of the Sterrick Creek.

CARBONDALE.

STORES ENTERED.

Thieves Break Into the Stores of Ball & Brown and Tea Company.

When Bell & Brown, hardware merchants of Salem avenue, opened their store yesterday they found things in disorderly state which indicated that thieves had been there. Upon investi-gation they found there had been stolen six dozen table knives, pocket knives, revolvers, ammunition and 1.43 in cash. In the Grand Union Tea company's store next door nothing was taken but an ulster of to. L. Utley, the manager. Entrance was gained by prying up the rear windows. Tracks in the snow led to Church street via the alley be-tween the Wheeler and Avery resi-

TO BUY HOTEL AMERICAN.

Negotiations Are in Progress with That End in View.

It was rumored last night that the Anthracite Land and Improvement company had purchased Hotel American; that its proprietor, S. H. Williams, would take charge of Hotel Anthracite and that the American would be closed as a hotel and converted into a business block. The Telbune correspondent saw a member of the company who said negotiations are under way to that end. but that the proposed deal has not been consummated. It may be today,

An outline of this plan was given to The Tribune several months ago. The matter has been talked of for more than a year, but the parties interested have been unable to come to terms. The Hotel American property is valued at $75,000 and much interest attaches to the proposed change

DEATH OF MRS. DAVIS.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock Mts. Catherine Davis, of No. 140 South Church street, died. Exhaustion caused by grip brought her life to a close. She was born June 18, 1517, in South Wales and came to this country in 1832, being one of Carbondale's early settlers. Two sons and a daughter survive her. They are: Daniel H. Davis and Mrs. William Davis, of this city, and John R. Davis, of Baltimore, Md. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the house. Rev. T. E. Jepson will officiate. Interment in Maplewood.

POOL TOURNAMENT.

The Carbondale Cycle club is preparing a programme of amusements for the coming spring that cannot fail to interest the members. The principal feature is to be a pool tournament in which the entries are already so numerous that the contest is expected to last a month. There are a number of crack players in the club and the prizes for which they will contest will be handsome cues. A committee will arrange the matches for each evening.

F. P. KELLY GOING IN BUSINESS

F. P. Kelly, who has been prescription clerk at B. A. Kelly's drug store for several years, has purchased a Wilkes-Barre store and will enter into business for himself the first of April. While many friends will be pleased to learn of his bright prospects they will be pained to part with him. He is a social favorite in this city.

LOST HIS TOES.

William Hughes sustained injurie while at work in the Ontario and Western Mayfield yard, which necessitated the amputation of the roes of one foot. He was coupling cars when his foot son attended to the unfortunate man's

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Misses Martha Singer and Celia Moses are visiting friends in Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Meyers, of Mayfield, have taken up their residence in this city. P. F. Hughes is out again after an attack of grip. P. S. Joslin paid Scranton a business visit yesterday. C. E. Lathrop, who has been confined to his house by illness, is able to again perform his duties at the Leader of-

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Van Bergan expect to soon move into the Hunt residence, on North Church street.

Frank Hollenbeck is on the sick list Miss Jennie Purple spent vesterday in Forest City on business for the Purple Undertaking company. Professor Peters will organize his French class in the Burke building this evening at 7 o'clock. Revs. T. F. Coffey, J. J. Griffin and Vi. A. Nealon attended Father Finnen's funeral in Pittston yesterday. Father Coffey was celebrant at the

The funeral of Mrs. Hunsicker will be held Monday mo.ning and will be private. The remains will be taken to Collegeville for interment.

funeral muss.

ELMHURST.

Miss Bertha Grimes has recovered from an attack of the grin Mrs. S. A. Wilcox and daughter are visiting friends at Pittston.

