EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

WEDDING OF MISS MARY BAR-RETT AND M. W. LYNOTT.

Ceremony Performed at St. Patrick's Church-No Session of the Board of Trade-Resolutions of Regret. Edward Hemm Injured - Euchre Party at St. Leo's Rooms-President McKinley Offers Sympathy. No School Deposits - Pre-Lenten and Revival Services.

[The West Side office of The Tribune is at Jenkins' drug store, corner Main and Jackson, and is in charge of W. R. Hughes. News and advertisements received at this office.]

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Rev. D. A Dunne united in marriage at St. Patrick's church, Michael W. Lynott, of 903 Scranton street, and Miss Mary Barrett, of 892 Scranton street. The bride was attended by Miss Bina Bolton, and Hugh Connell acted as greemsman. Both ladies were becomingly attired in costumes of cadet blue, with cream colored trimmings, and were corsage bouquets of roses. The bride carried a prayer book Immediately after the ceremony the party were driven to the bride's home there supper was partaken of, and last evening the friends of the young couple tendered them a reception at Dougher's hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lynott are very well known in the vicinity in which they reside. Their many friends presented them with numerous wedding gifts. At the reception last evening dancing was enjoyed for several hours. Mr. and Mrs. Lynott will reside on Scranton street.

NO SESSION HELD.

The West Side board of trade meeting which was scheduled for last night was not held, owing to the lack of a quorum. President A. B. Holmes was the only member that put in an appearance at the rooms in the West Side bank building, and after waiting for a quorum to materialize he abandoned the hope of a meeting. No meeting has been held in the past two months and of course excuses may be offered for non-appearance last night on account of the storm, etc

Much good work has been accomplished by the board in the past and it is to be hoped for the good of the community the work will be continued. The next meeting night will not occur again until the second Tuesday in church, with services at 7 and 16.30 o'clock, when the celebration of Holy Communion will occur. The rector, Rev. E. J. McHenry, will preach a sermon at the 10.30 o'clock services. At 4 p. m. Ash Wednesday services for children will be conducted, when the rector will deliver an address. At 8 p. m. Litany and Penitential

LENTEN SERVICES.

Dr.Bull's Why cough and risk consumption. This wonderful remedy has Cough Syrup cured others and will cure sthroat and lung troubles. Price 25 cents.

Your

Choice

at

offices will be said, and a talk on Len-

A Surprise From

Winter weather still clings, and we have still some Winter garments we are anxious to get rid of. The styles represent the acme of correct fashion, conse-

At this price ($4.98) we have determined to close out the balance of Ladies'

Coats on hand, that Sold at $12.00 each, etc. White

Golf Capes made from the handsomest steamer rugs

of the season and elegantly finished, will go at the cold weather ahead of us, when such garments as we now offer can be worn with this light they form an interest such as is your inspection today in our Cloak De-

There are still several months of

These Jackets and Golf Capes await same figure.

comfort and to advantage.

rarely met with.

partment.

procured, no matter what you pay.

A common expression is: "The human race is growing weaker and wiser." That we are growing weaker is proved by the large number of pale, thin and emaciated people.

That we are growing wiser may be proved by overcoming these disorders with the timely use of Scott's Emulsion of Codliver Oil with Hypophosphites which gives strength, enriches the blood, invigorates the nerves and forms

oc. and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York, ten observance given. Daily talks will also be given each day this week at the morning services at 7 o'clock and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock by speakers oil tanks used by the company, adjustfrom out of the parish. The usual Lenten features will be followed during the remainder of the season and all are invited to participate.

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET.

At a recent meeting of the congregaion of the Tabernacle Congregational church, resolutions of regret concerning the death of their beloved paster's wife, were drawn up and adopted. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, The all Meterful Father has emoved from our midst our dear sister, ne wife of our beloved pastor, the Rev. p. P. Jones, and

Whereas, Her removal is a loss to the hurch, but to our pastor, who has atched ever her long illness so patient-Resolved. That we as a church convey, to our beleved pastor our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of one who, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, has been to him as a servant in the Master's vincture and fattrick help. ard, a painstaking and faithful help-neet, and be it further Resolved. That we place on record our onte to her memory, and that we asl tribute to her memory, and that we ask the Holy Spirit to direct our pastor and his beloved family to seek consolution

from the never failing words of God,
Thy will be done.

In behalf of the church. (Signed) Evan G. Reese, Cor. Sec.

FUNERALS OF A DAY.

