Four Men Injured by Flying Pieces It Bore Every Evidence of Having of Rock-Three of Them Are in a Very Serious Condition-Foreman Beezy, Who Had Charge of the Men, Escaped with Slight Injuries. Men Were Working on the New Pipe Line Cutting at Elmhurst for the Scranton Gas and Water Co.

Four men were injured, three seriously and one slightly, yesterday morning by an explosion of dynamite at the scene of the new pipe-line cutting, now being made by the Scranton Gas and Water company, near Elmhurst. The

Anthony Ferreri, Italian Laborer. Luigi Scarini, Laborer. Francesco Grippo, Laborer. Patrick Beezy, Foreman.

The first three men are now at the ackawanna hospital, and Ferreri and carini are in a precarious condition. though Dr. John Corser, senior house surgeon, has hopes of their ultimate recovery. Grippo is only cut and bruised about the face and chest, but may lose his eyesight from the effects of the concussion. Foreman Beezy vho resides at Elmhurst, is only bruisd and slightly marked by flying gravel. He will be at work again today. Scarini is the most dangerously injured of the quartette. His face, as Dr. Corser expressively puts it, "was like an open rose." The mouth and chin are cut and bruised out of all semblance. The nose and upper lip are terrible to behold. The right eye is entirely destroyed and the left little better. His cheeks, neck and scalp are also cut and contused. It took con siderable time for Drs. Corser and Gates, of the hospital, to arrange the man's features so that they would be presentable. If he recovers he will be small hope is entertained of saving the

Ferreri, who in all probability caused the accident, is not so seriously in-He has an eight-inch, halfmoon-shaped scalp wound just above the left ear, which may have been made by the pick he held when the explosion occurred, and which was thrown upward-and out of his hands. His right eye ball is terribly lacerated, and he can barely see with his left. His face, neck and scalp are also cut and contused. He is married and has two children. The three men are residents of the Italian community at Bunker hill, Dunmore.

From an interview with Superintendent Robert Reeves, it was learned that the laborers themselves are to biame for the accident. When Superintendent Reeves was notified of the affair ha went up to Elmhurst immediately, made an investigation, and held a talk with Foreman Beezy at his home. This is the substance of the latter's story;

The pipe line, which is a new one is being cut from the big Elmhurst reservoir, along the creek, on the Eric and Wyoming Valley railroad side, and down towards Scranton. Just below the Erle and Wyoming Valley station a bed of rocks was struck and blasting became necessary. Wednesday afternoon just before quitting time, sev eral holes were charged with the inwas ready it was found that the charges would not explode, being too Resolution passed by executive comcold. It was decided to wait until morning and then try again. The work of cutting extends about a mile in length and about 200 men are always at work thereon. STARTED TO DRILL.

Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock the men were started above and below the joint where the blasting was being done and Foreman Beezy, assisted by some workmen, started to drill new holes, intending to leave the old holes as they were. The three men who were afterwards injured kept crowding too close to the place when the charges were in, and were warned back twice. While Foreman Beezy was busy and his back was turned, they got close up held in connection with the state conagain, Ferreri leading. A few moments later the explosion occurred and mane Engine company of Norristown, it is thought that Ferreri had stuck his pick into one of the holes. It Reading. is not known whether the charge expleded or just the fulminating cap, as will be held tonight in the common either would do the injury resulting. The effects of the explosion were all on the right hand side of the men, and, although there were about forty men in the danger zone, no others were hurt.

The injured men were given such aid as was possible at the time and later were brought here to the hospital in wagons furnished by Charles Battaylio and the water company.

Wormer Yesterday. Before Attorney C. A. Van Wormer, the local referee under the provisions of the new bankruptcy act, a hearing was held yesterday in the case of C. M. Sanderson and H. W. Bellman, who ask for a final discharge in insolvency. It is the first hearing of the kind held before Mr. Van Wormer.

Some time ago they were in the coal business at Pittston, under the title of the Phoenix Coal company, and became insolvent. The petition sets forth that the liabilities of the company were $78,000 and the assets nothing. The final discharge of the petitioners opposed by the Second National bank, of Wilkes-Barre, and the People's Savings bank, of Pittston, creditors of the company. Messrs. Sanderson and Beliman were the only witnesses examined yesterday. Another hearing will be held on Feb. 8.

A gang of machinists of the Del aware, Lackawanna and Western railroad company returning to their comes last night from work found at the Tripp ravine on North Main avenue, West Scranton, a horse and buggy without any driver. The carriage and harness were badly shattered and the animal plainly evidenced the horrible ill treatment it received. The men decided to proceed further and notify the police.

Patrolman McColligan was met and informed of the affair. He hastened to the ravine. Reaching there he found the horse dead, minus the carriage and harness. The head of the animal was sticking through the boards of the fence on the end of the ravine. The body was still warm. Detective Molr will pursue the case.

It was remarked by one of the famly while at dinner that a draught of old air seemed to be coming from the library where a window had been opened on account of the room being overheated. This was a reminder to Mrs. totally blind in the right eye, and Boies that the vault containing valuables which is near the library, was open and that some one might enter, secordingly a servant was ordered to close the vault. On going up stairs afterward it was found that the draught came from the second floor and that some one had entered and thoroughly ransacked three bedrooms, notwithstanding that a mald was sitting in a room where she was

Attorney R. H. That means that for the $23,500 capital stock and respectfully request you to exercise the holders, most of whom are Carbon-dallans, will receive $235,000.

The officers of the company are: J. B. VanBergen, president; S. A. Mc-Mullen, vice-president; Alfred Pascoe, treasurer; C. E. Spencer, secretary. Other large stockholders are Thomas Durfee, Joseph Birkett, Mrs. Harriet Raynor and C. R. Manville, President VanBergen has the largest block of stock-$2,700-which is now worth $27,-

John Jermyn heads the capitalists the gain possession and who will use the inexhaustible supply of water coming under their control to feed a large portion of the Lackawanna valley. The property involved is the Canaan street reservoir, No. 4 pond, Bronnell swamp and about 400 acres of land in that vicinity, together with the pipe lines and office in Carbondale. The Stillwater dam and Fallbrook system are not affected.

The Crystal Lake Water company vas incorporated in 1867, shortly after the conflagration which destroyed half the business section of the town. It was brought about by the refusal of insurance companies to accept Carbondale risks. H. P. Jadwin headed a committee that solicited funds from the business men in slices of $300 from those on Main street and $200 on Church street, to provide waterworks, primarily to enable them to get insurance, the furnishing of water at that time being of secondary consideration. Every man that subscribed considered it more of a donation than an investment. A few years later a hundred per cent tock dividend was declared, so that twenty dollars for one actually paid in, for the stock a short time ago.

The company had a large force at work all last summer clearing Bronnell swamp, preparatory to the erection of a huge dam in No. 3 ravine, which would flood 100 acres. There is an artesion well in the swamp said to have a flow equal to the demands of this city. There is every reason to believe the work will go on in the spring as planned.

This transfer, coming on top of the option on the Electric Light company's stock at two dollars for one, has renewed faith in the future of Carbondate. The electric light deal will bring water money $235,000 cash which will have to seek new investment.

While nothing in detail was decided upon definitely, it was agreed that nothing would be left undone to make the soldiers' welcome a hearty and en thusiastic one. A few things talked of were a parade, with a battalion of the Eleventh regiment, N. G. P., escorting the volunteers, a supper at the armory and some formal address of welcome. The probability of the regiment coming home piecement will cause a change of the plans that have been in the minds of those who are actively interested in giving the returning soldiers a proper reception.