Miss Hollister's orchestra concert which was to have been given in the Baptist church last evening, was postponed indefinitely on account of siek

A course of remedies-the marvel of medica science-and Apparatus indersed by physicia will be sent ON TRIAL, WITHOUT ADVANC PAYMENT. If not all we claim, return them our expense. MEN WHO ARE WEAK, BROKEN DOWN DISCOURAGED, men who suffer from the effect of disease, overwork, worry, from follies or ex cesses, from unnatural drains, weakness or lack o development of any portion of the body, failur of vital forces, unfitness for marriage-all such men should "come to the fountain head" for scientific method of marvellous power to vitalizlevelop, restore and sustain. On request we wil send description, with testimonials, in plais sealed envelope. (No C. O. D. imposition or other

Erle Medical Co., Buffalo, H.Y.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Knedler are receiving the congratulations of friends over the arrival of a little daughter in Invitations are out for a "phantom party" to be given by Robert Christy, at his home here on Feb. 22. Mrs. A. B. Clay is recovering from The King's Daughters and Sons of he Presbyterian church gave a social it the mause on Tuesday evening. Owng to the inclemency of the weather but few ere there, but a good time was reported by those who were brave enough to venture out.

er recent illness.

C. J. Powell, of Scranton, made a business trip here on Wednesday. Roy. C. A. Spalding will preach in he Baptis church Sunday morning and evening.

School was closed here on Friday, Monday and Tuesday, owing to inability to heat the school house on ac cunt of frozen pipes, Street Commissioner Byron Bucklugam has had a large force of men en-aged in shoveling snow on the borugh streets during the past three days. large number have been enjoying milar exercise on the Houlevard. Mrs. E. M. Keene, who injured her back by a fall on the lee a short time ago, is slightly improved.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Politics Becomes Interesting--Night School Largely Attended --- Church and Personal News.

The candidates for election are: Republican nominee, David H. Evans, Citizen nomince, James Thomas, The fight for constable in the ward is also watched with interest, the aspirants are Richard Morris the present Incumbent William Jones, the Citizens' candidate Night school sessions in this borough are being quite largely attended. The students are taking advantage of the opportunity afforded them by the board of directors.

A sleighing party composed of young Milwaukee this evening to attend a Taylorville Lodge, No. 668, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet in their rooms this evening.

Mr. Thomas Paterson, of Moosic, was a caller on friends in this place Thurs-

Miss Lizzie Davis, of Green Ridge, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan L. Davis, of Main street, for the past few days. An entertainment under the auspices of Mrs. Dibble's Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held on Thursday evening, Feb. 23, in the church auditorium. Some of Taylor's best singers, musicians and elocutionists are being engaged for the occasion.

The family of the late Mrs. William Fallon, of South Taylor, extend their sincere thanks to those who assisted them during their recent trouble. Mr. John Davis, of Avoca, called on friends here the former part of the week.

The family of the late Mrs. Thomas Prendergast desires to thank all those who sympathized with them during their late bereavement. Mr. James Gilgallon, of the United States infantry, now stationed at Porto Rico, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Mich. ac! McDonald, of Main street. Miss Edith Watkins has been taken ill by a severe attack of grip. The Taylor Glee society, under the direction of Richard Watkins, are requested to meet in the parlors of the

David J. Jones and William D. Thomas announce thmesives as candidates for school directors in Taylor Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Foster, of Sumner avenue, Hyde Park, were visitors n this place on Thursday. The residents of this borough are making many complaints about the condition of the water furnished them by the Taylor Water company.

A delegation of members from the Daughters of Peconentas from Plymouth paid a fraternal visit to the Lackawanna Council, No. 54, of this place, on Thursday evening.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The Schubert Glee club, of Providence, assisted by Llew Herbert, Mrs. Lewis and Miss Cora Griffiths, will give a concert in Enterprise hall en Wednesday evening, when the following programme will be rendered: Glee, "The Martyrs of the Arena," choit; song, "The Anchor," Walkin Isaac; song, selected, W. Z. Hopkins; vocal solo, "The Sermon That Touched My Heart," Thomas Jones: duet. "The Martial Spirit," Joshua John and Llew Herbert; recitation, Miss Cora Griffin; dee, "The Bridge," Schuber: Glee club; song, "Hedonin's Love Song," Liew Herbert: "Howell and Blodwen." Mrs.

