Participated in by the Touhill Family, Misses Banfield and Prof. Carr - Experience of Two South Side Men in New York - Miss Lizzie Albrecht, of Hickory Street, Severely Scalded-Social in Germania Hall This Evening-Other News Notes of Interest.

The rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association on Cedar avenue were crowded last night by a large representation of the prominent people of this side, the occasion being a concert given under the auspices of the association. The programme printed in this column yesterday was carried out in detail, The affair was a success from every standpoint. The Touhill family and the Misses Banfield, of Pittston, and George Carr, of this city were the participants. The Tou-hills are clever and talented musicians and it was their first appearance at the Young Women's Christian association rooms. Their orchestra is composed of Miss Hortense, James and William Touhill, guitarists; Misses El-In, Juliet and John Touhill and Henry Touhill violinists. During the evening the orchestra played the popular marches, "Hotel Hart," "Stars and Stripes Forever." "Niagara." "The Flower Song" and "Sweet Memories," one of the favorite waltzes. John Touhill give a mandolin solo, "Amer-ican Warbler," with pleasing effect. Miss Flossie Banfield was the recitationist of the occasion. She gave a highly humorous piece, "The Book Agent." Responding to an encore, Miss Banfield recited "The Maniac." Miss Blanche Banfield sang "She Was Bred in Old Kentucky" and "Just as the Sun Went Down." George Carr rendered several banjo selections and received much merited applause. Misses Banfield delighted the assemblage with a perfect rendition of "Annie Laurie" and the concert concluded with a selection by the Touhills.

MISTAKEN FOR PICKPOCKETS.

Common Councilman M. J. Cusick, of the Twentieth ward, and William J. Burns, of Pittston avenue, also of the Twentieth ward, have returned from an eventful trip to New York city, They were crossing over the Christopher street ferry when a detective tapped them on the shoulder and said "I want you fellows." That they were astounded is a mild expression. While they are not strangers in the great city, they could not understand why their presence was needed at a police station. Knowing full well that they did not cause any infraction of the law, they quietly accompanied the officer to headquarters. Reaching there were informed that they were wanted for picking pockets in Jersey City. The descriptions sent over to New York city of the pair wanted

SCALDED BY HOT WATER. Miss Lizzie Albrecht, of Hickory street, was painfully injured at her home yesterday. While removing a boller of hot water from the kitchen range she fell and spilled the contents of the boiler over on her. Her hands and body were badly scalded. Dr. John J. Walsh was called and attended to her injuries. Miss Albrecht suffered much pain last night and was in a precarlous condition.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The homes of Charles Scheiber, Jr., of Beech street, and Fred Tinsdale and Otto Frey, of Cedar avenue, are brightened by the arrival of sons. The Electric Social and Athletic club met in special session last night at the club's quarters on Alder street. All arrangements for the sixth annual ball of the club, to be held at Germania hall tonight, were completed. Ex-Recorder of Deeds Charles Huester, of Cedar avenue, was at Wilkes-Barre Wednesday night in attendance at a meeting and social session of Irene Temple Mystic Shriners, of which organization he is a member.

George Vockroth, of New York city, who has been confined to his parents home on Pittston avenue for several weeks by illness, is improving slowly.

MINOOKA.

The employer of the Greenwood collieries will be paid Saturday.

The raffle for a set of mining tools for the benefit of Mrs. Charles Guard has been postponed until March 20th. Although election day is only a few days away the political situation is noticeably quiet. The unsatisfactory developments in the Quinn and Nee controversary is exciting much comment, as Nee has not conclusively proven his right to occupy a place on the official ballot. His friends maintain that Quinn's action was brought about maliciously, yet his apparent dodging of the issue is somewhat pecullar. John McCrea was a Pittston visitor

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

William Price, brother of Thomas E. Price, the well-known newsdealer, of South Main avenue, and Arthur Daniels, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon. The former was driving a spirited horse, owned by Mr. tempted to drive over a snow bank in front of J. J. Davies' drug store, when the cutter, which they occupied, was overturned, throwing both into the street. The horse dashed up the street and turned into Jackson street, with young Price clinging to the reins. Several barrels were overturned elongside of Heiser & Warnke's store, and when the animal reached the Star laundry he was brought to a standstill. Price was uninjured, but received a evere shaking up. The cutter was

> P. O. S. OF A. ENTERTAINMENT. The committee of arrangements for the anniversary celebration of Camp 333, Patriotic Order Sons of No. America, met at the home of Thomas H. Davis, on North Main avenue, last evening and perfected the details for the concert and social to be given at Mears' hall next Wednesday evening An elaborate programme will be given and a period of dancing will follow the literary and musical features.

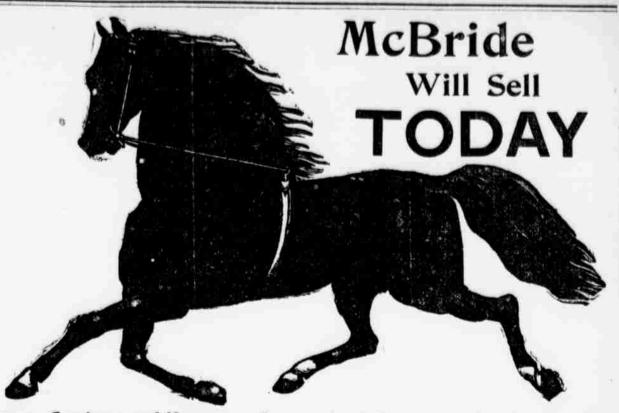

THEY DIDN'T SLEIGH RIDE. A party of young people engaged Drayman R. F. Post's four-horse turnout to convey them to Pittston last evening, but they could not muster up a corporal's guard when the time for departure arrived and the trip had to be abondoned. The faithful ones waited in vain at the corner of Main avenue and Jackson street for a long time before discharging the teamster, Several large parties of pleasure-seekers passed through town early in the evening.

ENTERTAIN TONIGHT.

ALDERMANIC CASES. Alderman John had a peculiar case on trial last evening. V. Carlucci, a contractor in masonry work, caused the arrest of A. J. Mullarkey, of Chestnut street, to recover a balance due him on work done on the latter's house. Carlucci claimed that Mullarkey owed him $4,75 balance, and Mullarkey put a claim to offset the amount for damages done to a wagon owned by him. The alderman reserved his decision until Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

Fred, Beale, an old offender in pollee circles, was arrested on West Lackawanna avenue Wednesday night for being intoxicated and insulting pedestrians. REMEDY FOR THE GRIPPE.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the Grippe is Komp's Bal-sam, which is especially adapted to dis-eases of the throat and lungs. Do not wait for the first symptoms of the dis-ease, but get a bottle today and keep it on hand for use the moment it is needed. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. The Balsam pre-vents this by keeping the cough loose. All druggists sell the Balsam.
