YOUTHFUL REFORMERS.

New Arrivals Were Just a Bit too Nice for the T. O. T. A. Gang.

In the select neighborhood of public school No. 35 a gang exists. It is not organized for marauding or worse crime but simply for mutual protection and admiration. The lads who comprise the gang, known as the T. O. T. A's, (Touch One Touch All), are not over fifteen years of age and as young as ten years. Into this neighborhood recently moved Henry Preus ner and family, taking a residence o Vine street. Two sons, Otto and Har ry Jr., nice appearing, genteel lads, be gan to attend school No. 25. They did not mix up with the mem-bers of the "society" and trouble be gan to brew. Objections were made to their style of carrying themselves even Otto's eye-glasses were tabooed Yesterday four of the lads, William Costello, John McCracken, Matt Com and J. Murphy, were arrested, charged with assault and battery. A hearing was given them by Alderman Howe and Attorney Reedy appeared for the defendants. Mr. Preusner, as prosecutor, appeared for his sons. The defendants were held in $500 bail each as a sort of a mild corrective to their beiligerency. Their attorney qualified for them.

BOARD OF HEALTH TALKED ABOUT ODORS

MEMBERS IN A QUANDARY AS TO JUST WHAT TO DO.

Matter Called to Their Attention by the Report of Health Officer Allen. Food Inspector Directed to Arrest Those Who Violate the Regulation with Reference to Exposing Meats Uncovered in the Open Air Which Are Intended for Sale—Reports of An Act, making it a folony to wilfully and fraudulently take from any loaded the Officers.

At the meeting of the board of health Inst night considerable time was devoted to a consideration of the best manner of abating the offensive odors that arise from stables in the thicklysettled parts of the city. The mem bers of the board were at a loss to know just how to act in the matter. Dr. Bentley's remark that the work of rooting out all the bad odors in the city is a very large contract, was approved by every member present.

Some of them should be, and will be, abated, but the members are at a loss to know just where they should draw the line. The matter came to the at-Ninety-two complaints were made during the month of February, twenty-one of which were abated. The others having been caused by the unusual amount of water all over the surface and the block-ing of gutters and drains are not so easily remedied. There are many complaints of fifthy conditions, bad odors from stables where cows are kept, in fact these com-plaints are made at all seasons but are more frequent when the first warm days ome and I do not know how under our resent system we are going to manage o help the people who are suffering.

The cow is a most valuable animal on farm but in restricted quarters her esence is anything but desirable satter how carefully she may be looked fter, the smell from the manure heap nd from the cow is neither pleasispectizing. In the central part of th ity the alleys have more houses that tables and of course many of these ouses are in very close proximity to the stables and must get all the oder there is.

ONE SUGGESTION. Perhaps it would be desirable to estab sh cow limits, forbidding the keeping of ows in the thickly populated sections of the city. This would cause no hardship to poor people as it appears to be only the wealthy who have them and in view of osis, it might be well for all parties,

The board authorized the sanitary officer to compel the owners of stables tary condition.

Dr. Allen said there had been a good ecause the persons responsible for the msanitary condition of No. 28 school some time ago have not been prosecuted. The matter was referred to the ity solicitor, he said, and the board is waiting for him to act.

omplaint had been made of the unsanitary and unsightly condition of the ruins of the Scranton Street Baptist church and he had been requested by is the purpose of the examination. property owners of the vicinity to do omething to have the condition of the premises improved.

Food Inspector Cullen, in his report, spoke of the many complaints made to them for whatever they could get for him by meat dealers against the regu- them in cash, but admitted that they posure uncovered in the open air of meats intended for sale. The board instructed Mr. Cullen to enforce the regulation and arrest at once the dealers rected him to proceed at once against such persons without waiting to lay the matter before the board.

At last night's meeting President W. A. Paine M. J. Kelly, George S. Horn, W. G. O'Malley and Dr. J. K. Bentley vere present. The monthly report of Secretary R. J. Murray showed that there were 147 deaths from all causes. Twelve of these deaths were from contagious diseases. During the month 44 contagious diseases were reported. thirty-three of these cases were diphtheria. There were twenty-one marriages in the city during February and sixty-four births.

MEET AGAIN WEDNESDAY. The secretary further reported that his annual report will be completed in few days and the board decided to hold a special meeting next Wednesday evening to hear this annual report and also the annual report of the health officer, Dr. W. A. Allen, which he was requested to have ready at that time. The report of Food Inspector Cullen showed That 563 inspections of stores and markets were made by him. The number of milk tests made was 235. He condemned 118 pounds of beef, 56 pounds of year, 1.830 pounds of poultry and 98 pounds of fish. There were three violations of the regulation forblidding the hanging of means and poultry outside of markets.

D. O. Thomas, superintendent of the crematory, reported that there had been consumed 2.362 barrels of gorbage and eight animals. Twenty-six tons of coal were burned,

Bill to Be Introduced in Legislature to Prevent the Offence.

Representative Timlin, of the Fourth egislative district will introduce a bill in the house at Harrisburg next week. which is of interest to the hundreds of miners in this district as well as thousands throughout the state. It is a bill making it punishable for persons to change tickets on cars in the mines. which has been practiced for many years in the coal regions. There has never been a law on the statute books of this state relating to this offence. The text of the measure is as fol-mine car the miner's ticket bearing the name or number of said miner, attach to said car, and substituting another ticket upon which appears another name or number, for the purpose of defrauding the miner out, of money owing him for mining said coal. Section 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the com-monwealth of Pennsylvania in general asembly met, and it is hereby enacted by he authority of the same. That if any erson or persons shall wilfully take from any loaded mine car in any shaft, drift, mine or slope within this commonwealth, or standing outside of the same upon the railroad connected therewith, the min-er's ticket attached to said ear upon which shall appear the name and number of the miner, and shall substitute another ticket upon which shall appear another tention of the board in the report of Health Officer Dr. Allen, which was as follows: lergo an imprisonment for any period not exceeding two years and to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, both or either at the discretion of the court.

The bill was prepared by District Attorney John R. Jones. It can not ome under the head of larceny by ballee, robbery or embezzlement, and therefore a separate act is required to cover the crime.

TUCKER & MAXEY CASE.

Hearing in Bankruptcy Proceedings Was Begun Yesterday Before Referee

Van Wormer,

The hearing in the Tucker & Maxey bankruptcy case was begun yesterday before Referce C. A. Van Wormer, at is office in the Federal building. D. Stuart, as trustee for the estate, represented the creditors at large. Hon. John F. Reynolds, H. O. Watrous and Charles Horion, representing various of the claimants, assisted Mr. Stucomplained of to keep them in a sani- art. Hon. E. N. Willard appeared for the bankrupts.

The purpose of the hearing is to asmany harsh things said about the board certain, if possible, if there is any property other than that already in the trustee's hands that can be secured for the creditors.

Tucker & Maxey falled in November owing $33,000. Their assets consisted of book accounts to the extent of $1,800 Sanitary Officer Burke reported that and a stock which brought $900 at sheriff's sale. To find out what has become of the property represented by the difference between $33,000 and $2,760 Tucker, the senior partner, was on the stand all day. He denied that they bought goods of any character that
