, "A Christmas Carol," Bessie Bonner horus, "The Joyous Tones of Christ-Jolly" Frances Crofut Little Waiters Drill A Class Recitation, "A Gentle Reminder,"

Beatrice and Nellie Hoff Chorus, "Once a Little Baby Lay," Recitation, "If You're Good." Alice Williams

PERSONAL MENTION. Mrs. W. W. Patterson, of Philadel-phia, is the guest of West Scranton relatives. John A. Grant, of St. Joseph's college, Baltimore; Thomas Larkin, of Niagara university: Arthur Reynolds, of John Hopkins, Baltimore; Arthur Phillips, of Bucknell, and M. Duffy, of the Untversity of Pennsylvania, are spending the holidays at their respective homes Miss Edna Evans, a student at Bloomsburg Normal school, is home for he holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davies, of New York city, are the guests of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Davies, of South Lincoln avenue. Harry Hadley, a sailor aboard the Brooklyn, is the guest of his cousin. Ford Hadley, of Eynon street. Sailor home is now at Scattle, Wash,

Miss Gertrude Cannon, of Jackson Williams, of Clark's Summit. P. Gallagher, of Jackson street, is eriously ill at his residence Albert Elias, of West Virginia, is at home for the holidays, Mailcarrier John H. Phillips' Christmas present-a baby girl. Congratulations from friends are being tendered. Gwilym Jenkins, of Alexandria, Ind., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Jenkins, of Jackson street. Miss Edna Lewis, of South Main avenue, is home for the holidays from Bloomsburg Normal school. Miss Nellie Sullivan, of Eynon street, s visiting in New York city. Miss Norma E. Nicholls, of Lafayette street, is visiting in Wilkes-Barre.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The nominces of the Democratic pary for ward offices as selected at primaries held Saturday afternoon in the Twenty-first ward, are as follows: Common council, Thomas Norton (for re-election): alderman, Michael Reilly: constable, John Quinn; register of voters, Michael Grant; judge of election, John Harrison: inspector of election. Thomas Grant. No special opposition to the above candidates developed itelf and the primaries passed off quiet-

A grand Christmas eisteddfod will be onducted at Plymouth today in Me-Alarney's hali, by the young people of the Welsh Congregational church of that place. The following prominent West Scrantonians will act in the various official capacities: Adjudicators-Music, Henry P. Davies: prose and poetry, Rev. D. P. Jones; judges, W. Davies and A. Parch Davis; president, W. E. Johns. The main prize is $40 on the piece, "Arise All Ye Nations," by Ambrose Lloyd. The talent from this side will be represented by local vo-

At the regular meeting of Patagonia lodge, No. 326, Knights of Pythias, to be held next Wednesday evening officers for the ensuing term will be elected.

The regular meeting of Dewl Sant odge, No. 50, Order American Ivorites, which fall on this evening, is postoned until next Thursday evening, when the officers will be elected.

The funeral of the late Mrs. David

Holmes will be held this morning from the residence, 218 North Sumner avenue. Services will be conducted at St David's Episcopal church at 16 o'clock, Interment will be made at Washburn street cemetery.

FAMILY IN HARD LUCK.

Father Stabbed and Now the Son Loses a Leg.

Robert Elliott, 25 years old, son of the Robert Elliott who was stabbed, but not fatally, by John Orgill during a fight in a Providence saloon, had one of his legs cut off by a Delaware and Hudson train at the Providence station Saturday evening.

Elliott was crawling beneath one of he cars of a coal train when the train started and a wheel passed over his leg below the knee before he could crawl to a place of safety. He was taken to the Lackawanna bospital.

Orgill, the assailant of the young man's father, was convicted at the last term of criminal court and sentenced to nine months in fail.

DUNMORE BOROUGH

FUNERAL OF JOHN W. MAR-SHALL LARGELY ATTENDED.

Griffin Post of the Grand Army, and Lodge No. 816 of Odd Fellows Attended-Opening of the Firemen's Fair-Those Who Are in Charge of the Booths-James McHugh Arrested for Assaulting His Brother. Short Paragraphs and Notes of a Personal Nature.

