

TO CONSIDER PEACE TREATY

It Will Again Be Called Up in the Senate for Action.

SPEECHES IN PROSPECT

Senator Bacon Will Dwell on the Question of Extension of Territory—Opponents of the Treaty Profess Great Confidence in Being Able to Defeat It Upon a Vote.

Washington, Jan. 15.—It is the purpose of Senator Bacon, in charge of the peace treaty, to again call it up as soon as it can be reached without displacing other measures which take precedence under the existing orders of the senate.

Under the agreement made last week the canal bill will be taken up at 3 o'clock Tuesday for discussion in speeches, not to exceed 15 minutes in duration.

The senate will attend the funeral of Representative Dingley Monday afternoon, but after the ceremony the senators will return to their desks.

Senator Bacon has given notice of a speech on the general question of extension of territory on Wednesday.

Senator Bacon has given notice of a speech on the general question of extension of territory on Wednesday.

Senator Bacon has given notice of a speech on the general question of extension of territory on Wednesday.

Senator Bacon has given notice of a speech on the general question of extension of territory on Wednesday.

Senator Bacon has given notice of a speech on the general question of extension of territory on Wednesday.

By Hawaii and thence to Japan. By Thursday the postoffice appropriation bill will be reported and ready to take up in the house, and perhaps also the military academy bill.

FILIPINOS BECOME MORE FRIENDLY

They Are Still Opposed to the Landing of Troops at Iloilo—American Officers Go Ashore.

Manila, Jan. 15.—Official dispatches just received here from Iloilo, island of Panay, indicate that the natives are disposed to be friendly, although they are still opposed to the landing of the United States forces without orders from Malolos, the seat of the so-called Filipino national government.

Some of the officials at Iloilo are not in accord with the revolutionary government, but are willing to accept an American protectorate and to go to state the case to Aguinaldo if furnished transportation by the Americans.

The United States transports Newport, Arizona and Pennsylvania, of the Eighteenth infantry, the Iowa battalion, Sixth artillery and a detachment of the signal corps, constituting General Miller's expedition, are anchored close to Guimaras island, between Panay and Negros, where an excellent water supply is obtainable.

The natives, though indisposed primarily to furnish the Americans with fresh supplies, now permit the American officers to go ashore and furnish them with an escort during the day time.

PLYMOUTH'S NEW PASTOR.

Crush at Beecher's Old Church to Hear Dr. Hillis.

New York, Jan. 15.—There was an actual crush before the opening of the new Plymouth church, Brooklyn, this morning. Dr. Hillis, who is to be the new pastor, was the guest of honor.

Dr. Hillis was listened to intently. He spoke perfectly at ease and spoke so distinctly that every person in the church heard him.

GERMANY'S POSITION.

May Purchase One of the Caroline Islands.

London, Jan. 15.—The Times says editorially this morning that in the course of a reference to the denial given last Friday by Baron von Bulow, German minister of foreign affairs, through the Berlin correspondent of the Associated Press, to the reports that Germany had been negotiating with the Philippines against the Americans, says: "It is to be regretted that the irresponsible enthusiasm of some Washington politicians should have led to the use of language unnecessarily offensive to Germany."

SAT BESIDE THE KING.

Notable Banquet Given at the Palace at Rome.

Rome, Jan. 15.—At the banquet given at the palace this evening to the members of the diplomatic corps, Mrs. Draper, wife of the United States ambassador, General William F. Draper, sat on the right of King Humbert.

PHYSICIAN DEAD.

Had Just Been Appointed Resident Physician at City Hospital.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 15.—Dr. Patrick J. Moran, resident physician of the City hospital, died today at the home of his parents in Edwinstown, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was 25 years of age.

Collision on the Reading.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—In a collision between a freight train and a locomotive on the Reading and Pottsville railway at Glen Ridge, near here, today, several cars were overturned and burned and John Butt, brakeman on the freight train, was killed when the timbers and burned to death.

Pennsylvania Pensions.

Washington, Jan. 15.—These Pennsylvania pensions have been issued: Restoration and increase, John O'Connell, etc., Scranton, $6 to $12. Original widow, etc., Ann O'Connell, Scranton, $5.

CUBANS STONE A SPANISH FLAG

A BIG ROW AT THE HOTEL CALAZEL DEL MONTE.

Company B, Eighth Regular Infantry, Is Called Out to Disperse the Mob—General Alfredo Rego Refuses a Position in the Customs Service—Spanish Soldiers Thickly Quartered at Cienfuegos.

Havana, Jan. 15.—This morning a Spanish flag having been raised over the Hotel Calazel del Monte, a crowd of Cubans gathered and began to throw stones at it.

