

CARBONDALE.

SHERIFF AFTER HIM.

But W. McMullen's Doctor Says He's Too Ill to Stand Trip.

Yesterday was the day fixed for the trial of Wallace McMullen on the charge of exhibiting lascivious pictures, preferred by Lizzie Tappan. He was not present at court and Deputy Sheriff Ryan came to this city after him. Dr. T. G. Lamb, the attending physician, made affidavit before Mayor O'Neil that McMullen is suffering from tumbago and that his health will be endangered if he is taken to court for trial inside of several days.

The witnesses have all been notified, however, to be on hand today, and it looks as though the defendant may have to go to Scranton sick or well.

MEETING OF THE FAITHFUL.

The Sunday school teachers of this city met in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church last evening to consider the lessons for the coming month. The following programme was carried out: Singing, prayer, Rev. R. A. Sawyer, methods in practice from B. C. Trumbull's "Teaching and Teachers;" "How to Get and Hold Your Scholars' Attention," five minutes, Mr. A. P. Thomas; "How to Make Clear That Which You Would Teach," five minutes, Mr. W. P. Nye; "How to Secure Your Scholars' Co-work in Lesson Teaching," eight minutes, Mr. M. A. Gardner; singing; sword drill. Teaching the February lessons; Feb. 5—"The Nobleman's Son Healed," John 4: 46-54, H. E. Jadin; Feb. 12—"Christ's Authority," John 5: 17-27, Rev. W. A. Beecher; Feb. 19—"Christ Feeding the 5,000," John 6: 1-14, Robert Brodie; Feb. 26—"Christ at the Feast," John 7: 14, 26-37, Mrs. C. H. Eastbrook; a little talk on superintendents' review; collection benediction and social.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

There will be a double wedding at the Wolcott home on Dickson avenue Wednesday evening. Miss Harriet Wolcott will be united to Mechele Delahoy, of Arlington, N. Y., and Miss Bertha Wolcott will become the wife of E. B. Stevens, of Toronto, Canada. Only the immediate relatives will be present.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss E. Vincent, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. George Chapman and Mrs. William Dilts, of this city, has returned to her home in Hornesville, N. Y.

Miss Madge Titman, of Montrose, will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Van Garder, of Wayne street.

The Misses Davis, of Seventh avenue, are entertaining Miss Martha I. Nichols, of Hyde Park.

Hugh Murphy, of Spring street, is ill, and it is feared he may have pneumonia.

Mrs. Stephens, of Kingston, gave a party on Saturday evening in honor of her son, Walter. A pleasant evening was spent; music, singing and games being indulged in until 10 o'clock, when lunch was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Major and Miss Isabel Mitchell, of this city. Thomas Levison and William Borst, two men who have been well known in the business affairs of Carbondale for years, left yesterday for Texas, where they will seek business advantages.

Baptist vocalists are progressing rapidly at their rehearsals of "The Cradle Songs of Many Nations," which will be rendered in public on the 7th and 8th of February.

Thomas Hebert, who has been laid up for several weeks with a strained ankle, will resume work today.

Trinity vestry will meet Thursday evening to further plans for the erection of a new church. The solicitors have met with such generous response that less than $1,000 is needed to bring the fund upon to the estimated amount needed.

The choir of the Methodist church is preparing some high class music to be rendered at a concert in March. Bridge Builder Burrell's force is engaged putting in new bridges and strengthening old ones on the Honedale branch.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

All citizens who are interested in securing industries to locate in this borough are requested to meet in Enterprise hall at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening. The committee appointed at the last meeting have been in communication with three firms who are desiring to locate here, and will lay before the meeting the propositions received from these firms. One of the firms, a silk weaving company, employ three hundred adult hands, and their location here would be most desirable.

Butcher Evans, of Carbondale, while in this borough yesterday had the misfortune to sprain his ankle. He suffered much pain and had to be assisted to the street car and was taken to his home.

Miss Annie Grier, of Mayfield, has accepted a position with Jonas Long's Sons in their department store at Scranton.

