MRS. MILLAR'S DEATH.

The news of the death of Mrs. Michnel Millar was received with much sorrow on this side. Unquestionably she was one of the most widely known and beloved women of couth Scranton. It is not any exaggeration to state that her acquaintances were her warm friends. Coming to this side when a strl, she watched with pride the phenomenal growth of what was on her arrival here a village. In the stirring and famine days of '77 Mrs. Miller by her love and charity cared for the wants of many families whose menibers today are persons of influence. Her manner of assisting the afflicted was the most unostentatious. Every act of her life was of the retiring and quiet kind. She was a noble woman, devoted to her home and true to her street, is seriously ill. Maker. Tomorrow afternoon her remains will be laid to rest in Dunptore cometery. The funeral services will b held at the house commencing at two o'clock. Rev. W. A. Nordt and P.ev. J. C. Schmidt will officiate.