Company B, Eighth Regular Infantry, was called out and proceeded to the scene of disturbance at double quick and with fixed bayonets speedily dispersed the crowd, which was fast becoming ugly.

The officer in command explained to the proprietor that the flag ought to be lowered, because it was likely to produce further disorder.

Corporal Francis E. Green, Company K, Fourth Illinois volunteers, was drowned today while bathing in the Almendarez river.

CUBAN OFFICERS CRITICIZED.

At Mariano this morning, at the house of the Cuban chief, Luyte Vidal, a private meeting was held at which a number of prominent military men were present.

The Cuban general, Alfredo Rego, declines to accept a position in the customs service on the ground that he might "crowd out some wretched person."

SPANIARDS AT CIENFUEGOS.

Cienfuegos, Jan. 15.—The entire military department of Santa Clara, Major General J. C. Rates commanding, is quiet. Twenty-seven thousand Spaniards still remain in the vicinity of Cienfuegos, but one transport is now leaving and twelve others are expected to arrive at an early day.

The Cuban soldiers garrison the country towns in the province, as well as guard the plantations, whose owners in some cases pay each soldier $6 a month.

The Cuban mayors and civil administrators in the interior towns of the department are awaiting the advent of the American authorities.

The customs receipts here at Cienfuegos are from $5,000 to $6,000 a week. The telegraph service of the district is still in the hands of Spanish employees.

CIVIL APPOINTMENTS.

General Bates, in making civil appointments, takes fitness into consideration first, and then gives the preference to Cubans.

NEW TRAIN SERVICE.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Will Reduce Time to Havana.

New York, Jan. 15.—At noon tomorrow a train service will be started from Jersey City over the Pennsylvania railroad and the plant system, which will reduce the time of travel to Havana by three hours.

TEMPESTUOUS VOYAGE.

Rough Passage of the American Liner St. Louis.

New York, Jan. 15.—The American liner St. Louis, Captain Hand-dall, which left Southampton on January 7, arrived this morning after a tempestuous voyage.

MR. DINGLEY'S FUNERAL.

The Final Arrangements Completed Yesterday.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Final arrangements were today completed for the public funeral tomorrow of the late Representative Nelson Dingley in the hall of the house of representatives, and for the removal of the remains to the house of representatives in Maine.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

THE EAGAN CASE.

No Developments in the Affair Yesterday—Shafter Did Not Recommend the Beef.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Apparently there were no developments today in the case growing out of the attack made by Commissioner General Eagan on General Miles in his former's appearance before the war investigating commission.

William A. De Calandry, the chief clerk in the contracts agency by General Eagan with Swift & Co. for chilled, refrigerated or frozen fresh beef for the army can be explained by one; and he is not aware of any investigation by General Eagan "as to who drew up the contracts" there is no dissatisfaction on his part about the matter.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 15.—Major General Shafter and party left here at 10 o'clock this morning for San Francisco. They spent the day in visiting the army post here, where they were entertained by Colonel Mines, of the Sixth infantry, at luncheon by a concert of the regimental band of the Sixth.

Before leaving General Shafter said to a representative of the Associated Press: "I do not wish to mix into anybody's business. I have never said to General Eagan or to any one else that the beef was good, because I know nothing about it. I only know and only have said that beef at San Antonio was good. I saw it and I do not believe it was anything but good."

When the Andelma entered this port at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he was manned by a crew of nearly 30 men. Some deserted and others were discharged, until 15 were left.

The only list of victims obtainable at present is that given by Percy H. Buck, an apprentice who was injured two days prior to the disaster and taken to one of the Tacoma hospitals. It is said the ship was insured by a British agency for $100,000.

DESERTION VETERAN.

Captain John J. Kellogg Attempts to Commit Suicide.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—John J. Kellogg, of Washington, Ia., a veteran of the Civil war, attempted to commit suicide in Fairmount park today by swallowing cyanide of potassium.

A letter of recommendation signed by Senator Gear, of Iowa, and papers showing him to be a lecturer for the Washington Lyceum bureau of Washington, Ia., were found on him. He is reported to have been in this city for several weeks relative to the settlement of an estate.

FATAL SKATING ACCIDENT.

Bethlehem, Pa., Jan. 15.—While skating on the Lehigh canal this afternoon, Merrill Kidare, aged 13, son of Harry Kidare, broke through the ice. He struggled for life for 20 minutes, but a dozen friends trying to rescue him, and in their presence he drowned.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

New York, Jan. 15.—Arrived: New York, Southampton, Queenstown—Baltic; Tampa, Liverpool—New York, Havre—Arrived: La Gascogne, New York.