Many friends of the late Margaret Cannon attended the funeral services at Holy Cross church in Bellevue vesterday afternoon. The remains were The observance of Lent will begin borne from the house at 551 Fourth this morning at St. David's Episcopal street, to the church, where Rev. W. P. O'Donnell pronounced a blessing, at 2.39 o'clock. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs Jehn E. Murphy, of 233 Coar place, was buried in the Cathe dral cemetery yesterday afternoon.

SCHOOL DEPOSITS.

The usual weekly deposits from the upils of Nos. 32, 19 and 33 schools did ot materialize Monday or yesterday, owing to the fact that the children were prevented from attending school on account of the heavy storm. In most of the buildings exercises were held yesterday, but only one session GATHERED IN was held.

At No. 19, where Miss Josie Lees is principal, a few collections were made, but the amount was very small. It is expected that the pupils will be enabled to resume their studies today without any difficulty arising from the FINAL REVIVAL MEETINGS. The Scranton Street Baptist church revival meeting was held in Morgan's hall, corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, last night. meeting will be held in the Plymouth Congregational church, and Rev. Neale and the pastor desire to meet all the recent converts. Tomorrow evening the meeting will be held in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church.

The final meeting on Friday evening will probably be held in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, when Rev. Thomas Neale, jr., will close his labors with the people here. He has been very successful and made many friends while here.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A driver in the employ of the Atlantie Refining company, was driving a team along Main avenue at 9 o'clock yesterday merning, and when the outfit, which consisted of one of the large ed on runners, came in contact with the rails of the Street Railway company at the corner of Jackson street. the tank was overturned and the driver had a narrow escape from injury.

Owing to its weight, it was necessary to employ builders' "jacks" to raise it. Traffic on the street car lines was delayed for about an hour. Fortunately no one was injured.

PRE-LENTEN SOCIAL.

charge of a committee comprising Mrs. companied Mr. Gutheinz. Charles Frazer, president: Miss Mar-

Amusements of various kinds were provided for the children and dancing by the Scranton Liederkranz and the was enjoyed by the older people. Light | Workingman's society. refreshments were served.

SYMPATHY OF M'KINLEY.

Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church, on Monday received a letter from President McKinley, expressing sympathy with the church in the great misfortune that has befallen them in the burning of their present difficulties,

The pastor, in behalf of the afflicted ngregation, gratefully acknowledged the letter of condolence from the chief executive

CLEAN THE GUTTERS.

Lieutenant of Police Thomas Williams received instruction yesterday to notify property owners and business houses to clean the snow from the gutters in front of their residences and places of business.

This is in accordance with the city ordinance, and must be done before any damages result from the general thaw which will follow in a few days. The ordinance also applies to the cleaning of sidewalks.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY. The young ladies of St. Cecilia's ety, an auxiliary of St. Lee's battalion, held a progressive euchre party in the played as asssistant housekeeper at St. ms in St. David's hall building last night, seven tables being in use. The first prize, a pair of gloves, was won by Miss Rose Flynn, of North thought of by us many friends. The Scranton, and the "booby" prize went couple will reside at 1220 Stone avenue. to Miss Celia Smith. Refreshments were served and a short period of danc-Our Cloak Department

BICYCLE BOYS MEET,

The Electric City Wheelmen held a gular meeting at the club house on Jackson street last night, and, after the business pertaining to the club was concluded, a social session was held, and light luncheon served.

Two new members were elected, Thomas Sherritt and Edward Williams, A special meeting is called for tomorrow night to consider the advisability of purchasing a property to be used as a club house.

MACHINIST INJURED. Edward Hemm, of 348 North Hyde quently nothing more desirable can be Park avenue, was injured yesterday, while at work in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company's machine shops. Mr. Hemm slipped and fell into one of the pits located in the shop, and distocated his knee, and also sustained a lacerated wound across the

He was able to walk as far as the West Lackawanna avenue crossing on his way home, and from there rode in a street car the rest of the distance. Dr. George P. Reynolds attended him.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Your

Choice

Viewed in

Thomas Pelleski, of Minooka, was arraigned before Alderman Kelley last night on a charge of false pretenses, He was held in ball for his appearance

A special meeting of Washington camp, No. 333, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will be held Thursday evening at the residence of Thomas H. Davis, of 413 North Main avenue, for the purpose of making the final arrangements for the entertainment to be given Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, in Mears' hall. The committee requests all members of the camp to be present.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church request that all donetions for the banquet to be served by them at Mears' hall next Monday night be delivered at Mrs. Long's, corner of North Main avenue and Jackson street, at Mears' hall, Munday merning next. $17.44. The raffle for a watch for the benefit of Mrs. Oswald Wagner, a widow with several small children, which was to have been held next Saturday even ing at Dennebaum's hotel, has been postponed until March 18. Mrs. Wagner's husband was killed in the Hyde Park mine some time ago, and they are

Mrs. John H. Pleynolds and daughter, Cora, of Wilkes-Parre, are spending a few days with relatives here.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O-made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to enfect." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it treely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c, and 25c.

