BURNED WITH POWDER.

Angelo Penina, of Peckville, injured at the Sterrick Creek Mines.

Angelo Penina, a miner employed in the Sterrick Creek colliery at Peck-ville, was severely burned about the head and face yesterday afternoon by the explosion of a powder charge. He was preparing a twenty-four inch cartridge for a blast, and in some manner a spark fell from his lamp setting the powder off.

He dashed into his face, scorching eyebrows and moustache off. The injured man was brought to the Lackawanna hospital. He is about 33 years of age and is married.

HOPE TO HEAR FROM COURSEN.

Committee Will Meet to Further Plans This Afternoon.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the reception of the Thirtieth regiment will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, to further the plans mapped out at the meeting of last Saturday.

It is expected that a message will be received, some time this morning, from Colonel Coursen conveying definite intelligence of the regiment's return. At present the information in the hands of the committee is rather vague. All that is known for a certainty is that the soldiers would endeavor to get away during the afternoon of Saturday, March 11, and that they expected to reach here the next afternoon. There was nothing definite in Colonel Coursen's letter, however, upon which to base anything like positive assurance that this schedule would be observed.

See regarding Daniel's report Saturday evening, asking Colonel Coursen to telegraph before Wednesday any definite information he might have; and also to arrange if possible to have the regiment reach here some time other than Sunday afternoon.

Proceeding on the assumption that the regiment will arrive here on Sunday the entertainment committee has arranged an appropriate programme along the lines suggested at Saturday's meeting and this will be submitted at the meeting this afternoon.

JOHN GLEASON IDENTIFIED.

Seen in Duryea the Day Before the Corcoran Murder.

'Squire Gilboy, of Duryea, is authority for the statement that John Gleason, the burglar shot at Delaware Water Gap, who died in the Lackawanna hospital in this city, has been positively identified as one of the men seen hanging around Duryea the day before M. F. Corcoran was murdered.
Mr. Gilboy says that other members of the gang are spotted but as yet it is difficult to get positive evidence against them, the detectives will go slow and when the net is drawn in, the guilty will be made to suffer.

The similarity of the methods employed to blow open the safe at Stroudsburg and the safe in Corcoran's hotel is regarded as a strong clue.
Nitroglycerine was the explosive used.
And in both cases the burglars broke into blacksmith shops and took tools to help do the work. Safes were blown open by similar means by gangs at Shenandoah, Danville and other places and the detectives believe the gang were emboldened by the arrest of the Monaghans that they had escaped suspicion and were free to resume their reckless career.

VALUABLE LAND IN DISPUTE.

Judge Lynch Allows an Issue to Be Framed.

Judge Lynch at Wilkes-Barre Monday handed down an opinion which permits an issue to be framed between Henry Zeigler and the Hillside Coal and Iron company, to settle and determine the right and title to 300 acres of land in Pittston township, valued at $1,500,000.

Zeigler resides at Dupont, Luzerne county, and has been engaged in a legal struggle for over ten years to secure the property in dispute. He is 72 years of age.

The land in dispute is located in what is known as Smithville, and is underlaid with valuable coal, and the average thickness of which is twenty-five feet. Henry Zeigler, ex-postmaster of the village of Dupont, claims to be the owner of the land, but his title is disputed by the Hillside Coal and Iron company, fixing their claim upon a deed obtained from the Orphans' court.

BOTH COUNCILS WILL MEET.

Providence Pass Ordinance to Be Pushed.

A special meeting of common council for the transaction of general business has been called for tomorrow night.
The main purpose of the meeting is to help hasten the passage of the Providence pass ordinance. The Providence council will meet on third reading and send it forthwith to the common council to be passed on two readings. At the next meeting of the lower branch it can be passed on final reading and sent down for the mayor's approval.

It is necessary that the ordinance shall have run the legislative and executive gauntlet before the end of this month to become operative, as the present councils die at that time.
There is no opposition to the measure, apparently, and it will likely go through unanimously. The work will doubtless be commenced as soon as spring opens.

MUST BE PEACEABLE.

And Not Utter Threats Against a Tailor's Health.

George Caryl gave bail in the sum of $300 before Alderman Kasson yesterday afternoon as a bond that he will refrain from uttering threats against the personal comfort of D. H. Edel-sohn, the Lackawanna tailor, is concerned.

