MR. FORAKER ON EXPANSION

would be as to whether we were, in making war upon the Filipinos, vio-lating the protocol, and if there were such violation it would be a matter between the United States and Spain, without reference to anybody else. Mr. Hoar contended it was a breach of faith to attack Spain at Ilollo and bad policy to attack Aguinalde. Mr. Allen replied to Mr. Gray, asserting that Spain had no jurisdiction in the Philippines and that Aguinaldo's government was the only government there. His government was both a de facto and a de jure government, an l it had maintained itself for several years. Therefore the United States did not succeed to Spain's title to the islands.

Mr. Gray replied that evidently Mr. Allen was laboring under a misapprebension that this country was technically at war with Spain until the peace treaty was completed. It was true that active military operations had ceased and for this reason the United States was under the highest obligation to maintain good faith in the observance of the terms of the protocol.

Mr. Allen spoke briefly in reply to Mr. Gray, reiterating his position and asking for the immediate consideration

Mr. Gallinger objected and the reso-Intion went over.

A joint resolution offered by Mr. Energ (Cla.) declared that the recent war having been waged not for conquest or the acquisition of foreign territory, it is not the purpose of this govcrament to hold the Filleines as subjects or vassals, but recognizes them es a free and independent people, and that when an independent government shall have been erected, the United States will withdraw and leave the government and control of the islands in their people.

PURPOSE OF THE GOVERNMENT. During his speech, Mr. Foraker do clared emphatically: "I do not understand that any one desires anything but the ultimate independence of the people of the Philippines, neither the president nor any one in this cham-

"But what about our vight If we chose to hold them permanently, with no thought of their ultimate independence?" inquired Mr. Hear.

We have an unquestioned right to do so," replied Mr. Foraker. "I speak particularly of our legal right,"

Mr. Bacon (Ga.) at this juncture naked what difference there was between our relations to Cuba and our relations to the Philippines, why we could not deal with the latter on same basis as the former, simply hold them now with the declared purpose of giving them self-government as soon as possible. "The case of Cuba," replied Mr. Foraker, speaking with great deliberation, "was a simple one, involving only our relations with Spain and the Cubans themselves.

"In the case of the Philippines there were other complications which cannot be spoken of here, but of which senators will hear in executive session. which justified the president's course in the most ample manner and vindicates most completely everything he has done. In fact, no other course is safe in view of the object we naturally sought to attain-justice not only to ourselves, but to the people of those

What of the statement about hauling down the American flag?" interjected Mr. Hour.

"No one desires to retain the Philipnines indefinitely" reiterated Mr. Foraker again. "The president is as much a lover of liberty, truth and justice as is the senator from Massachusetts, and his love of liberty goes out to the people of the Philippines as unerringly as

THE AMERICAN FLAG.

"Then we are to understand the statement that the American flag is not to be hauled down," said Mr. Hour, does not mean that we are to hold perpetual domain. If the people of the Philippines believe their happiness can best secured by self government they are to be given an opportunity to govern themselves.

With the determination of the ultimate policy respecting the Philippines,' replied Mr. Fornker, 'their teslings will have much to do. No one, so far as I am able to learn is preparing by force and violence to take and hold them. I am willing to trust the administration. I have no sympathy with those who talk of making war on those who talked of making war on audible throughout the chamber "I repeat," continued Mr. Foraker, "that we had four choices as to what we rhould do and I affirm that the president acted wisely. It is now for ongress to investigate whether the Fillpinos are comeble of self-governnent and whether they desire selfgovernment. We will know in a short time what the feeling of the population of the islands is. Then we can not intelligently and I know we will act

"Thank God for that," murmured Mr. Hoar from his seat, but in a voice

At the conclusion of Mr. Foraker's speech Mr. Allen (Neh.) continued rieny the debate upon the constitutional questions relating to the acquissition of the Philippines. He combatted the position taken by Mr. Peraker maintaining that the United States government could not constitutionally acquire the Philippine islands without the ultimate object in view of admitting them into the Union as a state.

The value of the total annual output of these fix-$6,000,000. There are practically neither imports nor exports of these fixtures, but if the projected combination is effected, it is not improbable that new markets will be sought and an export business established. Most of the important houses in the trade are in this city and Philadelphia, but there are three in Chicago, one in Cleveland and ne in San Francisco. If the consolidation is accomplished, as is now thought probable, although some obtacles in the way of reaching a final agreement are yet to be overcome, the interests of about 18 manufacturing encerns will be united, representing about 50 per cent, of the total yearly output in the trade. The substantial ussets of the firms and companies, without reckoning in the value of their good will, patterns, etc., are estimated of Experts Only. Philadelphia. Jan. 11.—A circular let-er has been sent from the headquarters of the National Municipal league in this city to the branch leagues throughout the country urging them to give prompt and vigorous expression to the importance to good government that the census bill now pending in ongress shall require that employes of the census bureau must be selected by open competitive examinations under supervision of the civil service commis-

A Move Looking to the Employment

The letter states that the last census ontained so many gross innecuracies that the statistics were almost worthless. It also charges that this unsatisfactory work was due to the selection of officials through personal and political favoritism who were either incompetent or of strong political bias.

Suit of Cromartyshire's Owners Be gun in British Admiralty Court. London, Jan. 11.-The suit of the owners of the British steamship Cromartyshire, to recover damages from the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, on the ground that the latter's steamship La Bourgogne was respon-sible for the collision of July 4 last, which resulted in so much loss of life, was opened today in the admiralty

The French company retorts that the Cromartyshire did not make the proper fog signals and ignored La Bourgogne's signals of distress.

The captain and officers of the Crofog signals and declared they did not believe La Bourgogne was in danger of sinking.

IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

"Mr. Beane from Boston." Frank Onslow, the famous English lyric tenor, will be seen at the Academy of Music on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next in conjunction with the German Bros,' new version of James Gorman's successful musical comedy, 'Mr. Beans from Boston." Mr. Onslow who will sing several selections during the action of the play, is the possessor range, which has been highly cultivated and is used to excellent advantage.

"The Ragged Earl."

Andrew Mack, the singing comedian, who makes his appearance here on Saturday, matince and night, is a player of rarely magnetic personality; and he is said to have infused so much of those who talk of making war on himself into Gerald Fitzgerald, the Aguinalde any more than I had with leading role in "The Ragged Earl," as to make the character one of the most entertaining types of Irish life which the stage has presented in a long time. His natural bent for wit, humor and sentiment find full away in his new play, which is described as a vastly interesting picture of Irish life. wincipal part in "The Ragged Earl" was specially written with Mr. Mack in view, and the authors are said to have provided him with a role which brings all his best qualities into excel-

Next Week at the Academy.

A feast of good things will be offored at the Academy next week for those who have a penchant for combining dramatic and vaudeville, performance offered by the Brosnahan-Jackson Comedy company is, of course, similar in some respects to other popular priced organizations, but it differs in that the specialties are not furnished by the members of the dramatic company, but by a corps of vaudeville performers specially engaged to fill in the waits between the acts. The plays have been selected with great care and good judgment, and the list includes "Maine and Georgia," "Forgiven," "Only a Farmer's Daughter," "Child of Destiny," Daughter of the 21st" and "Turned Up," which are all mounted with scenic effects and accessories. The company is headed by that versagressing slowly, but steadily. Or- tile actress, Minnie Stanley.