There will be a Republican borough caucus in Windsor hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating an auditor and high constable.

W. E. Davis, of Mayfield, will leave this morning to enter the Howard university at Washington, D. C.

C. R. Potter was a Scranton visitor yesterday.

Postmaster Hendricks was in Olyphant yesterday.

Herbert Lutey, of Second street, will tomorrow commence a course of study at the Scranton Business college.

Attorney Carey returned home yesterday from a brief visit to Harrisburg.

T. E. Griffith, the hatter of Main street, was in Scranton yesterday.

Charles Bennett is doing jury duty at Scranton this week.

L. A. Green, of the firm of Green & Morris, is confined to his home on South Main street with sickness.

Mrs. Sarah Waters, of Third street, has returned home after spending a week with her sons at Forest City.

Rev. D. P. Jones, of Scranton, will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday.

We are authorized to guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be as represented and if not satisfactory after two-thirds of the contents have been used, will refund the money to the purchaser. There is no better medicine made for la grippe, colds and whooping cough. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Try it. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

MAGNIFICENT LINE OF COMPLETE SETS IN MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, LACE TRIMMED-VAL. OR TORCHON-$4.75 AND $5.75.

JONAS LONG'S SONS

AN EXQUISITE LINE OF FINE FRENCH LINGERIE IN NAISOOK OR CAMBRIC, AT ABSOLUTELY LOWEST PRICES.

A sale of muslin underwear—at prices never before possible BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1ST

To tell you of our vast preparations for this enormous event—would be to take you back into the autumn months of 1898—and into the big, roomy rural factories—up the Hudson from New York; up the Schuylkill from Philadelphia. There, our buyers, with time at their command—placed orders for the dainty, exquisite lingerie that is here.

All told, there is something like 22,000 pieces to choose from

With the immense outlet of our two Big Stores—we bought quantities for cash, that will make this sale a memorable occasion, unsurpassable and unapproachable by any house. It will provide our multitude of shoppers with bargains of startling propensity.

We propose to double our Muslin Underwear sales of one year ago—and they were enormous. We have bought tremendous quantities of each item—that no one may be disappointed. When the selling begins on Wednesday morning—you will find the entire main aisle of the store, from Wyoming avenue entrance to the elevators, a veritable sea of beautiful under-muslins

Every woman who loves the white, dainty garments—and what one does not—will be charmed by the sight we place before them. A brilliant, dazzling array of finery—at prices that will stand the strain of comparison with any house in the universe.

Gowns At 29c Empire style, trimmed with ruffles and embroidery.	Drawers At 12c Good Muslin Drawers, with tucks and wide hem.	Skirts At 39c Cambric Skirts, with wide ruffle of same and cluster of tucks.	Gowns At 69c Hand-some Empire style, with wide rows of inserting, edged with embroidery; ruffles of embroidery around wrists.
At 47c Alternating rows of fine and wide tucks; a Zouave effect in embroidery, with a beading edge finish.	At 29c wide Umbrella Drawers, with ruffle prettily edged with fine lace.	At 59c Two styles that are trimmed with ruffles, edged with lace and pretty embroidery.	At 79c Dainty Empire Gowns, handsomely trimmed with lace and silk ribbons.
At 65c very pretty Bishop Gowns trimmed with nine pointed strips of insertion.	At 33c Drawers that are handsomely trimmed with deep embroidery, finished with fine tucks.	At 89c Three styles; one with umbrella flounce with Hamburg ruffle and inserting; another with lace ruffle and lace inserting; the third has deep lawn ruffle with two rows of hemstitching—very full.	At 89c Gowns with V neck and six rows of lace inserting—also embroidered V necks—with wide ruffles of embroidery to complete the effect.
At 93c Gowns with shield-shape yoke, thirty-six fine tucks and fine hemstitching—daintily made. Others are Bishop style, with square neck and fine edge. Also some Empire style, cut very full, with double ruffles of embroidery.	Chemise At 23c Of good quality Muslin trimmed with pretty, narrow ruffles. At 39c Fine quality, trimmed with yoke of embroidery and fine tucks.	At 95c Very elaborate Skirts that are delicately trimmed with Valenciennes lace and fine inserting; skirts that are actually worth $1.50 at wholesale cost. At $1.69 Very full and handsome Skirts, in all the newest effects—fine in quality.	Corset Covers At 6c Good quality, worth 12c, not cheese cloth. At 12c Round or square neck, embroidery trimmed. At 21c With yoke or tucks and fine embroidery. At 29c With V neck—handsomely trimmed with lace.