With sorrowing relatives and friends gathered around, paying the last tribute of love and respect to their departed friend and comrade, all that was mortal of the late John W. Marshall, of Cherry street, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the family plot in the Dunmore cemetery.

The services were conducted in his late home by the Rev. W. F. Gibbons, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a devoted member, who delivered an eloquent sermon over the remains. Following the service at the house, the remains were conveyed by Funeral Director Letchworth to the Dunmore cemetery, where interment was made.

The Griffin post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic; Independent Order of Odd Fellows, No. 816, of which societies he was a member, attended in a body and conducted additional services at the cemetery. The pall-bearers were members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Grand Army of the Republic.

ASSAULTED HIS BROTHER.

James McHugh, of Meade street was arrested by Officer Matthews yesterday at noon for assaulting his brother on the night prior, while asleep, cutting his head severely.

He was given a hearing before Burgess Powell last evening and told to pay a fine of $10 or go to the county jail for thirty days. He was given until this morning to decide.

FIREMEN'S FAIR.

The firemen's fair opened Saturday evening, a large crowd being in attendance. At the booths, four in number, were many valuable and pretty articles contributed for the fair. The booths are in charge of the following young ladies: Red booth-Miss Mary Flannelly, fore-lady; Sallie Lynett, May Maloney and Mary Cunningham. Blue booth-Miss Mary McKinney, orelady; Mrs. Urban, Julia Murray, Laura O'Hora and Nellie Murray.

Pink booth-Miss Gibbons, forelady; Miss Tevens and Mrs. Lavin. Yellow both-Miss Ella Derigg, fore-

Tonight the celebrated character sketch artists, Collins and Matthews, will produce their famous song dance and negro sketches.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The pupils of the High school received their first books from the new library Friday afternoon. The books of the library number about two hundred, and are by the best authors.

The Sunday school children of the Methodist Episcopal church will conduct their Christmas exercises in the church this evening. Exercises will begin at 7.30 o'clock. All are invited to Word has been received that the new combined hose and chemical wagon of the Neptune Fire company will arrive this morning. The agent, who is here, will work upon it until everything is complete and will have it ready for tomorrow's parade. The parade will start at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The employes of the Scranton Stove corks received their pay Saturday, The postoffice hours for today are as follows: 7,30 a, m, to 8,30 a, m.; 10,45 a. m. to 11.45 a. m., and 1.45 p. m. to 2.45

The Indian foot ball team will conduct their first annual ball in Odd Fetlows' hall this evening. Admission, 25 cents. A still alarm of fire was received by phone last evening at Bone's drug store, saying there was a fire in the vicinity of the Scranton Stove works. It proved, upon investigation, to be a false alarm.

The Sabbath school of the Presbyerian church elected the following offiers yesterday: Superintendent, G. W. B. Allen: assistant superintendent. W. Robertson; secretary, Arthur W. Close; treasurer, S. B. Bulkley; librarian, George Nye: assistant librarian, Charles Boyd: pianist, Miss Emma Bone superintendent of primary department. Mrs. Boyard: assistant superintendent of primary department, Miss Mace. The last rehearsal for tomorrow evening's Christmas cantata will be held this

PERSONAL NOTES.

Sergeant Sam Chamberlain, Eighth United States cavalry, who has been stationed at Fort Meade, South Dakota, until recently, when he received orders to go to Cuba, arrived in town late Saturday evening on a furlough to spend Christmas day home. He will eport at Washington, D. C., today. William Runion, of Hawley, is spending a few days with Curtis Wilds, of Fifth street. Lloyd Snyder, of Pennsylvania institute at Philadelphia, is spending the holidays with his parent, Mrs. A. Snyder, on Dudley street.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Bryden and family, of North Blakely street, will leave this morning for Avoca, where they will spend the holidays. William Wallace, of Blakely, was a aller on friends in town yesterday. Theophilus Pinkney, of Ashley, spent Christmas with his parents on Prescott avenue Mrs. Thomas Young, of West Drinker greet.is the guest of relatives in Avoca. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Connelly, of North Blakely street, are spending a few days with Pittston friends Otto Winters, of South Blakely street is indisposed. George Pudge and Edward Harper spent Christmas with friends in Peck Misses Spangenburg and Strong have

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O

.Gained 50 Lbs.

