LYCEUM THEATER THIEVES. They Stole Property of Actors from the Dressing Rooms.

George Goodrich and Ernest Griffiths, two West Side youths employed at the Lyceum theater, stole some effects belonging to actors in the Hanon Superba company on Monday night. The culprits left the city but returned Thursday and were arrested. Alderman Millar held them in $300 bail each. The loss was discovered Tuesday morning and reported to Chief of Police Gurrell. On investigation he concluded that Goodrich and Griffiths were the guilty ones, but they had left the city Monday night. Later it was learned that New York city was their objective point, but they were not well supplied with money and returned ome. After being arrested they confessed and returned their plunder, which consisted of two revolvers, two pair of trousers, an outing shirt, three dress suits, a vest, two jerseys, a cap, two pairs of gloves, a coat and a belt.

WHAT U. SMITH SAID.

One of the attacked transcripts had U. Smith, of Scranton street," as prosecutor. The prosecutor brought in one "U. Smith, of Scranton street," and he said he never instituted any proceedings before Alderman Kelly. Yesterday the defense tried to show by James M. Sheffield, a Scranton street hotelkeeper, that, at about the time of he proceedings in question a Smith" boarded with him, Mr. Shefeld remembered that a man named Smith, a painter from Philadelphia, boarded at his hotel. This man, the defense claims, was the "U. Smith, of Scranton street," who prosecuted the case in ouestion.

One of the allegations of the proseution was that in the case of the commonwealth against Maggie Dimmler, Alderman Kelly charged on his transcript for a hearing when no hearing was held. The defense admits that the Dimmler voman waived a hearing and entered ball, but avers that one of the witlesses, who came to the office, an hour in advance of the hearing, and who complained of being ill, was allowed to give her testimony without the formality of facing the defendant. Horn, the condemned slayer of Mrs. This hearing was the one charged up on the transcript. These facts were report to the board of pardons. It is brought out through Constable J. W.

FUND OF $10.000. Letter Carriers Hope to Have It for the National Convention to Be Held in Scranton.

A meeting of the general committee to prepare for the convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers was held in the Central Republican club rooms hast evening. In the absence of the chairman of the committee, A. P. Bedford, who was out of the city, Attorney A. A. Vosburg was chosen to preside. There was a large number of the committee members

Alderman Millar reported for the finance committee that it had decided to send out in March a circular appeal and card in an enclosed envelope to every lady in the city. The carriers on the different routes will submit a list to the secretary, E. E. Robathan, of the number of householders on their routes and the secretary will address to each a letter containing the circular and card with a return envelope. The circular will make an appeal to the lady of the house, asking her to contribute to the fund according to her means.

The card will provide spaces for the insertion of $1, 50 cents and 25 cents, with a flap similar to an envelope, which she will seal over the amount contributed. The cards are to be returned. to the carrier on or before March 20. By this means the committee expects to raise a fund of $10,000.

The committee has made a contract with E. W. Snyder, of this city, to get out the official souvenir convention programme, containing cuts of the principal buildings, places of interest and of city and county officials.

Colonel Ripple, chairman of the committee on hall, reported that he had called upon Rev. J. A. Reilly, of the cathedral, and had arranged for the use of St. Thomas college hall for holding the meetings of the convention. A committee consisting of W. R. Lewis, chairman; B. C. Green and Harvey Long was appointed to take charge of the entertainment. Secretary Robathan received letters from several cities informing him that they would have large delegations here was told that some testimony had been on the day of the parade. Trespass Case. A verdict of $1,250 was rendered yesterday morning in favor of the plaintiff in the case of James W. Johnson, against the borough of Archbald,

The jury went out at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon and spent the night in an unsuccessful effort to come to an agreement. When court opened yesterday morning they came in and reported that they could not agree. Judge Tuesday, when the defense expects to Simenton told them that it was, to his mind, a case in which there should be little or no difficulty in arriving at a verdict.

The borough, he said, was, in his opinion, negligent in permitting a ditch of the kind described in the testimony to exist without being safeguarded. He sent the jury out to deliberate further and in we minutes they re-turned with the verdict noted above. Borough Solicitor C. A. Battenberg and Attorney C. Comegys, who represented the defense, took exceptions to holding that he had no right to express his opinion as he did. will move for a new trial.

Attention to the city electric lighting plant advocated by Select Councilman Melvin was suggested yesterday by The Tribune's publication of the pro-Last Evening's Early Alarm Sudposed combine of the electric lighting companies. A Tribune reporter called on Mr. Melvin at the St. Charles hotel and was shown a copy of the proposed city plant ordinance. Though the estimates and statistics procured by Mr. Melvin indicate a cost ranging from $120,000 to $140,000, his ordinance provides for bonds to the amount of the latter figure. The measure does not contain any reference to the special election necessary to authorize the issue of the bonds, but Mr. Melvin explained that the law made ample provision on that point after the ordinance passed councils.

According to law, councils can au-thorize an indebtedness to only such an amount as shall equal 2 per cent. of plants, for all factories using iron and the last assessed valuation. The last steel and for textile mills of all kinds valuation was about $22,000,000, allowand for shoe and leather manufactures ing for exonerations and reductions by court. Two per cent, of that amount way. In many places there are openis $440,000. The city now has a bended indebtedness of about that sum.

VERY SPECIFIC. The title of Mr. Melvin's ordinance is very specific in its provision "for the sale of city bonds and appropriating the money derived from such sale for the construction of an electric light plant to provide electric light for the city of Scranton." Section 1 contemplates the issue and sale of city coupon bonds to the amount of $140,000. The bonds are to be of the denomination of $1,000 each and dated June 1, 1899. The interest rate is to be 414 per cent, and taxation is to be exupt, the city assuming the same. terest is to be paid semi-annually. The whole number of coupons or any portion of them may be made payable at the office of the city treasurer or at the offices of one or more banking institutions in New York city or Philadelphia.

Section II, provides for the usual order of redemption according to numers, beginning June 1, 1910, to June 1,

According to Section V. the mayor and city clerk are authorized to sell the bonds, and Section VI. that the premiums obtained, or as much as may be necessary, shall be appropriated to payment of expenses incurred in placing the loan, the remainder to be laced to the credit of the general sink-

The city clerk is directed to advertise for proposals to purchase, the advertisements to be made in New York city, Philadelphia and Scranton news-

For the purpose of paying the principal and interest, the ordinance levies for the year 1899 on all property taxable for city purposes a tax of fiftyfour hundredths of one mill on the dollar valuation, and every year thereafter a sufficient tax to pay the interest and principal.