BRITISH SHIP SINKS AT TACOMA

ENTIRE CREW OF THE ANDELINA DROWNED LIKE RATS.

The Ship, Which Was Anchored in the Harbor, Is Capsized by the Gale and All on Board Perish—List of Victims Obtained from the Sole Surviving Member of the Crew, Who Is in a Tacoma Hospital.

Tacoma, Washington, Jan. 15.—The full list of those lost by the capsizing of the British ship Andelina in this port yesterday, is as follows:

CAPTAIN G. W. STALLING, of Annapolis, N. S. H. GROVE, aged 39, London, N. S. first mate.

E. G. DOE, aged 23, Blackpool, England. MENEY JOSSIAH, Victoria, B. C. JOSEPH M. A. D'HOLLVIERE, Ostend, Belgium, apprentice.

RICHARD RICHARD HANZE, Ostend, Belgium, apprentice. CHARLES SMITH, of United States, boatswain.

JAMES DALY, New York, boatswain. J. R. BROWN, Barbados, cook. H. HANSEN, Sweden, able seaman.

ANTHONY JOHNSON, Norway, seaman. JOHN NIELSON, Norway, seaman. F. OSTRIUM, Finland, seaman.

EDWARD LETZ, Helsingfors, seaman. FRANK H. DICKINSON, seaman. AUGUST SIMONSON, Holland, seaman. PAT WILSON, St. John's, N. E., seaman.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

The ship, which was of English build and worth probably $100,000, entered this port several days ago.

BROADSIDE TO THE GALE.

The situation was further aggravated by the fact that the tides were just setting in, and the ship is supposed to have gone down.

Late this afternoon the vessel was located, she lay on her broadside under 23 fathoms of water close to the spot where she had been anchored.

When the Andelma entered this port at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he was manned by a crew of nearly 30 men. Some deserted and others were discharged, until 15 were left.

MEMBER OF GENERAL GOGIN'S STAFF EXPIRES WHILE ON A FURLOUGH.

Harrisburg, Jan. 15.—Captain A. Wilson Norris, of Harrisburg, assistant adjutant general of the staff of General J. P. S. Gogin, commander of the Third brigade of the First division of the Second army corps, stationed at Augusta, Ga., died suddenly this evening at the Harrisburg club.

Norris came home last night on a furlough to attend the inaugural ceremonies and was apparently in good health until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he was taken sick while conversing with friends. He was a nephew of the late Auditor General A. Wilson Norris, who was vice-president of the state league of Republican clubs and one of the best known and most popular young men in the community.

He gave up the practice of law with the breaking out of the war with Spain to become adjutant of the Eight regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, and was subsequently promoted to captain and assigned to General Gogin's staff.

COUNTESS IS PROUD.

She Refuses to Live with a Mercenary Husband.

London, Jan. 15.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "Countess Rosemond de Rouge-Aix, daughter of Mr. Steward, a Boston millionaire, has been living in this city incognito, as the governess in a gentleman's house. It appears that within a few minutes after her wedding she learned by chance that the count had only married her because her father had promised to pay his debt, which amounted to $1,500,000. Overcome by this disclosure she ran away as a protest against her being sold in this way and she intends to earn her living here until she can divorce her mercenary husband."

THE NEWS THIS MORNING

Weather indications today: Partly Cloudy.

- 1 General—British Ship and Crew Lost, The State Senatorial Flight, Forensic Cases, Cubans Insult the Spanish Flag. 2 General—Biennial Report of the Attorney General, Financial and Commercial. 3 Local—Result of Saturday's Republican City Primaries. 4 Editorial. 5 News of Porto Ricans. 6 General—The Collection of Havana Customs. 7 Local—Sermon by Rev. G. L. Aldrich, Resignation of Rev. F. U. Gift, Fire Insurance Companies Made no Money Last Year. 8 Local—Duryea Murder Suspects Discharged, Eleventh Annual Y. W. C. A. Meeting. 9 Local—West Scranton and Suburban. 10 News Round About Scranton. 11 General—Americans in Puerto Principe, Industrial Gleanings.

TROOPS FOR THE PHILIPPINES

The Seventeenth United States Infantry Departs from Columbus, Ohio—A Public Demonstration.

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—The first detachment of the Seventeenth United States Infantry left Columbus at 5 p. m. today for New York, en route to the Philippines.

The Seventeenth United States Infantry departs from Columbus, Ohio—A Public Demonstration.

The Seventeenth United States Infantry departs from Columbus, Ohio—A Public Demonstration.

The Seventeenth United States Infantry departs from Columbus, Ohio—A Public Demonstration.