Edelsohn alleges that Caryl did utter threats against him that if carried out would be disastrous to his bodily health, and he greatly feared that Caryl would be tempted to carry the threat out. An additional charge of a more serious nature is now pending before Alderman Kasson, in which Caryl is defendant and Edelsohn prosecutor.

WIFE WAS PROSECUTOR.

Thomas Ryan Accused of Beating
His Helpmate.

Mrs. Mary Ryan, of South Scranton, appeared before Alderman Howe yesterday and swore out a warrant, charging her husband with assault and battery.

Special Officer Byers arrested the husband, and after a hearing Thomas was held in $300 bail for his appearance at court. His mother, Mrs. Ann Ryan, of Stone Avenue, became security.

complished during the year.

CONNELL LIBRARY
IS NOW COMPLETED

LOCATED IN THE PRETTIEST ROOM IN THE CITY.

Only Institution of Its Kind in This Part of Country—Contains Ten Thousand Law Books and Is for Free Use of Tenants of the Massive Connell Building in Which It Is Located—Will Be Pointed Out as One of the City's Most Interesting Sights.

Indications of Scranton's progressiveness are evident on every side, but as a specimen of up-to-date enterprise nothing is to be found in the city that will compare with the enterprising innovation introduced in the Connell building, Scranton's largest store and office structure.

It is nothing less than a large law library for the special and sole use of the tenants of the building, a large proportion of whom are lawyers.

When it is stated that the Law association library does not exceed it in capacity and that it far exceeds the association's library in the matter of being modern, an idea of its dimensions are apparent.

At present it contains 10,000 volumes, or will when the books that have been ordered are put in place. In the list is everything essential to a complete law library. George F. Beisel, the well-known Philadelphia law book distributor, was given carte blanche in making up the list, which is sufficient guarantee, to lawyers at any rate, that the collection is all that can be desired.

EXTREMELY PRETTY ROOM.

The library room itself is the prettiest apartment to be found in any public building in the city. In design, finishing and furnishing it is indeed ideal for its intended purposes.

The room is centrally located on the third floor, and is sixty feet long by thirty-eight feet wide. Three-fourths of its space is devoted to shelves and the other fourth to a reading room, tending in stall-fashion along the entire length of the room. Ornamental capped pillars form a central support to the ceiling and add much to the appearance of the room.

The shelves are in three sets. One takes up the whole side of the room opposite the booths and reaches from floor to ceiling. The second set are in two-sided cases, half the height of the room and extending through its center. The third set are arranged between the entrances to the booths, and at the space at the far end of the room between the line of the booths and the rear door.

ARRANGEMENT OF BOOTHS.

The booths are only enclosed to within four feet of the ceiling, the intervening space being set off with hand-carved square pilasters. Light is obtained from the side windows and a profusion of incandescent lights supported in dull black chandeliers and brackets of beautiful design.

All the interior wood work is in quartered oak, including the flooring. The furniture is of the same material and very elaborate. The entrances to the booths are curtained in crimson velvet and the rugs covering the highly polished floor are of the same general color.

The walls above the book cases and the paneled wainscoting of the booths are in old oak, and in the cornice is a dainty frieze in relief.

The library is reached through an apartment containing a small reception room and a luxuriously furnished office for the librarian, the two being separated by an open stair. A view of the library is obtained from the office through fancy leaded windows, while the doors leading from the reception room are paneled nearly the whole length in plate glass.

CONFINED TO TENANTS.

The use of the library is confined strictly to the tenants of the building. It is open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and is attended constantly by a librarian, Mrs. Annie W. Broadbent, occupies that position, and also does stenographic work for those who may require such service.

This is the only library of its kind in this part of the country, and as far as is known is the only one anywhere established under exactly similar conditions. In New York and Philadelphia there are large office buildings with libraries attached, but in each instance the establishment of the library was brought about by some party willing to give to the public and the owner of some office building giving the use of a few rooms for the accommodation of the books.

In the case of the Connell library the whole scheme was devised and executed by the owner of the building, Hon. William Connell, and was spontaneously and specifically established for the convenience of the patrons of his buildings. No extra charge is made for the use of the library, and no increase is to be made in the rent charges for the offices.