SOUTH SCRANTON (A)

MAENNERCHOR DANCED LAST NIGHT IN GERMANIA HALL.

Was the Sixth Annual Affair and a Perfect Success-Albert Gutheinz Makes His Debut as a Singer Ball of Company A of the Patriotic Suards - Panic Caused by a Runaway Horse-Constable Woelkers Slightly Injured - Public School Deposits.

At Germania hall last night the sixth annual dance and concert of the Junger Maennerchor was held. The event was the most brilliant one of the year on this side. The large auditorium was thronged to its utmost capacity, and the decorative work done under the supervision of Eugene Tannier, was ex-cellent. The audience comprised the representative society people of South Scranton and many from various parts of the city.

The opening number of the exercises, "Down the Line," given by the Law-rence orchestra, was well received, followed by the rendition of a popular German ballad by the Maennerchor. Miss Lydia Sailer, the soprano soloist of the occasion, sang "Toreador Halo," and was compelled to respond to two The Machinists' Glee club, composed of employes of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western machine shops, rang "Brave Sailor Lads Are We," and responded to an encore with "Johnny Smoker." An excellent number was that given by Albert Gutheinz, The members of St. David's Episco- who sang "In My Old New Hampshire pal church held a pre-Lenten social at Home." It was Mr. Gutheim: s first residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel effort as a soloist, and his reception Elsinger, 744 North Main avenue, last was hearty and sincere. For an ennight. The affair was under the directore he sang "She Was Fred in Old tion of the Women's Guild and was in Kentucky." Lawrence's orchestra ac-

"Hope Beyond," sang by William garet Phillips, Thomas Williams and Zeisiner and William Berghauser, was applauded. The first part of the programme was concluded with selections

Allan Lawrence, leader of the orchestra, opened the second part of the con-cert with an excellent rendition of "L'Elegante." The Ringgold band played the "Blue and Gray" march. Miss Lydia Sailer and Mr. Gustave Reppert sang a duet and Charles Webber appeared in his side-splitting stump speech. "Just as the Sun Went Down" their church edifice and expressing the hope of their final triumph over all Schweizer Maennerchor gave several was sang by J. Norton. The Leiderselections, and in conclusion the audience sang the "Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by the orchestra.

Lawrence played for the dancing which followed. The committee in charge of the affair were Karl Berghauser, chairman: Albert Gutheinz, Eugene Tannler, Henry Keiper and

AFTERNOON WEDDING.

John McGuinness and Miss Bridget Pyle, both of this side, were united in marriage at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. A. O'Reilly was the officiating clergyman. Miss Mary McGarry, bridesmaid, and Albert S. Doyle, groomsman. The wedding party entered the church as Mendelssohn's wedding march was being played by Aloysius Colligan. The bridal party enjoyed a Total Abstinence and Benevolent soci- drive to Archbald, where the dinner was served. The bride has been em-Peter's rectory and is a much admired young woman. Mr. McGulnness is a well known young man and highly couple will reside at 1220 Stone avenue.

RUNAWAYS YESTERDAY.

About 7.30 o'clock last night, when Cedar avenue was crowded, much excitement was caused by the appearance of a maddened animal attached to a cutter dashing up the avenue. Attempts to stop the runaway were unavailing. When the horse reached the harness store of Herman Eckel it turned toward the sidewalk and collided with a telephone pole and was caught

Later it was learned that the outfit elonged to Vincent Bluech, the Pittston avenue cigarmaker. While standing in front of the cigar store a passing car frightened the animal and it dashed along Pittston avenue to River street, and turne up Cedar avenue. The cutter was damaged and the horse cut in several places by a broken not be surpassed.

were present.

the above city.

son avenue.

served.

absent.

T. Myrddin Jones, of New York, and Miss Hartley, of This City.

Miss Jennie Amelia Hartley, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Browning, was married to Myrddin T. Jones, of New York city, yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the artistically decorated parlor of the bride's residence, at 609 North

Washington avenue. Rev. R. S. Jones, pastor of the Providence Congregational church, and father of the young man, officiated. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the couple.

