It is their latest effort in this line and far surof the most intersting was taken from passes anything of the sort ever seen here. All the tricks and illusions are high rate of speed. Mr. Howe's enter-tainment will be repeated at the Lyworked cleanly and without a hitch from beginning to end. Then when you add to these really wonderful stage effects a ballet of pretty girls, really pretty, tastefully and effectively costurned, and beautiful transformation at the Calety last night by the Reeves scenes and a number of amusing speccompany "The Terrible Turk," who is ialties you have a performance which embraces a good deal of variety.

The Greene Company.

Joseph Greene and his company open on Monday next at the Academy an engagement for one week, which promses to be one of keen dramatic relish. Tonight the Turk will wrestle George We have had during the season several of the companies that present a repertoirs of plays at low prices and the remark has been made over and over again that about these there is a sameness. Mr. Greene, on the other piay, Cyrano de Bergerac, but few realize the magnitude of the produchand, deals in novelties and surprises. His engagement will begin on Monday next with a production of that famous war drama of William Gillette's ,"Held orate scenic investiture, and this is given it by the Henry Lee company. by the Enemy." This is novelty number one, for this sterling play has never hitherto been presented except at high and properties. There are 103 people

A special carload of scenery is carried so that each play may be suitably mounted and as an addition to the evening's amusement, specialties will be introduced between the acts. Prices for daily matinees, 10 cents: evening prices, 10,20 and 30 cents.