The library is complete, except in the matter of a few minor details, and the public is invited to visit it.

F. L. Crane has a fine assortment of tailor-made suits.

WANT FURTHER INFORMATION.

German Velvet Manufacturers Make Some Inquiries.

When the representatives of the velvet manufacturing concern, which proposes to move its plant to this country, were in Scranton last week, they told Secretary Atherton that they were favorably impressed with this city's advantages in that line, and that he would hear from them later.

Yesterday Secretary Atherton received a letter from one of the firm, Carl Von Der Upwich, asking for the details of a proposition which was made to them while here in the name of the board of trade.

The letter further stated they had traveled all through the east and had found no other city offering advantages such as to be had in Scranton.
The letter was dated at New London, Conn., but as Mr. Upwich instructed Secretary Atherton to address him at New York, it is evident they are through with their search through the East for a place that offers better inducements than the Electric City.

Mr. Atherton will answer the letter today. He is convinced that the velvet factory is a good thing and that there are fair prospects of Scranton adding it to her list of industries.

TWO MEN KILLED.

Fatal Result of a Cave in the Delaware Mine of the Delaware and Hudson Company at Mill Creek.

An extensive cave-in occurred in the Delaware mine, operated by the Delaware and Hudson company at Mill Creek yesterday morning by which two men lost their lives and two were badly injured.

The dead are: Thomas Canfield, aged 25, single; Jacob Reinhart, aged 15, wife and seven children. The injured are: Martin Miller and Michael Ma-loski.

The four men were working on a breast. Reinhart was drilling a hole in the face of the chamber when, without a moment's warning, the roof caved in, crushing the unfortunate men beneath it.

The work was at once organized and the party was at digging out the men commenced.
Miller and Maloski did not receive the full force of the fall and were injured internally, but there is a chance of their recovery. B. Dowling Reinhart was next rescued. He was fatally injured internally. He died last evening. Canfield's body was the last to be recovered. It was buried under several tons of coal and was badly mangled.

INTERESTING SESSION.

Held Yesterday by the Members of the W. C. T. U.

The regular weekly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday and was well attended. The president, Mrs. Dowling presided and led the devotional exercises. Leaflets on "Work for the Promotion of Purity in Literature and Art" were read and proved to be interesting. Short talks were given by those present who attended the community conference recently held in Elm Park church.

Considerable discussion took place in reference to the suggestion that something should be done to care for the breaker boys, little bootblacks and other youngsters who are wont to roam about the streets. A resolution was adopted urging all Temperance workers to remember that this was Remembrance week and to do all they could to further the Temperance cause.

REV. FEELEY APPOINTED.

Made Assistant Professor of Latin and Greek at St. Thomas'.

Rev. J. H. Feeley, assistant priest at St. Peter's cathedral, has accepted the honor offered to him by Bishop Hoban, that of assistant professor of Latin and Greek at St. Thomas' college, this city. The appointment of Father Feeley was necessitated by the large increase of the number of students at that institution.

The college is under the direction of the Christian Brothers, but it is a rule that the classics be taught by priests.
Rev. D. J. MacGolek and Rev. P. J.
Gough, who were present at the conference, required more assistance, hence the appointment.

Rev. Father Feeley was ordained to the priesthood nine years ago by the late lamented Rev. William O'Hara.
The past five years he has been assistant at the cathedral. Father Feeley is a brilliant young man and his selection was merited.

PATROLMAN DAY, NOW.

The Big and Popular Soldier Resumes Police Duty.

Sergeant Lona B. Day will this evening resume his position in the regular army of the Electric City. He will be assigned to duty on Wyoming avenue.

Patrolman John McColligan, who was substituted for Sergeant Day, will write from the area for the present.
An arrangement has been made by Mayor Bailey whereby he and Patrolman Collins, Chief Robling's substitute, will be continued as extra officers until the end of the fiscal year, March 31, and then when additional patrolmen will have been provided for by the estimates committee, as is confidently expected, they will be given permanent places.

MINE CAVE NEAR HAZLETON.

Affected a Branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

A somewhat extensive mine cave occurred yesterday morning at Long Run Junction, just outside of Hazleton, on the Hazleton and Mahanoy City branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad. The cave, which involved the tracks for some little distance, was caused by the mining operations which have been going on in the stripplings in that section.
The Pennsylvania railroad trains are run over the branch which was affected by the cave.