Lewis and Mr. John; vocal solo, lected, John T. Evans: recitation, Miss 'ora Griffin; vocal solo, Joshua John; song, Mrs. Lewis: song, W. Z. Owens, vocal trio, Mrs. Lewis, Liew Herbert and Joshua Johns; finale chorus, "Detruction of Gaza," Schubert (Her club Mrs. Richard Bunt, whose serious diness of heart and kidney trouble has been mentioned from time to time. died at her home on Main street at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Deceased was born in Bodmin, Cornwall, Engand, fifty-eight years ago, and has resided in this borough for the past twenty years. She was of a modest and retiring disposition and was posessed of many good virtues that enleared her to a large circle of friends She is survived by her husband and hree daughters, Misses Beatrice and and Mrs. William Wills, all of this borough. The funeral will take Services in the Methodist | sale and retail agents. Episcopal church.

The entertainment under the auspies of the Women's Home Missionary ociety, held in the M. E. church on Thursday evening, was a great sucess, musically and financially. With exception, the programme was carried out as published. Miss Edith Davis, the violinist, who has become warm favorite at concerts, was so heartily applauded on her difficult solo that she was compelled to rezopnd to an encore. Miss Jennie Battenberg rendered her piano solo with much brilliancy. Mr. Gargill made his first public appearance in local concert singing and rendered "I Fear No Foe" and "Will o' the Wisp." two difficult solos, n a most charming manner. All the other numbers were also enjoyably rendered and the ladies of the society ought to be encouraged by Friday's success to make their concert an an-Mrs. Murphy, of South Seganton, vis ted her daughter, Mrs. Michael Mc-Dermott, of the East Side yesterday. There will be a special meeting of the members of the Rushbrook Lodge

Extremely Weak-No Appetite

If such is your condition, the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract will afford instant relief if taken with your meals and before retiring.

Johann Hoff's Malt Extract

is nature's own remedy for loss of appetite, sleeplessness, imperfect nutrition, dyspepsia, etc. A record of over fifty years has proven this to be true.

Dr. W. N. Bradford of Cambridge, O., writes: " Johann Hoff's Malt Extract is a certain tonic and invigorator. It imparts energy and vivacity and supplies resistance to people from this town will journey to of Odd Fellows at their hall at 7.30 o'clock this evening. Mrs. Alfred Butterworth and sister, Miss Hoolihan, are visiting friends in

Johann Hoff's Malt Extract MAKES FLESH AND BLOOD Avoid Imitations

> A child of John Maines, of Third treet, is ill of bronchitis. Mrs. Hugh Ebdon and family, of Peckville, spent Thursday with her sts. ter. Mrs. Frederick Horswell, of Main

Rev. C. A. Benjamin will preach in the M. E. church tomorrow. Morning "The Conditions of Christian Dicipleship," evening topic, "Our Conquering Christ,"

Joel Morcom, of Fourth street, is ill The special meeting of the school board will be held next Friday even-W. O. Hill visited Clifford yesterday. Mrs. Luther Keller and her sister Sarah, were visiting in Taylor and Scranton yesterday. Mr. W. D. Hill will preach in the Primitive Methodist church tomorrow evening. Thomas Davis, of Second street, vis ited Carbondate relatives yesterday, Two sleighing parties went from here making great preparations for their from Taylor and one from Providence on the selection "Jesus Lover of My Soul " Three glee clubs, one from Taylor, Providence and this place, will also compete for a prize. It i sexpected that this eisteddfod will be one of the most successful ever held at Oly-

OLYPHANT.

