RELIGIOUS NOTES.
Mrs. Davis and Miss Bailey, active members of the Elm Park Methodist church, gave a "pious party" last night for the officers of the Volunteers of America at their army on Spruce street.
The Free Methodists will hold a general quarterly meeting in Swigg's hall, Third street, Dunmore, commencing Thursday, Feb. 23, and lasting over Sunday. The public is invited to attend the services. District pastor Logan of Wilkes-Barre, will preside.

Rev. D. J. Huston, of St. Mary's church, has been in Washington, D. C. the past few days. He is seeking an appointment as chaplain in the United States army from the assurance he has received is hopeful of securing it. Father Bustin has for some time been desirous of enlarging the service and now that this which will necessitate the addition of many chaplains, the chance of attaining his ambition are good. As he has always been keenly interested in the welfare of young men he is well fitted for work among them. The Rev. Father Bustin is not particular as to where he will be sent, being anxious to serve either in the Antilles or the Philippines.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Rev. Father Cummings, of County Roscommon, Ireland, who is collecting funds for the erection of a church under his charge, is a guest at the Episcopal residence. He has been in this country since June 1, and everywhere has met generous responses from those to whom he has appealed. The cathedral in Sligo, to which diocese he belongs, was completed almost entirely by funds collected in the United States. It is one of the most beautiful churches in Ireland, built in pure thirteenth century Gothic and furnished elaborately in every detail. It is situated on a hill, the steeple being which is rung automatically at the hour and the quarters, playing at the hour a selection of classic music. At 6 o'clock in the evening, when the steeple begins, it plays the anthem peculiar to the season of the year, and after that a selection of the sweetest of the national airs of Ireland. The same bells may be also played from a clavier in the organ loft.
It is one of the features of gala days in this metropolis of the west of Ireland to fill the town from morn till night with sweetest music showered from these bells.
There is nothing more enchanting for the soul, on a summer evening, than the skirting the seashore, or sailing on the neighboring lake or meandering through the forest shades of Leasdelly, or when climbing the hills, that straggles about the shores, to listen to the exquisite concerts poured out from the cathedral towers.
Sligo men are proud of their cathedral and their chimneys, but they are proud of this also that they are the gifts of generous exiles in the United States.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Was Held in Honor of the Late Frances Willard.
The local Women's Christian Temperance union held a service yesterday in memory of the first anniversary of the death of Frances Willard. Mrs. C. D.
Simpson presided over the meeting in which she spoke graciously and earnestly of the great leader of the temperance movement. She alluded to the fact that her loss would mean the dissolution of the Women's Christian Temperance union, and told of the influence that still swings the organization in binding it closer in interest and effort.

A personal recollection was given of the national convention when the non-partisan discussion resulted in the two delegates in withdrawing from the hall. Miss Willard watched the procedure sadly and then said gravely:
"We can not all think alike on these questions but I believe that Ellen and I will yet stand in heaven and sing from the same hymn book." The action of County Superintendent Taylor in allowing a memorial programme to be given in the schools last Friday was commended.

A number of articles were read by Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Tevelsberry and Miss Frances Raub regarding Miss Willard as an educator, a leader and a reformer.
The meeting closed with an arrangement of details regarding the mid-year county convention on Friday when a large number of delegates will be expected to gather in Elm Park church.

AS TO THE NEW BANK.

Its Organization Is Now Considered as Quite Certain.
It is now quite certain that the new banking institution being organized by a company of local men, headed by John T. Richards, ex-cashier of the Merchants' and Mechanics' bank, will be a reality before the year is out.
Its promoters are meeting with much encouragement and will probably call a meeting of the subscribers in the course of two weeks. The purpose is to make it a popular institution, limiting as far as practicable the shareholders to the principal patrons of the bank.