DAVIS PEOPLE HAD
AN EASY VICTORY

MUSTERED TWELVE VOTES OUT OF THE TWENTY.

Mr. Schreifer Once More Casts His Lot with the Losing Faction—Major E. D. Fellows and Attorney David J. Reedy Unanimously Re-elected—Mrs. Fellows Continued as Secretary Pro Tem—The New Powers Intend to Get Down to Business Early.

The board of school control last night, elected Benson M. Davis, of the Fourth ward, chairman, and re-elected Major E. D. Fellows a secretary, and Attorney David J. Reedy as solicitor.
Mr. Davis was chosen over O. B.
Schreifer, of the Sixteenth ward, by a vote of twelve to eight. Major Fellows and Mr. Reedy were unopposed.

The board adjourned Monday night to meet at 8 o'clock last night for general business and then to adjourn sine die and go into re-organization. A minute before 8 o'clock the Davis men, who had previously assembled at an appointed place, entered the meeting room in a body. At the stroke of the hour the Schreifer men put in an appearance, also having previously assembled at an adjacent office.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were approved and on motion of Mr. Phillips adjournment, without day, was made, though Mr. Casey protested vigorously, saying the supply committee had a lot of bills to submit for approval, among them the disputed coal bill.

Chairman Francois made a brief speech thanking the members for the general courtesy that had been shown him during his term as president and then retired to the floor.

THE RE-ORGANIZATION.

Mrs. Fellows, secretary pro tem, called the annual meeting to order and Mr. Jayne was elected temporary chairman without opposition. Mr. Gibbons nominated him, and Mr. Schwass seconded the nomination.

The election of a president was then proceeded with. Mr. Davis was nominated by Mr. Shires, with Mr. Toebe as his second. Captain May nominated Mr. Schreifer. Mr. Logan seconded the nomination. There were no nominating speeches.

Mr. Davis received twelve votes and Mr. Schreifer eight. The division was as follows: Messrs. Shires, O'Malley, Davis, Phillips, Keefe, Schaefer, Nouis, Jayne, Evans, Schwass, Gibbons, Leonard.
Schreifer—Messrs. Francois, Casey, May, Walsh, Jennings, Schreifer, Barker, Langston.

The absentees were Mr. Zeidler, of the Eighteenth ward, who is with the Thirteenth regiment at Camp MeKenzie.
Mr. Davis took the chair, and, thanking the members for thus honoring him, promised them that he would do his utmost as he saw it and as well as he knew how.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

The salary of the secretary was made the same as last year, and then the board unanimously re-elected Major Fellows as secretary and Attorney Reedy as solicitor. Major Fellows nominated as secretary, Mr. Casey and seconded by Mr. Schaefer. Mr. Jennings nominated Mr. Reedy in a neat speech, in which he referred to the efficient service Mr. Reedy has given the board as its solicitor. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Langan and Mr. Evans.

On motion of Mr. Casey, Mrs. E. D.
Fellows was continued as temporary secretary. Mr. Davis returned thanks on behalf of her husband and herself.

The second and fourth Mondays of each month were continued as the regular meeting nights, on motion of Mr. Jayne, and on motion of Mr. Jennings the recess rule was adopted for the government of the board until such time as it was seen fit to change them.

On motion of Mr. Jayne the meeting adjourned to Monday, March 6, for general business.

HEARD IAN MACLAREN.

Large Party from This City Went to Wilkes-Barre Last Night.

A special train over the Delaware and Hudson railroad, secured through the courtesy of James P. Dickson, carried about seventy-five persons of the prominent set of this city to Wilkes-Barre last night. They attended the lecture and readings given by Ian MacLaren, at the Seabitt. The celebrated author was introduced to a large and very select audience by Judge Rice, of Wilkes-Barre, and the lecture which followed was a source of unalloyed pleasure to all. A reception was tendered the noted Scotchman at the Moreland at the conclusion of the lecture.

The return trip was marred somewhat by an unavoidable accident which happened just below Moosic. No fatalities or injuries resulted, but the train was delayed almost an hour, arriving here at 11:27 o'clock. The engine had slipped an eccentric, which required some time to fix up. Conductor Case