Last night a sleighing party from this place enjoyed a ride to Brown Hollow, The following composed the party: Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Harris, Misses Agnes Williamson, Georgia Thomas, Carri-Crippen, Jessie Pettigrew, Maggie Me-Intosh, Messrs. Willie Winters, David Matthews, Will Widdowfield and Will Matthews.

James Rogan, of Dunmore street, is onfined to his home with the grip. Rev. George Hague attended the funeral of the late A. J. Morton, at Kingston yesterday. The young people of the Blakely Baptist church will hold an entertainment and serve supper at the residence of G. M. Hull in Blakely next Wednes- home after spending several days with headquarters for both boots and barday evening. An enjoyable evening is assured for all who attend.

A missionary meeting will be held in the Congregational church next Monday evening under the direction of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's church, Scranton, will conduct Epis copal services in Edwards' hall tomors afternoan at 3.30 o'clock Miss Agnes Martin, who has been pending the past three weeks at her ome here, returned to the Emergency hospital at Carbondale yesterday. Rev. P. J. Murphy attended the fuseral of Rev. Father Finnen, at Pittson yesterday. Frank Thomas, of Kingston, is vis-ting relatives in town. Miss Kate Gordon, of Scranton, visted friends at this place yesterday.

Beware of Danger Signals.

Hisgen Bros., the popular South Side lruggists, corner 69th-st. and Wentvorth-av., say: "We sell a great deal f Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and find that it gives the most satisfactory results, especially among children for severe colds and croup." For sale by place tomorrow afternoon at half past all druggists. Matthews Bros., whole

PECKVILLE.

The voters of Blakely borough should bear in mind when voting for the bone issue that the purchasing of the necessary transformers depends on the bond issue. With the transformers the electric plant will be placed on a paving basis, without them the plant will be burden on the taxpayers' hands, It behooves every voter to east his ballot in favor of the $5,000 bond issue. Council will meet in adjourned session Monday evening, Feb. 20. W. H. Walker, coal inspector at the Raymond colliery, has been transferred to the Brisbin colliery at Hyde Park James W. Smith has just completed the first month's collection in the I'irst and for commercial lights. It amounts o $83 and next month's collections will louble that amount. There are also large number of residences not yet connected, on account of the borough tot having the necessary transformers.

John R. Bryden, superintendent of the Sterrick Creek colliery, has been as he should be. It can be administered without the knowledge of the patent where necessary. Send for numbers. a $83 and next month's collections will double that amount. There are also he Sterrick Creek colliery, has been transferred to the Sandy Back and Wm. G. Clark, and Peau Ave. Fertile 1, 2a

Brisbin collieries at Scranton. Mr. han are engaged in delivering the bal-Daniel Doris has been given charge

The subscription ball given by the Central Wheelmen at their hall Thurs-day evening was a brilliant success. The decorations were very artistic, consisting of hundreds of different colored electric lights, festooned and in many pleasing designs. The hall waz beautifully decorated with the national colors and draperies. The music was furnished by the celebrated Orpheus club, of Scranton. The refreshments were furnished and served by Caterer Huntington. This is the first of a series of dances to be given by the committee; Messrs, T. P. Benjamin, Thomas Glover, Robert Kipple, Charles Wiley and Fred Berry. The following from out of town were present: Misses Florence and Grace Sickler, Rose and Mame Lehr, Grace Winchell, Fracella Winchell, Scranton; Miss Berry, Miss and Crago, Scranton.

Peckville Baptist church, Rev. J. S. temas, pastor,-Services tomorrow at 10.30 a. m., subject, "Trial the Reveal-er of Character." Sabbath school at 11.30 a. m. All are welcome.

Dennis, Carbondale; Messrs. Beamish

Services in the M. E. church tomorrow morning and evening. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Simpkins. Theme for the morning sermon "The True God," evening, "God's Exiles," Sunday school in the afternoon at 2.39. Epworth League at 6 o'clock. A cordial welcome to all.

Mrs. S. C. Simpkins and Mrs. William Babcock were visitors in Scranton on Friday.

