

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

INTERESTING SESSION OF THE BAPTIST UNION. Held Last Night in the Lecture Room of the First Welsh Baptist Church.

The Young People's society of the First Welsh Baptist church held a very interesting meeting in the lecture room of the above church last evening.

He was surrounded by disturbing elements, and passed through a series of changes in which previous history afforded but little guidance and no parallel.

He not only lived to see these changes, but a new order of things. He saw the throne restored, the priest-hood again in power, and the discard of teachers of learning restored.

On June 14, 1842, the English parliament passed an ordinance requiring all publications to be licensed before going to press by one of the official censors, and to be registered in the books of the Stationers' company.

Remarks were made on the paper by Miss Jennie Jenkins, James R. Hughes and Rev. D. D. Hopkins.
