THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 2.—The stock market displayed weakness and specialities in the Grangers, Pacific and specialties, practically all day with but incidental rallies. There was an appearance of support in certain stocks in the final dealings which caused a fairly steady close, although the Grangers were still under pressure. There was no news to account for the decline, except for a firmer tone to money, call rates touching 5 1/2, attributable to a call issued preliminary to the settlement between the Contra Pacific railroad and the government. During the attacks by the bears many top loss orders being uncovered, necessitated the decline. Total sales were 7,579,000 shares. The bond market today bore up remarkably well considering the pressure against stocks. Total sales, $1,565,000. United States 3s and the 5s advanced 1/8 in the bid price.
