BOY SCALDED.

Bootblack from Scranton Meets with

Painful Accident in This City. A ten or twelve year old lad names Collins, from Scranton, who has been polishing footwear in this city for some little time past, met with a painful accident in the office of Irving Sny der's livery yesterday. He was frolicking when a couple of companions when one of them picked up a pail containing about two quarts of hot water and threw the contents on him, scalding him terribly about the hips

The little fellow's cries attracted per sons who took him to Dr. Wheeler's respital, where the wounds were dressed. He was sent on an afternoon train to his home in Pine Brook. The boy who threw the water did not realize that it was hot chough

WIDENING PASSENGER CARS. Four Gravity Coaches to Be Placed on Wider Trucks.

Work is now progressing at the Delaware and Hudson car shop on four gravity passenger cars which are to e placed on wider trucks. The order was issued vesterday and there is only one way to interpret it and that is that passenger trains over the mountain will be a permanency. The indications are that instead of being run up the planes they will ascend the Moosic via the light track.

Several hundred gravity coal cars made over for wide guage, but) change in the passenger coaches as quite a surprise. It means van many other happenings Ive been elaborated upon and abandonment of the road only.
