IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

Engagement Closes.

Yoday the Waite Stock company fects and a superb company of playdosses its week's engagement at the ers, it is undoubtedly one of the best Academy. In the afternoon "The Two Kids" wil be produced and at night "Under Two Flags."

"The Village Postmaster."

"The Village Postniaster," after its long and successful run of 106 nights at the Fourteenth Street theater. New York, will come to die Lyceum theater for a matinee and night performance The play will be produced with the original cast, all of the scenery, and accessories complete, in fact, just as it was produced in New York. The theater going public of Scranton will have the opportunity of seeing a drama of rural life that the critics of the New York press have pronounced another "Old Homestead." A better play than the "County Fair" or "Shore Acres." and to go further they say that New gin a whole week's engagement. York has never seen a better drama of rural life so full of human nature and heart interest. The play it is said carries with it a smell of new mown hay, apple blossoms and pure country air. Consequently, it ought to do person good to witness it. Mr. Frank Mordaunt heads the cast as the "Vilinge Postmaster, the country dance, training day, the minister's donation party, the farm yard with the oldfashion threshing machine at work, the attractions of its kind now on the road. After a two years' run in England, "Lost in New York" returns to America to make its tenth annual tour. One of the principal scenes is Ward Island, New York city, with steam launches, row boats, ec.

Dark Next Week.

The Gulety theater will be dark for the week of Jan. 9. The attraction which was booked for that time was not up to the standard that Manager Van Osten desires to present each week at his house, consequently they were cancelled and the house will remain closed for one week only. Monday matinee, Jan. 16, Al Reeves with his big double company of twenty-five whites and twenty-five blacks will be-