Both are well known young persons and have many riends here. After a short wedding visit with their friends

they will go to New York city and will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home there. Mr. Jones holds a lucrative and responsible position in

GREEN RIDGE.

at the home of A. B. Lidstone, of Dick-

A. M. Amos, of Buffalo, is visiting

The Asbury church held a valentine social last evening at which there were many present, Refreshments were

No. 28 school held a short session

yesterday. The school was dismissed early, owing to about 300 scholars being

The Literary Section of the Women's club held a very interesting meeeting

The street car lines were opened at

Mrs. E. Waters, of Smith place, is confined to her home by an attack of

Charles Cooper, of East Market street, is suffering with a severe at-

Owing to the blocking of the street

ars yesterday, the Delaware and Hud-

REMEDY FOR THE GRIPPE.

in the library yesterday afternoon,

a late hour last evening.

tack of rheumatism.

The spirited horse of Constable Woelker's became unmanageable on Cedar avenue vesterday and made a desperate effort to run away. Mr. Woelker's, who was driving, was thrown out, but held pluckily to the reins bringing the animal to a standstill within a few rods.

DEPOSITS OF YESTERDAY.

The pupils of public schools Nos. 11 and 30 yesterday made the regular weekly deposits of school savings in the bank. Considering the inclement weather, the depositors fully maintained their previous standard. The amounts of each school are as follows: No. 30 school, Miss Margaret O'Donnell, principal, $1.67; Miss Sara O'Donnell, $2.51; Miss Ella Jordan, .45; Miss Elizabeth McManama, $1.36; Miss Ella Dougherty, .95; Miss Mary Morrow, .60; total, $7.45.

School No. 8, John M. Beaumont, principal, $1.90; Miss Mary A. Pitcher, $1.41; Miss Anna B. Rankin, $1.96; Miss Mary A. Scott, $2.10; Miss Mary E Keenan, .68; Miss Elizabeth Zang, $1.09; total, $9.14.

School No. 2, W. J. Fitzgerald, principal, $2.80; Miss Sarah Mellin, $2.89; Miss Mary McHale, $1.86; Miss Katie Kelley, $1.02; Miss Anna Fox, $2.83; Miss Nellie Beamish, .60; Miss Margaret over John's hardware store, not later McGrath, 83.37; Miss Mary A. Gregory, than Friday, and all table furnishings 64: Miss Nellie T. Fox, $1.45; total 64; Miss Nellie T. Fox, $1.43; total.

MILITARY MASQUERADE BALL The first annual military masquerade ball of Company A, Patriotic Guards an auxiliary to Camp No. 430, Patriotic Order Sons of America, was held at Natter's hall last night. The initiative effort of the company was a complete

The spacious hall was crowded by the handsomely attired dancers. Captain Jacob Mautz, commander of Company A, was master of ceremonies and chairman of the committee of arrangements. First Lieutenant Fred. E. Jone was assistant master of ceremonies The others assisting were Sergean

The others assisting were Sergeant Charles Mursch, Corporal F. H. Thompson and Private J. Heip. Johnson furnished the dance music.

NUBS OF NEWS.

Ernest Flicker, employed at the Dickson Manufacturing company's shops, sustained a painful injury while

A Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

All women who suffer should secure Mrs. Pinkham's counsel.

Female troubles are real troubles, and must be treated understandingly. For a quarter of a century Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have been helping women to be strong and well, more than a million women have been benefited by it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

CONFIDE IN A WOMAN.

Women may write about their troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and avoid the questions of a male physician.

The questions asked of a woman by a male physician are embarrassing and frequently revolting to a sensitive nature. In consequence the whole truth is not told! This makes it difficult for female troubles to be successfully treated, and is the reason so many women grow

Mrs. Lucy A. Loughery of New

Lebanon, Ind., describes how wretched

she was until she received Mrs. Pink-

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I propped myself in a chair and wrote to you, and as soon as I commenced to take your Vegetable Compound I began to improve. I had suffered with severe pains in my hips, back and head. The doctor said I had bladder trouble and falling of the womb. I had spells when, if I did not sit down, I would fall. I was sleepy all the time. I was also troubled with leucorrhoen and itching piles.

People thought that my end was near. Had it not been for

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advice, I would have been dead and buried long ago. I hope that this letter may be the means of helping all women who suffer as I did.

men can. The whole truth is freely told to Mrs. Pinkham, and women only see the letters received by her at Lynn, Mass.

