FUNERALS.

The funeral services of William Dilts yesterday were conducted by Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. T. E. Jepson, of the Berean Baptist church. A large concourse of friends made up the procession that followed the remains to the place of interment at Maplewood cemetery and there were many tokens of personal esteem among the floral offerings which were profuse and handsome. The Knights of Pythias and the Cambrian Lodge of Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body, the former order having charge of the burlal ceremony. Those from out of town were: Messrs, and Mesdames Robert Ewing, Elmer Dilts, Thomas Grimes and Messrs. John Dilts, William Grimes, Frank Grimes, Charles Dilts, Harry Dilts, all of Hudson, Pa., and Miss Ida Vincent, of Buffalo, N. Y.

James Bryden's funeral was held yesterday morning. A requiem mass was said at St. Rose church and Father Nealon delivered a very fine ser-The text was "Remember Thou the Last Day."