Mrs. E. H. Barber and daughter, Grace, visited friends in Secanton on Mr. Thomas J. Shafer and Miss Em ma Mertley were quietly married by Rev. S. C. Simpkins last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister in Jessup. The Young People's society of the Presbyterian church will hold a Valentine social at the home of Mr. A.

W. Brundage, on Monday evening, Feb.

20. A fine programme has been pre-Refreshments will be served. Admission ten cents. Services in the Presbyterian church morrow at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject for the morning, "Strong in All Things Through Christ." In the evening there will be a Miss Frances Willard Memorial service, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. A fitting are welcome, Rev. S. H. Moon, D. D., The W. C. T. U., of Peckville, will hold commemorative services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening in memory of the late Frances E. Willard. The Baptist congregation will join in the services. All are cor-programme has been prepared. All dially invited to attend. Mrs. George May, of Blakely, spent yesterday with Mrs. W. S. Bloes. Miss Carrie Frazier, of Bell Place, Miss Julia Brong, aged about fifteen ears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Char-es Brong, of Hickory street, died last vening. Funeral announcement later. William Goyne is ill of grip at his residence on Main street.

AVOCA.

Special services will be held in the yesterday to Olyphant and Providence. Langeliffe Presbyterian church beginning tomorrow morning, when the pastor, Rev. T. D. Smyth, will preach on revivals. In the evening Rev. L. E. The True American Ivorites are Van Hoesen will preach, Monday evening a meeting for young men will be eisteddfod which will be held in the beld, when an address will be made by Susquehanna Street Eaptist church on Rev. F. T. Allimon, of Pittston, Tues-St. David s day, A choir from this day evening, sermon by Rev. J. P. Mofplace, consisting of eighty members, fatt, of Scranton; Wednesday evening, M. E. church this (Saturday) evening under the leadership of Professor John Rev. B. J. Hammond, of Olyphan: J. Parry, will compete with a choir | Thursday evening, Rev. W. F. Gibbens, of Dunmore; Friday evening, Rev. James McLeod, of Scranton, Everybody welcome. The breaking of the furnace in the Presbyterian church has prevented services from being held during the present week. The special revival services, which were postponed, will be held at a later date. There will be services on Sunday morning at 19,30 in the class room, which will be heated by stoves. The pastor, Rev. L. E. Van-Hoesen, will preach. The Epworth League will meet at 6 p. m. There will be no services in the evening and the congregation will worship with the other congregations in town. F. P. McGrail and son, Glen, have cturned home after a several days visit with friends in Williamsport,

Mr. E. McMonigal, of Wilker-Barre ls substituting George Graham, as typo on the Argus, the latter being quite ill of grip. Mrs. Robert McKay has returned her daughter, Mrs. Rose Newlin, Mrs. G. W. Gay, of Orange, is visiting at the Snyder residence. The Standard Democratic club will meet this evening. A full attendance requested, as important business transacted. The Juvenile Order, Sons of St. George, will hold their quarterly meeting this evening. All are requested to be present, as the Daughters of St. George will serve refreshments after business is transacted. M. J. Bosley and John Widdal at-ended the meeting of the Sons of St. George last evening. Mrs. John Curran, of Peckville, is pending a few days in town.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, St. Aloysi is ociety, will meet on Monday evening, The early residents of Avoca did not forget the labors of the late Rev. Father Finnen among them when the parish was tributary to Pittston, Several hundred visited St. John's church on Thursday to view the remains of one who so diligently looked after their welfare. The snow plough, in charge of a large force of men, invaded this town on Wednesday evening and, after clearing the Traction road, they left the sides in a deplorable condition. Several cutters were tipped yesterday, but no serious results followed, the heavy banks serving as a padding. The officials of the town acted very unwise in allowing them to get away so eally.