Here is a convincing letter from a

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - Words cannot express my gratitisle for the good that your Vegetable Compound has done me. I have taken five bottles, and feel better in every respect. Menses heretofore lasted too long and were very profuse, and made me very weak. Your Compound is a miracle. Before writing to you

I had tried doctor's medicine, but of no avail. I would not give up your Compound for female com-plaints for all the doctor's medicine in the world.

My friends want to know what makes me look so well. I do not hesitate one minute in telling them what has brought about this wonderful change.

I cannot sing its praises enough. I hope every one who suffers as I have will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound a trial: and I know that, if taken according to directions, it will cure.—Mrs. EDWIN EHRIG, 413 Church Street, Bethlehem, Pa.

Her advice is freely offered.

woman in Bethlehem, Pa.:

Women understand women better than worse rather than better.

ham's help:

AMUSEMENTS. at work yesterday. Hurriedly pass ing a large piece of iron, he stumbled and fell heavily to the hard floor. He ACADEMY OF MUSIC, was removed to his home and was attended by Dr. John J. Walsh. His BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LUNG, Manager. condition is serious, as fears are entertained that a broken rib has penetrated the left lung. ONE SOLID WEEK The concert at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association tonight will be the leading event held Commencing, Monday, Feb. 13 thus far this season at their rooms The committee of management states that the programme to be given can

WERE QUIETLY MARRIED. HUNTLY - JACKSON STOCK CO

Presenting the largest scenic plays

-THE-

MONDAY EVENING

THE WORLD

see "Venita" in her spectacular dances

4 BIG SPECIALTIES 4

Change of bill each performance.

MATINEE-10 cents. EVENING PRICES-10c., 20c., 30c. A limited number of ladies tickets, Monday evening.

son had a very large passenger traffic The train coming up from Scranton last evening at six o'clock carried over a hundred Green Ridge residents. Henry Morgan, who was injured in the Dickson mine a short time ago, is fast recovering.

Mrs. Jacob K. Johler, of Sanderson avenue, gave her Sunday school class a taffy pull at her home last evening. Those present were Missses Rache Ross, Ruth Davis, Pearl Henry, Belle Crosby, Gertie Beil, Minnie Leah, Em ma Patch, Edna Heckman, Nanette Collins and Servie Johler. Mrs. Johler was assisted by Mrs. William Reed. Council No. 942, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held an entertainment in Morel's hall on Breaker street Thursday evening when a fine programme was presented,

Prof. James Hawker will lecture in the auditorium of No. 27 school on Thursday evening. His theme will be "The Fate of a Nation." The proceeds will be used to procure an alarm bell for the school. The collections for No. 28 school were Prof. Burdick's room, 75 cents: Miss Micks, $10.28; Esther Smith, 39 cents; Miss Moffatt, 90 cents; Kate Smith, 15 cents; Miss Penny, 50 cents; Miss Neymier, $1.72; Miss Fowler, 18 cents; Miss Fuller, 56 cents; total, $15.44. Miss Edith Bonear, of Deacon street is slowly recovering from her recent Injuries.

Mrs. William Stone, of Dickson ave nue, has returned from Walton, N. Y. where she was called by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. C. P. Slack, of Penn avenue, is confined to her home by a severe

AMUSEMENTS.

LYCEUM THEATRE.

Thursday, Feb. 16

ANOTHER CASINO NEW YORK

"THE BIG BEAUTY SHOW."

Through Messrs, Geo. Lederer and Geo. B. McClellan, Managing Di-rictors of the New York Cas-ino, of the

Casino's Great Success Of nearly 150 nights at that Theater— The MAGNIFICENT MUSICAL COM-EDV—

Mr. Louis Mann

Miss Clara Lipman The

ave Kerker, Staged by Geo. W. Lederer, the Noted Trio who have given the

"The BELLE OF NEW YORK," ADY SLAVEY," "In GAY NEW YORK," "AN AMERICAN BEAUTY. YANKEE DOODLE DANDY," etc.,

The Complete Casino Production. Waolly Feminine Chorus. Lavish Scenic Appointments. EVENING PRICES-25, 50, 75, $1.00, $1.50,

Fluer-De-Lis BURLESQUERS

30 PEOPLE 30 Enchanting Music, Beautiful Costumes, Funny Comedians. Matinces, Mon. Tues Thurs. Fri. and Sat.

NEXT-The best yet. Sheridan & Feust's A large attendance of private citizens are requested to call at Manner's Pharmacy when in need of a whic in tonvalescence from any illness. Emulion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophospiltes is one of the best lung strengtheners and appetizers known. Large dollar size Sec.

MANNERS' PHARMACY,

920 Green Ridge Street.

Globe Warehouse