IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

Good Vaudeville Feature. Oliver Byron and Kate Byron have for a long time been popular favorites in Scranton and last night they made the farewell night of one of the most successful engagements they ever played here.

Noteworthy was the first production Curious Widow." It was one of the ens Post, G. A. R., No. 394: Scranton audience has had the pleasthe charming light comedy of Oliver Byron it certainly deserved its reception. Should these clever artists choose to make this play a vaudeville venture they would make no mistake.

New Romantic Play.

"Vagabondia," the new romantic play which will occupy the New Year's attention at the Lyceum theater next Monday matinee and night in a special holiday offering, has the additional advantage of having Mr. and Mrs. Russ Whytal appear in it as principals. When it is remembered that Mr. and Mrs. Whytal afforded a liberal quantity of high class dramatic interest in "For Fair Virginia" several times here, some idea can be had regarding the merits of the performance they will give on Monday next, Jan. 2. The play, "Vagabondia," is described as belonging to that romantaic class of stage productions which invariably awaken pleasant enjoyment to those who delight in the elevating sort of stage entertainments. Mr. and Mrs. Whytal will bring with them elaborate costumes of the eighteenth century style, which are appropriate to the period during which the action of the play takes place and promises some very picture-que scenery as well.

At the Gaiety.

The Rose Hill English Folly company the greatest vaudeville and burcompany ever organized, will be the attraction at the Galety Dec. 29, 30 and 31, commencing with Thursday matinee. They will present a new and sparkling, rich and racy, up-todate, original market before titled "Wicked Paris," with a host of Take Laxative money pretty girls, pretty costumes, pretty lets. All druggists refund the money pretty girls, pretty dances, pretty voices, if it fails to cure, 25c. The genuine date, original musical burlesque, enes, gavottes, ballets, scenery and the new and original burietta entitled "Round the Town." See the garden of palms, Cupid's Cavotte, the Zigzag dancers, the Musical Vivandiers, the Return of the army. In all a bewildering exhibition of female loveliness.

An alarm of fire was sounded at 9 o'clock last night and it being in the central ward, it created the one and only excitement of the day. The alarm was sent to from Williams street and proved to be in the residence of Dr. O'Malley. The Niagaras and Eagles responded promptly and arrived in time to see a blazing couch being flung out of the window. The damage was so slight that the firemen were spared the necessity of tapping the plug,

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Dec. 28.—Contrary to the course of the market for some weeks prices showed a proncunced decline on the day's trading and this was opposed to the tendency abroad, London having bought some 25,000 shares on balance. The volume of business was large although not up to yesterday's record breaking figures. The greater part of the business today was also accompanied by a burst of animation. While stocks were strong at the opening New York prices were not up to those of London, where Americans were buoyant. The Grangers and Coalers were strong. The advance in the latter stock a great part of which was retained througout, was perhaps explained by a strong. The advance a great part of which was retained througout, was perhaps explained by a subsequent announcement that anthracite prices had been ordered advanced at Huffalo and Chicago. It became evident that there had been large realizing sales on yesterday's and today's bulges in prices and traders attacked the general list with considerable success. Prices Stock is interesting today—prices are more so.

No store ever showed so complete and attractive a line. Garments fhat are perfect in style, fine fitting, with every attention given to detail in the workmanship.

Stock is interesting today—prices are prices and traders attacked the general list with considerable success. Prices rallied somewhat from the lowest but a sharp flurry in call money which for a time advanced to 6 per cent., although subsequently it eased off to about yesterday's quotations, gave the bears an opportunity to effect marked declines in prices but the securities sold were readily absorbed. Total sales were $12,700 shares. Quotations furnished by LABAR & FULLER, steck, grain and cotton brokers, rooms 209 and 210, Board of Trade building, Scranton, Pa.