TUNKHANNOCK. The mercantile appraisement list is now being published in the county The day of appeal is fixed for Saturday, March 18, 1899, at the commissioners' office. C. E. Frear, poprietor of the Winola house, at Lake Winola, was in town

WilburLott, of Nicholson township, was in Tunkhannock yesterday. H. W. Bardwell and Thomas Cala-HAPPINESS VS. MISERY.

n Thursday.

lots for Tuesday's election to the judges of election of the various districts, Asa H. Frear, justice of the peace of Overfield township, was in Tunkhannock Thursday. The voters of the borough will vote on Tuesday next on the question of the extension of the sewer system. The sewer was put through the First ward two years ago, and now the question is whether the Second ward shall be sewered. The estimated cost is $6,500. E. C. Frear, president of the Winela Oil, Gas, Development and Improvement company, drove over from his home in Overfield township on Thursday.

PITTSTON NEWS

The cave-in that occurred on Thursday morning in the vicinity of the old Seneca field, and a portion of the old workings of the Ravine shaft, which is operated by the Newton Coal com-pany, has proved to be more serious that was at first contemplated. Two of the houses that were in the midst of the disturbance and owned by Colaman Shirler and Andrew Charney, were badly shaken, so much so that the occupants were compelled to move out. The water main was broken and for several hours the water poured into the mine

All the public schools were closed yesterday, out of respect to the late Father Finnen. During the hours of the services nearly all the business places on Main street were closed.

Every coal mine in this valley was in operation yesterday, owing to the sudden demand for coal in all the large cities. It is an ill wind that does not work good for somebody, and our people can afford to allow the present condition of things to prevail for an indefinite period. Today more than a quarter of a million dollars will be distributed among those engaged at work in and about the mines, and for the next week or ten days business will receive an impetus that should be agreeable and profitable to those engaged in business A city council was organized last night by the class in oratory at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. and if they succeed in having only a portion of the fun that is at times realized down at the city hall they have engaged in a very interesting scheme. "Uncle Dick's Darling," which was produced at the Lyceum in Scranton a short time ago, will be seen at Music hall next Tuesday evening. An Erie and Wyoming Valley train struck a team of Evans' Brothers at the Port Griffith crossing yesterday, severely injuring one of the horses and partially demolishing the wagon. The driver escaped injury. Charles King, a former Pittston boy, but now of New York, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Dr. E. B. Long, on the West Side. The death of Mrs. Margaret Jones occurred yesterday afternoon at the family home on Railroad street, after an illness of several months. She was a native of South Wales and had been a resident of this place for thirteen years. The deceased was a kind and Christian woman and a constant worker in her Master's vineyard. She was a member of the Welsh Congregational church and the funeral, which will occur on Monday, will be from that place. She is survived by a husband and one

The miners will be accommodated throughout today with change at the Young Men's Christian association rooms. This is quite an accommodation, from the fact that all the banks

Bloomsburg Normal school team and the Young Men's Christian as blation first team, can be seen tonight at Phoenix hall. It will be a hot and interesting contest. Rev. L. C. Murdock, of Kingston, will address the young men at the Young Men's Christian association rooms tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. W. L. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hughes and Mrs. J. L. Cake are registered at the St. Dennis, New York. Advice was received from New York yesterday of the death of W. H. Putnam, who was a former principal of the West Pittston schools. This announcement will be received with sincere regret by many on this and the West Side. He was a victim of pneumonia, superinduced by an attack of the grip. H. G. WEEKS & CO. are making a drive in heavy leather goods and their shoe emporium, adjoining the Miners' Savings bank, is gains. You are invited to call and inspect the largest and most complete stock in the city.

OLIVER BURKE

at the Susquehanna house on South Main street, and who has one of the best appointed notels in the city, has just received a cargo of fine old blended whiskies. If you want anything for medicinal purposes you cannot make a mistake at his elegant quarters.

THE EAGLE HOTEL will serve an elegant gentlemans' lunch this evening that cannot but tickle the palate of the most fastidious epicurean.

