SKETCH OF PROMINENT WEST SIDE LODGE.

Vest Side Republican League Endorses the Republican Candidates - President Griffith Appoints His Committees-Meeting of the rival of Rev. D. D. Hopkins-Peter Jakelewitz Held Up in Keyser Valley and Robbed.

Pythianism has many votaries in this sountry. The membership in this state e close to the hundred thouand and in this city there are many lodges of the order. In West Scranton, in comparison with other orders, the Pythians come very close to being first in point of number of lodges and members, The members of this strong and exreedingly popular order are known as Good principles in business, social, professional or political life, are the first requisites. So it is in the case of fraternal orders. Those of the order of Pythias, which stands for friendship, charity and benevolence are working under a declaration of prinriples which is as follows: "Recognizing the universality of human protherhood, its organization (that of the Knights of Pythias) is designed to embrace the world within its jrisdiction-intended solely and only to disseminate the great principles of friendship, charity and benevolence; nothing of a sectarian and political character is permitted within its portals.

"Toleration in religion, obedience to law and loyalty to government are its cardinal principles. Misfortune, misery and death being written in fearful characters on the broad face of creation, our noble order was instituted to champion fidelity; to uplift the fallen; to be his guide and hope; his refuge, shelter and defense; to soften the asper-Ities of life; to subdue party spirit and by the sweet and powerful attractions of the glorious trinity of friendship, charity and benevolence, to bind in one harmonious brotherhood men of all classes and all opinions.

"The brightest jewels which garners are the tears of widows and orphans; and its imperative commands are to visit the homes where lacerated hearts are bleeding; to assuage the sufferings of a brother; bury the dead; care for the widow and educate the orphan; to exercise charity toward offenders; to construe words and deeds in their least unfavorable lightgranting honesty of purpose and good intentions to others; and to protect the principles of knighthood unto death. "Its laws are reason and equity: its cardinal doctrines inspire purity of thought and life, love of truth and loyalty to the government under which we live; its intention is 'peace on earth and good will toward men." Following upon the declaration of such principles, the natural query is, of any persons intending to ally themselves with the order. This is covered by the following clause, which is printed upon all applications for membership: "Any male person who is white over twenty-one years of age, and a believer in the Supreme Creator and Preserver of the Universe, of good moral character, free from mental or bedily infirmity, and able to support himself and family."

In all probability the lodge on this side, which is strongest numerically and financially, as an exponent of the Order of Pythias, is Electric City lodge, No. 313, which now meets every other Alumni Athletic Association - Ar- Thursday evening in Ivorite hall, on South Main avenue.

Organized in Mears' hall, October 1, 1890, with about fifty charter members, the lodge has steadily grown until now it has a roll of nearly two hundred in good standing. After going through the necessary form of organization, officers for the first ensuing term were duly elected and installed, the ceremony being in charge of State Grand Chancellor L. T. Bishop, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals George Hawks and District Deputy Grand Chancellor Dr. William E. Lloyd, of Olyphant.

The first set of officers thus seated were: Past chancellor commander, G. Hodgson; chancellor commander, W. E. Owens; vice-chancellor commander, E. A. Niemeyer; prelate, A. E. Thornton; keeper of records and seals, T. A. Y. Hodgson; master of exchequer, W. Evans; master of finance, J. B. Grimshaw: master-at-arms, J. Hodgson; inside guard, W. Fletcher; outside guard, Benjamin Andrews; trustees, eighteen months, Simon Lauer; twelve months, John L. Travis; six months, B. E. Smith.

So well officered has the lodge been during its eight years of existence, and so conservative its management, that it has few, if any, trials in the matter of untrustworthy officers, drain on its treasury by reason of a large sick or death list, etc. Among the lodge's members are found many influential and prominent citizens of this side. At the last report of the secretary, the lodge was found to be in first-class condition. Its paraphernalia, etc., is complete and of the best. Its reserve fund is very large and its invested moneys are well placed. There is scarcely a meeting but that from one to three persons are initiated into membership.

At the last election of officers the following were elected for the ensuing term and were installed at the regular meeting by District Deputy Grand Chancellor W. Lumby, viz.: Chancelfor commander, William Hughes; vicechancellor, John Christ; prelate, Morgan Thomas; master of work, Louis Christ; keeper of the records, Elias Williams; master of finance, Stephen G. Summerhill; master of exchequer, Louis Christ; master-at-arms, William H. Thomas; inner guard, Charles Jacobs; outer guard, Ernest Salzman; representative to grand lodge, Wilfred Fletcher; trustee, eighteen months, B. E. Smith.

STORIES OF RELIEF.

Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. JOHN WILLIAMS, Englishtown, N. J., writes: "DEAR MRs. PINKHAM:-I cannot begin to tell you how I suffered before taking your remedies. I was so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without falling. I had womb trouble and such a bearing-down feeling; also suffered with my back and limbs, pain in womb, inflammation of the bladder, piles and indigestion. Before I had taken one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great deal better, and after taking two and onehalf bottles and half a box of your Liver Pills I was cured. If more would take your medicine they would not have to suffer so much.' Mrs. JOSEPH PETERSON, 513 East St.,

Warren, Pa., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-- I have suffered with womb trouble over fifteen years. I had inflammation, enlargement and displacement of the womb. I had the backache constantly, also headache, and was so dizzy. I had heart trouble, it seemed as though my heart was in my throat at times choking me. I could not walk around and I could not lie down, for then my heart would beat so fast I would feel as though I was smothering. I had to sit up in bed nights in order to breathe. I was so weak I could not do any thing.

"I have now taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and can say I am perfectly cured. I do not think I could have lived long if Mrs. Pinkham's medicine had not helped me.

SOUTH SCRANTON

ANNIVERSARY OF THE SCRAN-TON ATHLETIC CLUB.

Celebrated in a Brilliant Manner Last Night in Germania Hall. Funeral of the Late Mrs. Michael Millar-Democrats of the Nineteen Ward Had an Exciting Time Last Night at Their Cancus in Donnelly's Saloon-Caucuses That Are to Be Held Today.

The fifteenth anniversary of the Scranton Athletic club was observed at Germania hall last night. In every detail it was the most brilliant func-tion held in South Scranton in years. As has been the custom, it was attended only by the members and their women friends, and the gathering at 10,30 o'clock numbered nearly three hundred. The decorative work, done by Fuhrman, was exquisite. The preiominant colors were the Stars and Stripes, and they were in abundance Suspended from the procenium arch was a large circle of evergreen and ferns, with the inscription "S. A. C., 1884-1899." The stage was covered with potted plants and flowers. The Keystone orchestra, of ten pieces, gave the dance music. The programme contained thirty numbers, but the orchestra was obliged to give several extras. Luncheon and refreshments served continuously.

The committee of management, which so ably arranged the many details incident to conducting the affair so smoothly, was composed of Charles Mirtz, chairman; Andrew Best, Charles Deising, William J. Smith, John J. Berghauser, William C. Klein, Charles Miller, Joseph G. Rosar and Charles Rose. The athletic boys have every reason to be proud of their efforts of last night.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MILLAR. Not in many years has the passing way of a respected resident brought together so large a number as yesterday were present at the obsequies of the late Mrs. Michael Millar. The old homestead, on Cedar avenue, was thronged from morning until the funeral procession started for cemetery. Men en route to their duties at the mills, mines, shops and factories, and the children on their way to school, called at the home to gaze on the features of the departed woman who was deeply beloved.

At 2 o'clock the hour set for the services, the large house was crowded. Rev. W. A. Nordt and Rev. J. C. Schmidt, of the Hickory Street Presbyterian and Baptist churches, respectively, officiated at the services. Rev. Mr. Schmidt pronounced the eulogy, in which he paid an eloquent tribute to the good life of the deceased. Rev. Nordt offered prayer, and made a few remarks referring to the many noble traits of Mrs. Miller. A quartette comprised of Mrs. John Nester, Miss Lydia Nordt, Jacob Eunch and Fred Herrman, sang at the services and the grave. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and consisted of spray with ferns, from the husband of the deceased, clock and open bible from Miss crescent and star on base from her otherwise improve the property, so bouquet of white carnations, from Henthat it became a most desirable and ry J. Ziegler; casket bouquet, pink church for over sixty years, and was T. H. Spruks. At the conclusion of the tege moved to the Dunmore cemetery,

The flower-bearers were: Charles Heisner, George Fox, Charles Mirtz, pallbearers were: Jacob Walter, Chas. Neuls, Fred Rader, Fred Schuman, Pontious and J. J. Schneider. Funeral Directors Barrett and Letchworth had charge of the funeral.

CAUCUS IN NINETEENTH WAR. The Democrats of the Nineteenth ward met in caucus at Donnelly's saloon, on Beech street, from 4 to 7 o'clock yesterday and the result is that there is much trouble ahead. Julius Troy and Thomas Kelly both claim that they were nominated for common council. On the first ballot Kelly was credited with 145 votes to Troy's 149. The latter made a howl when he found under the table two tickets with his name on them. He demanded a recount and he got it, resulting in a tie vote it is said. The count being over, the board got out and could not be found. Some one says that Kelly and for a New York wholesale grocery, Troy each got 143 votes on the second house. ballot and that is all that could be learned.

There was much excitement, and it was suggested that the two candidates shake dice for the nomination. Several of the leaders will get together today and endeavor to arrange the difficulty. Emil Carrier was chairman of the caucus and John Loftus and Frank Manley the tellers. Peter Allabaugh and John Schneider were nominated for constable and assessor respectively. The voters of the same faith of the Second district of the ward placed in nomination at Kramer's hall the appended ticket: Register of voters, Thomas Gilboy; judge of election, Thomas Jordan; inspector of election, A. L. Moser.

Today the Democrats of the Twelfth ward, First, Third and Fourth districts of the Nineteenth, Second, Third and Fourth district of the Twentieth ward will caucus.