And these elaborate garments at wonderfully low prices

One at 1.25 is of fine nainsook, with square neck, trimmed with dainty insertion; also ruffle of fine lawn edged with valenciennes lace. Another gown at 1.39 has square neck with solid yoke of embroidery. Then there are three styles at 1.49—one with a round yoke made entirely of torchon, lace inserting and lace ruffles; another is bishop effect, high neck, trimmed with val. lace and ruffles of same; the third style has V neck, with fine lawn yoke, hemstitched, and dainty embroidery. A gown at 1.69 has shield shaped yoke with alternate rows of fine tucks and torchon lace. A very handsome gown with yoke of open embroidery, and full ruffles of embroidery over shoulders, is 1.75—about half price. 2.25 is the price of a handsome garment with round yoke of val. lace and inserting, finished with puffings of lawn.

Some very handsome skirts, trimmed full with duchess lace and inserting, are 2.25. Another style has double rows of duchess lace and is but 3.98—worth a third more.

All Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

Jonas Long's Sons.

All Goods Delivered Free.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Coming Eisteddfod—To Light the Borough Streets—Personal Notes.

The eisteddfod to be held in this town on Washington's birthday promises to be a grand success and a musical and literary treat. Very able adjudicators have been selected for the event. On music and singing Professor Ladwick Davis, of Plymouth; on recitations, etc., Rev. John A. Evans, of Providence, and Dr. Jenkins will officiate. The Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, of the Jackson Street Baptist church, will conduct the afternoon session, and the Rev. D. D. Hopkins, from Wales, will conduct the evening session. The presidents will be announced later. All competitors' names should be in the hand of the secretary on or before Feb. 16. John C. Richards, secretary.

Miss Jennie Spencer spent the Sabbath as the guest of Miss Nellie Heal, of Dunmore.

The Advancement Social club will hold a meeting this evening in their rooms in Van Horn's hall. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haines, of this place, have returned home from Providence.

Miss Sadie Carter, of Green Ridge, spent the Sabbath with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carter, of Main street.

The locations of the arc lights which have been placed about our borough thoroughfares by the Lackawanna Electric Light, Heat and Power company will be as follows: First ward, First and Oak streets, Fourth and Oak streets, Main street and Lowry's hotel; Second ward, opposite the Welsh Baptist church corner of Main and Railroad streets; Main and Union streets, Union and Pond streets, Union and Washington streets, Grove and Washington streets, Main and High streets, Main and Taylor streets, Main at Stocum's residence, South Taylor. The incandescent lights will be placed on the corners of Main and Oak streets, Railroad and Pond streets, Taylor and Storrs streets and Main street at the residence of William Bloseker, at South Taylor. When this is completed the principal streets will be well lighted.

The family of Mrs. James Sullivan wishes to extend their kindest thanks to those who sympathized with them in the death of James Sullivan.

Rev. Mr. Williams, of Peckville, preached a very able sermon to a large audience at the Calvary Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The prize on the baritone solo at the eisteddfod of the Welsh Baptist church entitled "The Picture of My Heart," has been increased from $2 to $4. Mr. L. P. Wedeman, a member of the Lackawanna bar, giving the additional $2.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Belle-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Davis, of Main street on Sunday.

Miss Jessie Owens, of Scranton, has returned home after visiting her parents, Foreman and Mrs. W. R. Owens, of North Taylor.