THE CORCORAN BROTHERS at their splendid hotel on North Main street, have made unusual preparations for their guests today and during the coming week. The very best in the market is none too good for "Jim" and "Dom." to handle. A fine hot tunch is served all day, and meals can be served day or night by an A No. 1 chef. THE SINCLAIR HOUSE. will just be the place to drop into this evening as Mine Host Hughes has prepared a feast fit for the gods. Roast pig with oyster dressing will be the menu, and you should not miss it.

EAUM & BERNSTEIN the popular clothiers of North Main street, opposite the Eagle hetel, have inaugurated a special sale of the bai ance of their entire stock of winter clothing, which they intend to move at prices much below cost. You now have a rare opportunity to buy an Ulster, Overcoat or Winter Suit that will pay you to make the investment even if not badly in need of the article. Come in and see us anyhow.

MOSTOW.

Miss Kate Gallagher, of Scranton, is he guest of Miss Mamie Stone. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johns entertained Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Brown, Mr. nd Mrs. S. S. Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. S. f. Hornbaker, Buela Brown, Howard and Mary Yeager and Mae Horhbaker Tuesday evening.

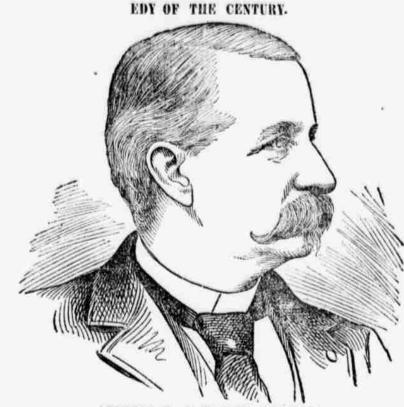

W. A. DePew is ill. Miss Bessie Maroney is ill with the

Mr. and Mrs. Verdan Smith, of Nichson, have been spending a few days

GENERAL POCOCK SAYS

Pe-ru-na Is One of the Best Medicines in the Land.

STATEMENTS FROM OTHER RESPONSIBLE PEOPLE ENDORSING THE CLAIMS OF THE SCIENTIFIC CATARRII REM-

GENERAL E. J. POCOCK. OF OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1897.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, President Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co.: Dear Sir:—I believe the use of your medicine, Pe-ru-na, to build up a broken or debilitated system about the best treatment that can be taken; it adds vigor and lends additional strength; it is certainly one of the very best medicines in the land. Respectfully.

Pe-ru-na cures catarrh. It is Dr. Hartman's great prescription for all diseases of the mucous membrane. Pe-ru-na acts directly on the nerves, and makes the membranes healthy by regulating the flow of blood. Where the membranes are healthy there can be no catarrh.

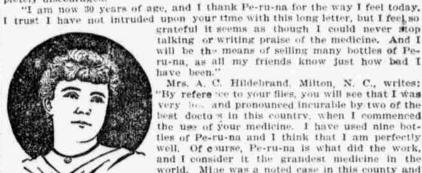

Mr. Ralph W. Chulip, Laporte, Ind., writes: "I want to thank you a thousand times for what your medicine has done for me. I cannot praise it enough, nor do I think any one troubled with catarrh, who will try just one bottle, can help but see what a wonderful medicine it is. I have been troubled with catarrh for the past eight years, and seven years ago it be-"In the last eight years I have taken enough different medicines, and tried different inhalers, that were I to make mention of them they would easily fill a page. I became so bad a year and a half ago that I took treatment from two different catarrh specialists.

