FIRST SUNDAY MAIL.

Increased Postal Facilities for the Business Men of Carbondale.

Sunday postal facilities were offered Carbondale business men for the first time yesterday. Mail arrived at 12.15 Porto Rico, who has been visiting his o'clock p. m. and the general delivery and stamp window was open from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m. The carriers' window Dr 1 W was also open the same hour. Mail Harrisburg, where he was attending deposited in the boxes at the postoffice before 6.30 p. m. departed on the 7.05 Miss Thereas Fellow of 10 train and reached New York this morning in time for the first delivery.

This routine will be carried out each Sunday from now on. There will be no Sunday delivery at present. In addition to this convenience for our merchants it will be of considerable value to the hotel men who will be able to hold some business over Sunday which has always gone elsewhere.

The school board at their special eeting acted with a commendable spirit in dealing with the lengthy exoneration list. Those who were known to be deserving were exonerated and others will have to pay. It is to be hoped that when the council takes up same business, which they will probably be called upon to do at their regular meeting on Friday, they will guided to a certain extent by the action of the school board, and that while charitable to those found deserving they will exercise the proper firmness in the other cases.

William Henry Maynard, of South Main street, a driver boy in the Delaware and Hudson colliery, had the top of his thumb cut off a few days ago. While engaged in coupling mine cars his thumb got caught between the bumpers.

Street car No. 23, in charge of Motorman Flannery and Conductor Thomas, pend upon a cure when a cure is posgoing north, jumped the track at the foot of the hill on Main street yesterday afternoon and shot across the atreet toward the silk mill, turning almost around. After three-quarters of an hour's hard work it was replaced on the track.

The condition of Mrs. George Walters, of Main street, has been quite critical for the past two days and there was little or no improvement last evening, Mr. Johnson Bennett, of Second street, is ill of pleurisy. Prof. George Howell, superintendent of the Scranton schools, spent yester-day with his mother, Mrs. William Howell, of Third street.

The Delaware and Hudson colliery orked but half a day on Saturday on account of the scarcity of big cars, Mr. and Mrs. William Trim, former well known residents of this borough, now of Pittston, spent yesterday here with friends.

Mrs. H. D. Swick, of Second street. is confined to her home with bronchial trouble.

The changeable weather of the past few days appears to be responsible for a great deal of siekness. A number of cases have been reported during