Mr. Edward Dougherty, of Rendham, is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. Ezra Thomas, of Hyde Park, was a caller on friends in this place on Sunday.

Rev. D. D. Hopkins, of Wales, but now supplying the pulpit in the Welsh Baptist church, of Hyde Park, preached to a large and appreciative audience in the Welsh Baptist church last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis and son, Edward, and daughter, Edith, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Davis, of Hyde Park, spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans, of Rendham.

Miss Maggie Cavanaugh, of Green Ridge, has returned home after visiting friends in this place.

Mr. William Luce, of Hyde Park, called on friends in this place yesterday.

Rev. L. R. Foster, of Sumner avenue, Hyde Park, was a visitor in this place yesterday.

John Vitkosky, a Poleander, residing on the boulevard, while on his way home last Saturday evening from Peckville was set upon by four unknown men, a little above Johnson's store in Olyphant, who, after beating him unmercifully, took $15 from his pockets. On hearing a street car coming they ran away. He had a $10 bill in his inside pocket which his assailants failed to find and no doubt that was owing to the near approach of the car. His right leg was badly injured and he is unable to attend to his work.

Mr. James Barrett and family, formerly of Dickson city, have gone to reside on Lincoln street, Peckville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Comender have removed from Hallstead to Storrs avenue.

Sawkie Tribe, I. O. E. M., will meet in regular session at Odd Fellows' hall this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Callender, of the West End, is quite ill.

You cannot afford to miss the Women's Christian Temperance union entertainment Wednesday evening. A very interesting programme will be rendered for the small sum of 19 cents. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. H. E. Barnes received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Hagoboom, of Meridale, N. Y. Mrs. Barnes left yesterday afternoon to attend the obsequies.

There will be no meeting of the Temperance league on account of the entertainment of the Women's Christian Temperance union. All remember this entertainment Wednesday evening, Feb. 1, in the firemen's hall. Admission 10 cents. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock.

Abel Greiner and Thomas Richards left yesterday on a western tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Shaffer and Mrs. J. L. Miller and daughter, Edna, of Plymouth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hone Sunday.

The wives of the members of Harper lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, are requested to meet with the members of Rebecca lodge, at the home of Mrs. John Berry, Main street, this evening, for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the supper and entertainment to be given Feb. 11.

Mr. James Lawler, of Olyphant, is working as operator at the Delaware and Hudson depot here.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Callender, of the West End, is quite ill.

You cannot afford to miss the Women's Christian Temperance union entertainment Wednesday evening. A very interesting programme will be rendered for the small sum of 19 cents. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. H. E. Barnes received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Hagoboom, of Meridale, N. Y. Mrs. Barnes left yesterday afternoon to attend the obsequies.

There will be no meeting of the Temperance league on account of the entertainment of the Women's Christian Temperance union. All remember this entertainment Wednesday evening, Feb. 1, in the firemen's hall. Admission 10 cents. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock.

Abel Greiner and Thomas Richards left yesterday on a western tour.

Health is Wealth.

DR. E. C. WEST'S NERVE AND BRAIN TREATMENT

THE ORIGINAL. ALL OTHERS IMITATIONS.

In all other positive Written Guarantees, by authorized agents only, to cure Weak Memory, Distress, Wakefulness, Fits, Hysteria, Quicquid, Night Losses, Evil Humors, Lack of Confidence, Nervousness, Lassitude, all Drains, Total Errors, or Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium, or Liquor, which leads to Misery, Consumption, Insanity and Death. At store or by mail, $1 a box, six for $5, with written guarantee to cure or refund money. Sample package, containing five days' treatment, with full instructions, 50 cents. One sample only sold to each person. At store or by mail.

Red Label Special

For Impotency, Loss of Power, Loss of Blood, Sterility or Barrenness, or all other ailments, a written guarantee to cure in 30 days. At store or by mail.

For Sale by William G. Clark, 326 Penn Av. Scranton, Pa.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Mitchell