LEUTENANT HUFF HONORED.

His Temporary Command Presents Him with a Sword.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Camp MacKenzie, Augusta, Ga., Jan. 15.—This afternoon the members of Company G gave Lieutenant John L. Huff, of Company H, a pleasant surprise.

Lieutenant Colonel F. W. Stillwell has been appointed to hold all sittings of the regimental court-martial instead of Major Wood and Fellows.

CAPTAIN NORRIS DEAD.

Member of General Gogin's Staff Expires While on a Furlough.

Harrisburg, Jan. 15.—Captain A. Wilson Norris, of Harrisburg, assistant adjutant general of the staff of General J. P. S. Gogin, commander of the Third brigade of the First division of the Second army corps, stationed at Augusta, Ga., died suddenly this evening at the Harrisburg club.

Norris came home last night on a furlough to attend the inaugural ceremonies and was apparently in good health until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he was taken sick while conversing with friends.

SANTIAGO WILL CELEBRATE.

Overjoyed at the Prospect of Complete Autonomy.

Santiago, Jan. 15.—El Pivencel publishes an extra today giving a cable message from Joaquin de Castillo, now in Washington with General Wood in the interest of the Santiago board of trade. Dr. Castillo says that complete autonomy will be granted to the province.

Kansas private broke into a store opposite the police headquarters and stole a diamond ring. The police were called and the man was shot, though not seriously injured.

Cordelia Botkin Smiles.

San Francisco, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, convicted of the murder of Mrs. John F. Dunning, of Dover, Del., appeared before Judge George Cook today for sentence, but on the motion of her attorneys sentence was deferred until Jan. 25, at which time her attorneys will file a plea for a new trial. The convicted woman appeared in court smiling.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Forecast for Monday: For eastern Penn.—Light to heavy rain, with a few showers. Light to heavy rain, with a few showers.

AN OFF DAY IN THE LEGISLATURE

Approach of the contest for United States Senator.

STATEMENT OF LEADERS

Chairman Elkin Is Confident That Mr. Quay Will Be Re-Elected—The Senator Expects to Start Upon His Annual Fishing Trip to Florida on Thursday Next—Van Valkenburg's Opinion.

Harrisburg, Jan. 15.—This was an off day with the legislators and politicians gathered at the state capital to take part in the big contest for United States senator.

Chairman Elkin is confident that Mr. Quay will be re-elected. The senator expects to start upon his annual fishing trip to Florida on Thursday next.

Van Valkenburg's opinion is that Mr. Elkin will not be re-elected. He claims that a break has been made in the anti-Quay forces.

Senator Quay's third defeat will follow on Wednesday. Mr. Van Valkenburg added, "when on joint ballot here, the majority against him too large for him to ever overcome."

Senator Quay's friends declare he is so confident of his re-election that he will start next Thursday for a month's fishing at St. Lucie, Fla.

THE DREYFUS AFFAIR.

General Mercier Is Interviewed by the Soir.

Paris, Jan. 15.—The Soir says that Count von Munster, German ambassador, who left Berlin suddenly yesterday was summoned to confer with Baron von Bulow, German secretary of state for foreign affairs, concerning the Dreyfus case.

General Mercier was minister of war at the time of the conviction of Dreyfus, has been interviewed by a representative of the Soir, to whom he declared that in 1894 he knew nothing of the case.

General Mercier asserted to the Soir representative that the Dreyfus dossier contained documents "compromising the mutual relations of France, Germany and Italy."

Arrangements have been made to give Major Count Ferdinand Esterhazy a virtual safe conduct to testify before the court of cassation in the Dreyfus revision inquiry, the count having forwarded to M. Mazouz, first president of the court, a synopsis of the evidence he is prepared to give.

SANTIAGO WILL CELEBRATE.

Overjoyed at the Prospect of Complete Autonomy.

Santiago, Jan. 15.—El Pivencel publishes an extra today giving a cable message from Joaquin de Castillo, now in Washington with General Wood in the interest of the Santiago board of trade.

Dr. Castillo says that complete autonomy will be granted to the province. The whole city is talking tonight of a demonstration to celebrate the prospect.

Kansas private broke into a store opposite the police headquarters and stole a diamond ring. The police were called and the man was shot, though not seriously injured.

Cordelia Botkin Smiles.

San Francisco, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, convicted of the murder of Mrs. John F. Dunning, of Dover, Del., appeared before Judge George Cook today for sentence, but on the motion of her attorneys sentence was deferred until Jan. 25, at which time her attorneys will file a plea for a new trial.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Forecast for Monday: For eastern Penn.—Light to heavy rain, with a few showers. Light to heavy rain, with a few showers.