CONVENTION OPENS. It was announced that the convention would open at 2 o'clock, but it was fifteen minutes later before City Chairman Chittenden called the meeting to order.

ing to order. For a half hour before that the room presented an animated scene. Charles Acker, secretary of the committee, stood behind the row of desks on which an array of blank tables were laid out. Mr. Acker was in his shirt sleeves and was kept busy receiving the returns from the judges and arranging the papers in a methodical manner.

It was a fortunate circumstance that the new system had two such painstaking men as C. Chittenden and Secretary Acker to arrange the details for giving the plan its initial trial. Mr. Acker had everything necessary for the proper tabulation of the vote in shape when the convention opened yesterday. There was no confusion, no annoying delay to attend to some detail that had been overlooked. From the smoothness with which the work of the convention was transacted one would not suppose it was the first gathering of the kind.

MR. CHITTENDEN'S ADDRESS. After the roll call, Chairman Chittenden delivered a short address to the members of the convention. He said it was his intention to make a speech of congratulation to the judges on the excellent manner in which they had acquitted themselves in the discharge of their duty. The election of Saturday had demonstrated another thing. It is that the good common sense of the people can be relied upon to give us a winning ticket. The men chosen Saturday are clean and honorable, and the appointment as to location, etc., is excellent. "This election has taught a lesson that will be received with some sadness by men like myself, who have been in the harness for many years. It shows that the young men are coming to the front and they are to be the dominating factor in our party politics. Let us hope they will carry the party banner higher and farther than we have."

been in the harness for many years. It shows that the young men are coming to the front and they are to be the dominating factor in our party politics. Let us hope they will carry the party banner higher and farther than we have."

MR. CHITTENDEN, at the conclusion of his remarks, suggested that they disband the temporary organization provided for in the rules. This suggestion was approved and the convention proceeded to nominate a permanent chairman of the convention, who will also be chairman of the city committee for the ensuing year. Attorney C. E. O'Brien nominated Wm. Gaylord Thomas and the nomination was seconded by Charles Simmel, of the Twentieth ward. Wm. Beaumont nominated Mr. Chittenden, but the latter had refused to be a candidate. He said he had been in the harness for a considerable period and that he desired a rest. Mr. Thomas was unanimously chosen, and in accepting the position, he said:

THANKED THE JUDGES. "I thank you for the honor in calling me to preside over this meeting, for I recognize that this body of return judges is composed of some of the brightest and ablest men in the Republican party. We have had the benefit of this system, and I believe the men nominated will be elected in February, and that Democratic rule will be at an end in this city. We believe in a prosperous city and we believe in having men conduct our affairs who will give an administration that will be approved by every citizen of this city."

RESOLUTIONS REPORTED. When the assistant secretaries returned to compute the returns, C. E. O'Brien, chairman of the committee on resolutions and revision of the rules, read the report of that committee. It was as follows: We, the representatives of the Republican party of the city of Scranton, in the exercise of our duties as a committee on resolutions and revision of the rules, have the honor to report to the convention the following resolutions and amendments to the rules which were unanimously adopted. They were as follows: Whereas, the application of the Republican party rules as adopted at the last county convention is inadequate to the needs and requirements of our party, and a comprehensive and intelligent recording and computation of the returns, and the word by the members of the party, and the word "specimen" substituted.

TEN YEARS AGONY FROM ECZEMA CURED BY CUTICURA. For ten years I suffered untold agonies from Eczema, my lower limbs being so swollen and broken out that I could hardly go about. My brother, a physician of thirty years' practice, and other physicians of splendid ability tried in vain to effect a cure and finally failed. I became absolutely disheartened, and had lost all hope, when a friend induced me to give CUTICURA a trial. I used two boxes of CUTICURA SOAP and two boxes of CUTICURA OINTMENT, and it resulted in an absolute and permanent cure. DAVID M. SAMP, Plymouth, Ill.

INDIAN MAIDEN'S REVENGE. Rejected. She Betrayed Her Outlaw Lover, Moss Miller. From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Moss Miller, the Cherokee outlaw, who was captured last week in the Greenleaf mountains, about fifteen miles southeast of Fort Gibson, although a refugee from justice for the last three years has not been dead to society. In the fastness of those hills and mountains, where nature has so lavishly provided natural means of concealment, he was comparatively safe, surrounded as he was by friends who inhabited the scattered settlements, living a free and easy life, never coming in contact with the outside world, except at his own pleasure.

RELICS OF BUDDHA. A Remarkable Find on the Nepal Frontier of India. From the London Standard. The King of Siam is sending an envoy to India to receive the relics of Buddha discovered some time ago on the Nepal frontier, which were offered to his majesty by the Indian government. The king, who gratefully accepted the offer, has agreed to distribute portions of the relics among the Buddhists of Burma and Ceylon from Bangkok.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK? Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs as much as such. All grocers sell it. 5c. and 25c.

THE LEADER

Scranton Store—124-126 Wyoming Ave. Concerning the clearance sale

One of the basic principles of this store is, never to call a thing a bargain unless it is really such in every sense of the word. Exaggerations in advertising bargain sales are frequent and the word "bargain" itself has been so abused, and its meaning so horribly lived up to, that with many readers of advertisements it means very little. However this may be, we offer an excellent opportunity for all doubting Thomases to convince themselves that there are still some exceptions. There are seasons for profit-making and seasons for losses. The present month applies to the latter season in this store. We have deemed it best in all the years of our experience to sell seasonable merchandise regardless of the loss, and we hope our opinion may never be altered as long as the height of our ambition is in the showing of NEW goods only. This season's loss is our next season's advantage.