Dr. H. B. Buterbaugh, . Indiana, Pa., writes: "Have used Johann Hoff's Malt Extract with very satisfactory results. I have one patient who began to use it about six weeks ago. His weight then was 95 lbs. He now weighs 146 lbs. and is strong and healthy."

...Johann Hoff's Malt Extract

AMUSEMENTS.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC. BURGUNDER & REIS, Lesses, H. R. LONG, Manager.

3 NIGHTS AND 3 MATINEES Commencing Xmas Matinee Dec. 26

Oliver Byron

Mrs. Kate Byron

and the Famous Byron Comediaus, with a Strong Company, introducing

Xmas matinee, Tues night and Wed matinee THE UPS AND DOWNS OF LIFE

ACROSS THE CONTINENT Wed night a grand triple bill, including

Xmas night and Tuesday matines

THE ANXIOUS WIDOW Evening Prices-15c, 25c, 35c, 50c

Matinee Prices -15c, 25c. Regular evening prices will prevail Christ after a visit with Miss Lillie Fudge, of Apple street. Miss May Simpson,of Wyoming seminary, is spending the holidays with her parents on West Drinker street. Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, of NORTH SCRANTON.

The police were called to Green Ridge Flats late Saturday evening to quell a disturbance in a house of ill-repute. Ten inmates were arrested and at a hearing before Alderman Roberts yesterday they were nned from $3 to $6

At the North Main Avenue Baptist church this evening the Christmas tree services will be of a very fine order. The programme is one of the finest, and the following talent will participate: Mrs. Miller, Miss Mabel Weiss, Miss Mattle Huntsman and Mr. John Jones will render solos. Miss Elizabeth Henwood will preside at the plane and Miss Julia Henwood and Mr. John Stopford will be the violin accompan-

The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold their Christmas tree services in the Sunday school room this evening. Some of the best talent in this section have been engaged and a rare treat is expected. All the cla some part, and a varied programme will be rendered. All are welcome. Admission free.

The annex to the armory, which will be started this week, will be a threestory brick structure with stores on the first floor and flats above. The entrance to the armory will be through an arcade, which will have offices on The stores fronting on both sides. Main street will be occupied by J. U. Hopewell's printing office and the Providence Gas and Water company office. The North End Stars will meet the Pine Brook Crescents this afternoon at the armory in a friendly game of basket ball. The West Ridge colliery employes ere paid Saturday. Professor A. F. O'Boyle, of Cusick avenue, is confined to his home by an attack of grip. The Wolf Tone club will hold a special meeting this evening, at which business of special importance will be Miss Clark, of the kindergarten school, on Market street, is visiting her parents in Boston, Mass. Mrs. G. Wilder, of Weston place, is risiting friends in Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Webb, of Parker street, are visiting relatives in Shamokin Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beny are visiting relatives in Peckville. George L. Stanton is home from Bucknell university to spend the holi-

Mrs. James Pace, of Carbondale spent Saturday with friends here. John J. Lynott, of St. Michael's seminary, Toronto, Canada, is spending his vacation with his parents here.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mrs. Edward Fuller, of Dickson avenue, is spending a few days in Downs-Professor T. H. Ward, of Duryea, is spending a few days with Robert Sewall, of Jadwin street. The library will be closed this afernoon and evening. The Celestial lodge, 823, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet in their hall this evening. The Order United American Mechanics, will meet Tuesday evening to elect officers for the ensuing year. The Asbury Methedist Episcopal church will hold their Christmas tree services this evening. W. S. Found is visiting his parents in Prompton. Mrs. Andrew Nicol is home from an extended trip through the western David L. Jones was seriously injured in the Dickson mine on Friday. He had returned to his chamber to ascertain why a blast had not discharged, when it exploded and brought down a mass of rock and coal. Jones sustained a fractured leg and was cut and He was taken to his home on

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

AMUSEMENTS.

YCEUM THEATRE. REIS & BURGUNDER, Lessess H, R. LONG, Manager.

