POLITICS.

Republican Primaries Passed Off Quietly Saturday Afternoon.

Although there are several aspirants for the mayoralty, the Republican primaries Saturday afternoon excited little interest. In fact, even the leaders haven't taken the pains to summarize the result. No one seems to be in a position to predict and it will take the convention to say who shall be the candidate for mayor. The other offices to be filled have received little thought and attention so far.

Among the mayoralty aspirants are G. F. Swigert, now chairman of select council; J. M. Alexander, for fifteen years school director; Reese Hughes and Luke McQuade. Hon, E. E. Hendrick cannot be termed an aspirant though he is a possibility and nobody doubts that he would accept if the nomination were tendered him.

A Hybrid Game Bird That Has Appeared in Oregon. from the Portland Oregonian.

There is a movement of foot among portsmen in Fortland to introduce the English or Grey partridge in Oregon next spring. It is proposed to import at least fifty pairs of these birds, and as they are hardy and prolinc, that number, if properly placed and pro tected for a few years, should give the species a fair start. The Williametto valley should be a paradise for them, as they prosper best where the highest state of cultivation prevails, and besides are said to be a benefit to agriculture.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still oth-
