Thirteenth Regiment is Scheduled to Reach Here on March 12. The Thirteenth regiment will arrive here on a Sunday afternoon. This regrettable fact was communicated to Secretary Daniels of the general re-ception committee of the Soldier's Relief association yesterday in a letter from Colonel H. A. Courson. The letter follows: Hendquarters Tairceenth Regiment, P.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 19, 1899. Mr. Charles E. Daniels, Secretary, Seran-ton, Pa. Dear Sir-As I wrote you in my pre rious letter a great majority of the met will come nome together. We received railroad rates for the first time yester-day. The rate is $12.49 per man. Trip will give one full sent to each man. Tour ist sleepers will cost $5 per section extra These can be occupied by either two or

These can be decembed by either two of three persons.

The date of our leaving is fixed for the lith of March. This is the date of our muster-out, fixed by the mustering out officer and entirely beyond any control on our part. Papers will be all com-pleted, and the paymaster will pay Satrdsy morning.

I shall have this done as early as poible and completed before 1 o'clock t i., if possible. Every preparation will e made and trains ready to take at once. We should leave here by 2 p. m. The railroad people say they will land us in Scranton by 5 or 6 o'clock p. m. the following day, which, I regret, will be Sunday afternoon. There is no way of avoiding this. The regiment is fed by contract the last four days, which end it this time. Everything in the way of roperty, cooking stoves, etc., has been urned into the quartermaster. There is a alternative but to have the trains eady and leave at once. There will be three sections, therefore it will be simply impossible to arrive at one time in Scranton, but I will make every effort I can to get our three trains ear together before our arrival. Will telegraph ahead the hour of ou arrival. I do not know that I can adise you any further now.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to take action on the communication.

NOT GENERALLY OBSERVED.

Washington's Birthday Passed off Very Quietly.

Washington's birthday was not very daborately celebrated in this city, but that the new heroes and the election and not entirely effaced the memory of +++++++++++++++ the Father of His Country was evidenced by the very generous display of lags on the regiment of new flag poles. which were raised in defense of the nation during the war before last. The closing of the banks and public offices ilso tended to remind one of the fact that a legal holiday was on, but as far as a suspension of general business or lemonstrations were concerned no one would be brought to realize that the nation was supposed to be doing reverence to the memory of the greatest nan of modern times.

The public schools commemorated the anniversary on the preceding day, as s their annual custom, with entertainments, having programmes appropriate to the occasion. No. 36 school had a flag raising, replacing the tattered flag that did service in front of the school all summer with a handsome new silk

Held Last Night in the Grace Reformed Church-Some Features of the Excellent Programme

The fifth annual conference of the Young People society of the Grace Reformed church was held last night, Mrs. W. T. Hackett presiding. interesting programme was present- trousers. The money, however,

Harry Lathrope, who is at Princeon, had been asked to read a paper, This request was granted in an excellent article on "Stewardship," which was read by Miss Frances Scott. Mr. Lathrope represented the Scranton Reformed church last evening in the conference held in Brooklyn. The paper contained many practical hints for work. The writer told earnestly of the possibilities which lie before the one who considers himself devoid of talents. The production was heard with the utmost interest. The report of the King's Daughters prepared by Miss Scott, was read by Miss Carrie Bonney. It told of much beautiful work accomplished by this society in cheering the sick with visits, with delicacies and flowers.

A room was furnished at the Home for the Friendless and one is to be provided at the Florence Mission. A box valued at 894 has been sent to China. Miss Honnie Ripple's report of the King's Children was read by Miss Sue Ripple. A child in China is being supported by the children. Miss Emily Hatch read the report of the Christian Endeavor society. Miss Mary McCulloch read a bright little report of the Junior society and Miss Louise Waugh followed with a report of the Sunday school, which, she raid, was now it years old. W. T. Hackett presented a greeting from the Philadelphia conference now in session, and make brief remarks. Mr. Thornwald E. Mr. Alrich and spoke in an interesting way of the work in his home, describing the conference in New York and vicin-Ity It includes also Newagie burg, Woodlawn and Brooklyn. spoke with great earnestness and gave many helpful suggestions.

The conference closed with a consecration service conducted by the pastor, who spoke in encouraging terms of the need of greater devotion and more consecration. Miss May Doster presided at the plane during the evening.

DENTAL SOCIETY MEETS.

Lackawanna and Luzerne Doctors in Monthly Session.

The monthly meeting of the Lackawanna and Luzerne Dental society was held at the office of Dr. C. C Laubach Thursday night. There were present Dr. T. W. Thomas, Dr. H. D. Matten, Dr. D. B. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre; Dr. J. L. Fordham, Dr. G. C. Knox, Dr. C. C. Laubach, Dr. P. F. Struppler, Dr. T. A. Eynon, Dr. E. J. Donnegan, of Scranton; Dr. E. A. Car-

JOHN REILLY, OF MT. POCONO, ARRESTED LAST NIGHT.

He Is Charged with Having Stolen a Number of Articles from Mangan's Hotel-When Searched at the Police Station After His Arrest a Number of the Stolen Articles were Found Upon His Person-Was a Lodger at the Station House Re-

Some time yesterday morning a sneak thief made the rounds of the lodgers' oms at Mangan's hotel, 302 Lackawanna avenue, and carried off a quan-tity of booty, including a purse coutaining $50 belonging to Frank Simons; a pair of trousers, belonging to James Cavanaugh, and a pair of gloves, the property of John Skelly, the bartender. A rusty-looking individual named John Reilly, a Mt. Pocono ice cutter, who came to the hotel Saturday and departed yesterday, was suspected and watch was set for him.

Early last evening one of the boarders at the hotel descried him staggering up Lackawanna avenue in company with another individual of somewhat the same calibre in the matter or general appearance. He was pointed out to Patrolmen Tom Evans and Jonathan Rodham and placed under S

That the suspicion was well-founded & was proved by a search of his person | S' at the station house. The stolen trous- & ers, which were several sizes too small & for him, were found drawn on beneath his own and the missing gloves were discovered in a pocket of the stelen not in his possession. He denied the theft, but could not explain how he came by the trousers and gloves. They were given to him by a friend, he said. It is thought Reilly's companion may have the money and a search was Immediately instituted for him. He had not been discovered up to an early hour this morning. Reilly was a lodger at the police station one night last week, Sergeant Reese Jones says. He worked a few days for the Scranton Railway company as a shoveler during the blizzard and had in his position an envelope showing that he had carned $5.91, Thirty cents was all he had about him when arrested. He will be given a hearing this morning.