Christmas Matines and Night, Dec. 26, The Original HERMANN THE GREAT CO. Headed by the Famous ADELAIDE HERMANN Presenting the Grandest and Most Mys Ufying Programme of Magic Ever Seen Upon Any Stage.

The Maid of The Moon A beautiful young indy walks, dances and turns somersaults in mid-a.r without aby visible support.
Addialde Hermann's World - Famous Dances, a revelation in poetle motion, color and spiender.
Prices 25c, 59c, 75c, $1.00.

Special Xmas Matinee Monday Thursday, Friday and Saturday

RICE & BARTON'S Rose Hill's Burlesquers

OBITUARY.

Mrs. James W. Peters died Saturday aftermeon at the reshience, 22 Fourteenth street, after an illness of a few onys. Precumonia, superinduced by grip, was the cause of death. Deceased was about Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, of Peckville, spent Christmas with Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Henry Webber, 57., on Harper street.

Mr. Wilber Wilds, of Fifth street, who has been the guest of friends at Hawley, has returned home.

It the cause of death. Deceased was about 34 years of age and came here from Wales when very young. She was a much respected young woman. Her husband, a well known Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employe, and two children, Ruth and Walter, survive her. Funeral Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Washburn street cemeter).

Miss Genevieve Philips, age 14, daugh Miss Genevieve Phillips, age 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips of Green Ridge, died Saturdag afternoon after an illness of aimost a year. She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs Bridget Reilly, Miss Kate Phillips, Patrick, Michael and John T. Phillips, The funeral will be held at 10 o clock this morning from the residence of her parents, 14th Dickson avenue. A solemn high mass of requient will be estebrated in St. Paul's church, Green Ridge, and in-terment will be made in the athedral

Margaret, wife of Albert Bi-dlingmaier, died at her home. 714 Pittiston avenue, yesterday at 2 o'clock after an illness of but four hours. Up to 19 o'clock she was in good health, and when taken with a severe attack of illness she was cargaged in preparing edibles for dinter. Dr. Walsh was summoned and remained with Mrs. Beldlingmater until it appeared her condition was safe. About noon sho became worse and died at the hour noted. The deceased was 32 years of age and one of the popular young women of est a baby of five months, and Louis and John Lohmann, her prothers, and Mrs. George Schantz, a sister, survive her. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon with services at the house, commencing at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Pitiston avenue cemetery.

Richard Milton Brodhead died Saturday corning of spinal meningitis at his home in Mauch Chunk. Deceased was born lifty-nine years ago in Beaver Meadow, and when an infant one year old his parents removed to Mauch Chunk, where he ever since resided. When quite young he became identified with the Lehigh Valrailroad, filling various positions until the Philadelphia and Rending leased the road. For several years be was trainmaster of the Wyoming division and later Beaver Meadow branch of the Leiden Valley. Besides being occupied in railread affairs he was at one time superin-tendent of the Mauch Chunk Water company, also the Mauch Chunk Gas com-pany and fer one year edited the Mauch Chunk Democrat, immediately after Jo-Chunk Democrat, immediately after Josephus Lynn retired. Mr. Brodhead was a son of the late A. G. Brodhead, who for many years was assistant superintendent of the Lehigh Valley railroad. Besides his wife four sisters survive him. They are: Mrs. E. R. Enbedy, Mrs. Horace Hamilin and Mrs. Charles Weih, of Mauch Chunk, and Mrs. George Houser, of Bechlehem. The funeral will be held at 2.30 kelosk Tuesday afternoon. Interment clock Tuesday afternoon. Interment

Miss Martha Jane Evans died Saturday afternoon at the residence of her mothe Mrs. Robert Evans 38 North Rebes avenue. Deceased was only 13 years of age and enjoyed a wide circle of friends. The funeral will be held from the restnce temorrow afternoon at 2.3 Interment will be made at the Washburn

Hot House Cucumbers, Hot House Tomatoes,

Green Beans, Lettuce, Cauliflower, Egg Plant, Salsify, Strictly Fresh Eggs, Creamery Butter, Grapes, Oranges and Fruits

Pierce's Market

East Market street.