

GRAND REVIEW OF THE DIVISION

FINEST BODY OF VOLUNTEERS IN THE SERVICE.

Flag Incident Caused Some Unpleasantness—A Captain of the First Maryland Regiment Purchased Confederate Flags and Raised Them in a Regiment Street—An Exciting Foot Ball Game That Was Won by Members of Thirtieth—Company F Promotions.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Camp MacKenzie, Augusta, Ga., Dec. 28.—A general review of the division and of the signal corps and the squadron of the regular cavalry was held on the drill grounds this morning at 9:30 o'clock by Major-General Rumor and Young. The troops made a good impression, and after the review Major General Young, the corps commander, remarked that this is the finest and best division of volunteers now in the service of the United States. Nothing more definite than this transpired indicative of any movement of the division towards Cuba.

THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY.

In consequence of an order from Brigadier General Gobin, all military duties except that of the regular guard and fatigues, were suspended Monday and instructions were issued to the effect that the most liberal pass privileges should be allowed, so that all might not only have a complete rest from all work, but even enjoy a visit to the capital of Richmond county.

THE OFFICERS.

Corporal George Russ, of D, was one of the line-men, and Dr. Merriman was tinkeener. Lieutenant Griggs, of the Fifteenth Minnesota, a member of the Third brigade staff, and Lieutenant Nelson, of the First United States (regular) infantry, a member of the Third brigade staff, acted as referee and umpire respectively.

LEFT FOR SCRANTON.

Lieutenant Colonel Stillwell left for his home in Scranton Monday afternoon on a fifteen day leave of absence. Lieutenant David J. Davis, of E, went home Monday morning, having been granted a leave of absence for twenty days. While home he will survey his political prospects for the city controllership. The boys here will all sick by him, as he has always been well liked by them.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

PUTTING THE FARBER DROP HARNESS IN PLACE.

The New Chemical Engine Will Be Tested Saturday Afternoon—Attractions at the Firemen's Fair Last Night—George Williams, of Bloom Street, Injured by a Fall, Miss Emma Ludwig Entertained a Number of Friends Wednesday Evening—Letters Unclaimed.

G. Edwin Mitter commenced placing the Farber drop harness hangers in position in the Neptune fire company's room yesterday. The hanger, in comparison with a number of others in use, is the simplest constructed. It is noted for its simplicity and easy manipulation, it being an easy task for one man to hang a harness when using this hanger. It is so constructed that the only weights used are sufficient to balance the collar instead of the whole harness, a feature that no other hanger has, also that it is impossible to jar the harness from the hooks.

EXCITING PAUL GAME.

Coming close on the heels of the flag incident was the game of foot ball between two teams representing the Thirtieth and the First Maryland. The invitation to play came from the latter and it was accepted at once. The game was played in the Augusta park in the presence of a large number of citizens and soldiers. Practically all the citizens took side with the Marylanders in the contest, while the soldiers, excepting those from the challenging regiment, yelled for the Thirtieth team. This fact with the flag incident combined to make the contest an issue between the north and the south. Rivalry was rampant, and the unusually fine day brought out every spark of latent enthusiasm. The orange and black of Maryland were conspicuous and frequent cheers were given for that side, but members of the Thirtieth, Eighth and Fifteenth Minnesota, with tin horns, college yells and war whoops raised such an uproar as was never before heard within a radius of twenty miles of the quiet and antiquated Fountain City. They fairly took the place by storm, and that foot ball game, together with the surrounding circumstances, will long be the talk of the town. The game was won by the Thirtieth by a score of 2 to 0.

FIREMEN'S FAIR.

Owing to the illness of Miss Gillespie, of Olyphant, who is confined to her home with illness, the Picket Line Dramatic company did not present the military drama entitled "At the Picket Line" at the Firemen's fair last evening. Miss Gillespie is the leading lady and her presence was necessary to render the play. However, Mr. Quick, as soon as he received word of her illness, prepared a special programme for the occasion, which was well received and loudly applauded by the audience.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

George Williams, of Bloom street, is confined to his home, the result of injuries sustained by a fall. He was walking around the garden and lost his footing, falling upon a stone, which badly sprained it and rendering it useless. It will be several weeks before he will recover the use of his arm.

MOTHER GOOSE BANQUET.

Christmas celebration at All Souls' Universalist Church. The holiday season was celebrated very pleasantly at All Souls' Universalist church on Wednesday evening with songs and recitations. A short juvenile play entitled "Mother Goose's Christmas" and a Christmas tree. Myrtle Beemer, Mabel Tompkins and Edith Gamewell recited, the school sang and Mrs. S. C. Benjamin and Miss Ida Smith rendered a duet.

ECZEMA FOR YEARS CURED

TWO REMARKABLE CASES.
I have been an intense sufferer from Eczema for five years. I tried medicines, four doctors, one a specialist in skin diseases, with improvement, and setting me almost frantic with dreadful itching. After using three bottles of CUTICURA SOAP, and one box of CUTICURA SALVE, I was completely cured.

--THE-- CHRISTMAS AFTERMATH

We are glad of a breathing spell after the holiday rush—gives us a chance to see where we are at. Incidentally, we find a mixed state of affairs, now that we have time for a survey.

We find a topsy-turvy Cloak condition that requires a nervy bit of price surgery to relieve it. Some of the new prices, you will find, are cut in the middle, or near it, in all the knife has been driven home and the cut shows plainly.