"The first doctor removed a growth from my right nostril; he helped me some. I doctored with him about two months, but he could not stop the discharge from my head, which was dreadful. I have used as many as six and eight handkerchiefs in one day. I paid this doctor one dollar a treatment. I was advised to quit him and try another doctor. I did so, and he began giving me medicated air treatment that did me some good also, but could not stop the discharge from my head. "Finally my stomach became affected, and eight

Mr. Ratph W. Chulip. months ago I had to quit work. I lost in weight from 165 pounds to 140 pounds. My doctor advised me to go out into the country. I did so for two months and was taking medicine all the time, but got no relief. My appetite was gone, I began having heart trouble. Dizzy spells that would get so bad I would stagger when I walked. 'I was com-The basket ball contest between the pletely discouraged. "I am now 30 years of age, and I thank Pe-ru-na for the way I feel today, talking or writing praise of the medicine. And I will be the means of selling many bottles of Peru-na, as all my friends know just how bad I have been. Mrs. A. C. Hildebrand, Milton, N. C., writes; By refere ce to your files, you will see that I was very loo, and pronounced incurable by two of the est docto s in this country, when I commenced the use of your medicine. I have used nine bot-

Mrs. M. E. Bland

Thursday

everybody thought I would die. I never lose an opportunity to praise your medicine." Mrs. M. E. Bland, Hartwell, Ga., writes: "I trust no one would think from this that I would wish my name in public from any cause only to let sufferers know where they might find relief from many pains. I can truly say I have been much benefited by the use of Pe-ru-na. I feel better than I have for years. I have suffered for years with chronic catarrh, bronchitis, asthma, and female trouble, of which I have been much

"I know the virtue of Pe-ru-na. If for no other reason, it would pay to keep it for colds and coughs. It keeps off colds, it prevents grippe, and builds up the nerves. I gladly recommend it to A special book for women, entitled "Health and Beauty," is issued by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio, and with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. fall of coal caught him and he was Henry Travis. Mrs. Griffin, of Scranton, called on ner sister, Mrs. O. E. Vaughn, on mailed free to women only on application."

Miss Bessle Yeager returned home on Tuesday after spending a few days with relatives in Green Ridge. Miss Mable DeWitt has been spending a week at Maple Lake. The Patriotic Order Sons of America will give an entertainment and supper in the L O. O. F. hall Feb. 22. Admission to the entertainment. 10 cents; supper, 15 cents. Mr. James Kelly is suffering with blisters on his hands from shoveling

Mr. Harry DeWitt, of Rowlands, Pa. is visiting C. H. Clouse and his uncle, Mr. George DeWitt. Mr. Oren Wombacker has returned home after being storm staid in Dale-ville for a few days. FOREST CITY.

A Sunday school institute will be held at Dundaff on Tuesday next, and Rev. G. B. Stone, of the Forest City Methodist church, is down on the programme for one of the addresses. number of the borough Sunday school workers expect to attend

A Washington supper will be held in the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening next. On Monday evening next the Epworth League Reading circle will meet at the home of Mrs. T. C. Manzer. Dr. F. L. Grander has just been appointed physician to the board of Lemuel Jones, who has been employed in the barber shop of Richard Gray, left for Scranton on Thursday, where he will reside in the future. A young man named Higginson, who resides at Richmondale, was injured in No. 2 shaft of the Hillside Coal and Iron company on Thursday. A slight thrown forward against a car. His face was cut somewhat and his jaw Services will be held in Christ Episonal church each Friday evening during Lent. "Eaptism" will be the topic of the sermon at the Fresbyterian church Sunday morning and in the evening the subject will be "Who Can Stand

Before the Cold?" Michael Cawley, jr., has enlisted in the regular army and has left for Porto Rico, where his regiment is at present stationed.

PRICEBURG.

Carpenters are busily engaged erectng the tower at Johnson's Coal company's air shaft, which was recently destroyed by fire. A temporary engine house is also being built until the tine weather sets in to be replaced by a first-class brick building.

will hold their regular session this evening in Odd Fellows' half. LEARN TO SAY "NO" when a dealer offers you something "just as good" in place of Hood's Sarsaparilla. There

Earington Lodge, Sons of St. George,

Greatest Medicine. HOOD'S PILLS cure nausea, sick headache, biliousness and all liver illa Price 25 cents.

can be no substitute for America's

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Chartt. That