Miss Margaret Cilroy followed with a pleasing piano solo, and Prof. Edward Sullivan sang a ballad. A. G. Stone, of Taylor, recited "Roger and 1," and for an encore gave "Sheridan's Ride" in a very dramatic style. Prof. Figuri, a new acquisition to the musical ranks of this city, sang two zelections from French operas, which were received with much enthusiasm. St. Leo's Glee club, under the direction of Prof. Sullivan, made their first public appearance. The members are Messrs, Shaughnessy, Ford, Salmon, Maghran, Leonard, McHugh, Hughes, McDon ough, Baldwin, Kelley, McColligan, Regan, Murtaugh, Baldwin, Sullivan, Degual, Hayes, Hester, White, Degual, Hicks, Harrison and Gaughan.

They sang three selections, and were applauded. Master Willie Deckelnick, a pupil of Prof. John T. Watkins, renred "Sally Warner" and "She Was Bred in Old Kentucky," in excellent voice and made a decided hit. A patriotic recitation by Augustus Phillips was well delivered, and Charles Graham gave three pleasing whistling John Francis gave two characa violin and plane duet.

Miss Katherine O'Hara, county president of the Daughters of Erin, made the address of the evening. She spoke at length on the temperance cause, and very forcibly outlined the evils of the day along that line. James Reed did some clever buck and wing dancing, and Miss Jessie Williams recited. Miss Mame Shearan rendered a difficult piano solo in an acceptable manner. and the programme was concluded with a whistling solo by Charles Graham.

A social followed the entertainment which was enjoyed by the young persons present. Miss Mame Shearan furnished the music.

Hotel Topsy Turvy.

Great New York successes, minus great New York casts, are not soulstirring successes in Scranton. This truism had added dignity lent to it by the reception accorded "Hotel Topsy at the Lyceum last night. It may be that Scranton is too provincial to enjoy the humor hurled at you in 'Hotel Topsy Turvy," but whatever the eason, the audience didn't enjoy it. To their credit let this be said.

If one could get a fair idea of what all the action and action on top of ction was about it wouldn't be so bad.
