HENRY J. SPRUKS HAS WITH-DRAWN FROM THE RACE.

Will Not Seek the Democratic Nomination for Common Council in the Nineteenth Ward -- Caucus Will Probably Be Held Friday Night. Funeral of Mrs. Caroline Ridenbach from Her Late Home on South Washington Avenue - Lieutenant of Police Zang Painfully Injured.

To the numerous interested ones who, through The Tribune, will learn this morning that Henry J. Spruks has retired from the fight for the Democratic nomination for common council in the Nineteenth ward, the news will be a complete surprise. This decision was reached at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the office, on Alder street, of Spruks Bros., the contractors, It has been an open secret since Saturday night a week ago, when an attempt was made to hold a snap caucus at Cavanaugh's hall, on River street, that there is disruption among the free silver forces, and each succeeding day the gap was widening. The ward caucus of the Republicans of that ward, held at Kramer's hall. Friday night last, set the Democratic leaders figur-

To that night they counted upon : big battle among the Republicans, and when it was made known that the most perfect good feeling prevailed, and every action was unanimous at the meeting, these facts caused a severe chill. The wise ones of the Democrats realizing the position which confronted them, hurriedly summoned the leaders to meet yesterday. Present at the meeting were: P. J. Hickey, S. S. Spruks, Edward J. Coleman, Andrew Conway, Thomas Kelley, Charles Graf, Michael McGuire, Henry Spruks, Edwin Frable and others within the party council. The argument used why Mr. Spruks should retire was that it is an unwritten custom in the party that for councilmanic honors the German and Irish, who are the majority of voters in that ward, be given equal consider-

The present select councilman, Edwin Frable, being a German, it was said that the nominee for common council should be an Irishman. For that reason Mr. Spruks dropped out. When seen at his residence last night, on Prospect avenue, by a Tribune man, he said:

"I retired from the fight to prevent disruption and promote harmony in the party's ranks. Thomas H. Kelley, whom I quit in favor of, will, in my opinion, be a strong candidate. I am glad that I am out of the fight."

It was decided at the meeting, if ward committeeman Attorney John J. Murphy will agree to it, to hold the caucus Friday night at Knoll's saloon, on Prospect avenue, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock. Thomas H. Kelly, who is now in the lead for the nomination is an ex-jury commissioner.

FUNERAL OF MRS. RIDENBACH. The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Ridenbach was held on Saturday afternoon from her late home on South Washington avenue. The old homestead was thronged with life-long neighbors and friends who assembled to pay their espects to the good old lady. Rev. W. A. Nordt, of the Hickory street Presbyterian church, of which congregation the deceased was a member sine its organization, officiated at the services held at the house and the church. Brief services were held at the house, and the lengthy procession movd to the church. Rev. Nordt in his eulogy feelingly realled the many noble traits of character of the departed woman. The complete choir assisted at the services. Interment was made in the Pittston avenue cemetery, John Kilcullen, Owen Dudendorf, Jacob Zingle and Adams Neuls were the pall-bearers. Henry Engle, William Vockroth and George Stoeber carried the beautiful floral pieces.

The members of the Plymouth Congregational church will meet this evening for the purpose of hearing the report of a committee appointed to select a pastor. The church has been pastorless for about two years. The last pastor was the Rev. Thomas Bell, who now has a charge at Norwich,

Many ministers have been heard since he church has been without a pastor, but the one who has impressed a great many one of the members by his eloquence was the Rev. Mr. Romig, of Lebanon, who held revival services at the church for a week in the early part of November. While here Mr. Romig made a great impression upon the members and the church was filled every evening during his stay. He is a scholarly preacher and it selected he will be the right man in the right place, as he is a great worker among the young people.

L. L. SOCIETY MEETS.

The L. L. society, which has been organized for social and literary improvement, held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Harry Godshall, on Price street, Saturday evening. An excellent programme was carried out. The merriment, which lasted until a late hour, was succeeded by a delightful menu, which consisted of clam chowder, coffee, ice cream and cake.

The officers of the society are: Roy Williams, president; Mrs. Annie Mathias, vice-president; Edward Watkins, financial secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Harry Godshall, recording secretary.

Those who enjoyed Saturday evening's meeting were: Misses Margaret Morgans, Gertrude Williams, Elizabeth Morgan, Belinda Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godshall, and Messrs, Roy Williams, Edward Watkins, David Gibbs, Reese Lewis, Robert Owens, Richard James, Charles Godshall and William

DEATH OF MARTIN M'DERMOTT A dark cloud of sorrow was cast over this community Friday evening when the news of the death of our popular young friend and townsman, Martin McDermott, of Monroe avenue and Grove street, was made known. He had been suffering from pleurisy for the past few weeks, but at no time was his condition alarming until shortly before his death. The deceased was a young man who was well known in this borough, and, through his geniality and good-fellowship, had made a legion of friends, who are sincerely grieved over his sudden demise. Mar tin's kind, gentle disposition spread sunshine along his path and along the paths of others, and that is why there is so much sorrow. ## A GENERAL TONIO FOR Nursing Mothers

Dr. T. M. Burns, of Denver, Colo., writes: "I consider Johann Hoff's Malt Extract superior to all other remedies in the treatment of suppression of milk and as a general tonic for nursing mothers." Johann Hoff's is the pioneer and standard-introduced in 1847.

All others are imitations.

Johann Hoff's Mait Extract

A gentleman long connected with the artistic advertising department of the Vouth's Companion, Boston, relates that he had his attention called to

R-I-P-A-N-S TABULES

by a business acquaintance who expressed a high opinion of them. He had been a good deal troubled with what he described as a nervous, billous condition that appeared to be brought on from time to time by high pressure work or special mental netivity or excitement, such as would be common at periods of unusual nervous tension. It became his practice at such times to take a Tabule—just one—at the moment that he observed the difficulty approaching. It made no difference when. A favorable result was invariably apparent within twenty minutes. The only noticeable effect was that he always felt all right in twenty minutes if he took the Tabule, while if he did not, the nervous, uncomfortable feeling intensified and led to a bad aftermoon and tired evening. He now carries them with him all the time, but doesn't have occasion to apply to thom anything like as often as he did at first. Nowadays there are frequent periods of from a week to ten days, or even two weeks, during which he finds that he has no occasion whatever to make use of the Tabules, but still carries them in his pocket just the same, so that they may be ready if an occasion occurs.
