THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Jan. 17.-The changes in tock quotations for the day were uniraportant. The market showed strength mos of the day and repeated efforts on the part of the bears to depress prices although assisted by sales of some 50,000 shares of stock for London account were of little avail and prices worked upward generally until the last hour, when previous gains of the day were practically wiped out. The highest prices of the day were made about roon, the standard shares showing handsome gains. Total sules were 746,700 shares.
