CITY NOTES

SIXTY DAYS—Sixty days for vagrancy was the sentence imposed by Mayor Bailey on James Quinn, of this city, in Saturday's police court.

WAR WITH SPAIN—An illustrated lecture on the recent war will be delivered by Rev. George W. Welsh, pastor of Calvary Reformed church, on Thursday evening, February 2.

BANQUET WEDNESDAY NIGHT—H. J. Schubert, superintendent of the Prudential Insurance company, will banquet the agents employed hereabouts at the Hotel Terrace Wednesday evening.

MEET IN ELM PARK CHURCH—The Methodist Ministers' association will meet in Elm Park church on Monday at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. G. A. Place, P. D., of Cantonville, will read an essay on "Physical Energy and Habits of Study."

FOR COMMON COUNCIL—William F. Bauer, of 150 Irving avenue, is being urged by his friends to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for common council from the Fourth ward to succeed the late Edward Wenzel.

TWO FINGERS AMPUTATED—Martin Mosatka, an employe of the Johnson mine, Pritchard, had one of his hands injured Saturday and was brought to the Moses Taylor hospital in this city, where two of his fingers were amputated.

WOMEN IN A FIGHT—Annie Boyle and another woman of the tenderloin district engaged in a fight Saturday morning and the latter combatant had the Boyle woman arrested for threats to kill. She was held in 800 hall by Alderman Millar.

WEEK'S EXCHANGES—The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing house last week were as follows: Monday, $18,583.1; Tuesday, $19,915.28; Wednesday, $21,871.55; Thursday, $18,214.31; Friday, $15,391.55; Saturday, $21,576.65; total, $145,712.72.

MRS. BRYANT'S FUNERAL—The funeral of Mrs. Ida Bryant, the victim of the Corbin street crossing accident, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of the family on Theodore street. Revs. Gillin, Lyman and Watkins will conduct the services.

PROOF WAS LACKING—Stanislaus Gilinski was committed to jail Saturday before Alderman Millar against John P. Williams, of Lawrence street, who was charged with assaulting the prosecutor. The latter could not prove his case and Williams was discharged.

THIS EVENING'S READING—The reading of E. H. Haddock's "Saturday Bicycle Club" this evening promises to be very largely attended. There is no doubt but that it will be the most enjoyable entertainment. Tickets may be had at the dress and junking drug stores and at the door this evening.

CHILDREN'S GYMNASIUM CLASS—A large number of young girls were on Saturday enrolled as members of the children's Saturday morning gymnastics class of the Young Women's Christian association. Their ages range from 7 to 12 years. The first lesson will be given next Saturday morning by Miss Michel, the physical instructor.

CAB DRIVERS' BAIL—The annual ball of the cab drivers will be held tonight at the Hotel Terrace. It is an event which is each year eagerly anticipated by a certain element and has usually been held at Music hall. Music hall, however, was this year engaged by the bartenders for their ball and the cabbers were forced to procure their own hall space on the South Side.

COMMON PLEAS COURT—The first week of the January session of common pleas court begins today. Among the cases listed for trial are the following: Nesbitt and others against William M. Springer, Dolbin against Steele, Koch against Swartz. There are also four cases against the city and two Traction company cases.

TEACHERS' MEETING—At Saturday morning's meeting of the Teachers' Mutual Aid society in the board of control room there was a good attendance. Misses Ann Orr, Mary Gregory and Mary Porter and Mrs. Martha M. Jones were admitted to membership. The treasurer presented a very favorable report. The dues have been reduced from 12 to 10 per cent. At the salary and the initiation fee from $5 to $3.

SUIT ON INSURANCE POLICY—The case of John J. and James P. Kelly against the Empire Insurance company, of New York, has been referred for arbitration to Attorney C. Ballentine, John H. Banner and James E. Watkins. A hearing was had in the case in the arbitration room Saturday. O'Brien & Kelly appearing for the plaintiffs and M. W. Lowry for the company. The suit is brought to recover on a $1000 life insurance policy which the plaintiffs had on their father, Thomas Fahy, who died last June.

In presenting our new open stock Dinner Ware patterns, of which we have several of this famous make, we will be brief. One with delicate pink roses, scattered sprays, heavy coin gold edge and light gold tracing. Another, large roses and green sprays on Berain shape. They are artistic in the highest sense, and the cost is lower than you would expect. If you anticipate buying in the near future look these patterns over carefully, they will interest you.
