LEAVE FOR HOME SATURDAY NEXT

THIRTEENTH ALMOST READY TO MUSTER OUT.

Last Dress Parade of the Regiment Held Yesterday Afternoon—Regiment Will Leave Camp MacKenzie Not Later Than Two O'clock Next Saturday Afternoon and Should Arrive in Scranton Between Five and Six O'clock Sunday Evening. Route Not Yet Decided Upon.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Camp MacKenzie, Augusta, Ga., March 3.—The end has come, and this afternoon Colonel Courten conducted the last regular military exercises in which the present Thirteenth will ever participate. The old guard went out in a storm of enthusiasm at half past four o'clock, the order for the final dress parade was received and when assembly was sounded everybody who could be spared fell into line just to enjoy the honor of taking part in that event which marked the close of the history of the Pennsylvania regiment. Colonel Courten simply said to the officers: "Gentlemen, remember that this is our last dress parade." The announcement had its effect and the boys made a last great effort to prove their high military training. The national and regimental colors were brought out for the first time, and as the different companies passed the reviewing officers those of the boys who were spectators applauded and cheered.

Arms to Be Turned In.

Major Pittman, of the arsenal, has announced that on Monday forenoon he will be ready to receive the guns and side arms which will then be turned in. The hospital material will be delivered over to the United States authorities tomorrow.

Captain Howe and his assistant, Lieutenant Purdy, are now busily engaged in examining for the last time those of the muster rolls which are prepared. Everything will probably be in readiness by March 11, and the last company will be mustered out about noon.

At the farthest limit the trip homeward will be begun at 2 p. m., March 11. The majority of the men have absolutely decided to go in a body, but the road has not yet been selected. The choice lies between the Southern and the Atlantic Coast line.

Your correspondent interviewed Colonel Courten this evening in regard to this. He states that it is not yet possible to decide by what route the men will go, but it is almost certain that the regiment will leave here in a body Saturday afternoon and will reach Scranton Sunday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock. He considers the question of the route immaterial and impossible to give at this date.

Outdoing One Another.

The railroads are outdoing one another in offers to the men. This is how the question stands now.

The division and the brigade headquarters will be formally abolished tomorrow. A praiseworthy act of clemency has brought joy to the hearts of fifty-six members of the Fifteenth Minnesota, who took part in the riot of last month, as the regiment is soon to be mustered out. The division commander has ordered all to be released, excepting the ring leaders. The weather is very warm, and there will be little sleep under canvas tonight.

THE YOUNG MOTHER

devotes herself to her first child as she never does to another. As child succeeds child she no longer reads their stories, tells them tales at twilight or joins with them in a merry romp at bed time. Does she give her later children less because she loves them less? No, it is because she has less to give. The birth of each child has left her a little more nervous, a little more worn out. She hasn't strength to be their intimate and playmate. What a loss this means to mother and to children.

mothers, worn with the burden of motherhood and drained of vitality, that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription comes as the greatest of blessings. The timely use of this remedy prevents the strain and stops the drain from child bearing. Where this strain and drain have been experienced, mothers find that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acting directly upon the delicate organs which bear the burden of motherhood, restores them to a normal condition of health and elasticity. Ulcerations are cured, inflammations are removed. The appetite becomes good, sleep is refreshing, the nerves grow quiet. There is a new brightness in the eye; a new lightness in the step. There has come the perfect happiness of perfect health.

"I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' in August, 1897," writes Mrs. Mollie E. Grimes, of Pleasanton, Secombe Co., Ala. "and took it until after my baby was born. I was in better health than I ever was with any of my other children. I think all women with child should use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I suffered everything that flesh could suffer with all the rest of my children, and I was also subject to miscarriage. Now I am the happy mother of a fine baby girl. She was the largest one of all my babies and at the birth I had an easier and shorter time than I ever had. I am sweeter and healthier than I ever was."

LANGSTAFF IN ANOTHER CONTEST

a permanent secretary in order. Mr. Dickert nominated C. J. Gillespie, Mr. Murphy proposed that Mr. Dickert was not yet a member of the board, his certificate not having been accepted. Dr. Paine contended that Mr. Dickert was a member, having duly presented his certificate. Mr. Langstaff said the certificate must first be accepted. Dr. Paine moved that Mr. Dickert's certificate be accepted. Mr. Brooks put the motion and it prevailed without opposition.

GILLESPIE CHOSEN.

Mr. Dickert again nominated Mr. Gillespie for secretary and Mr. Brooks directed Secretary Langstaff to call the roll. His father nodded to him not to call the roll and he remained silent. At this juncture Dr. Paine was chosen as temporary secretary and he proceeded with the roll call. To the surprise of the onlookers, Mr. Langstaff responded to the call and voted for Mr. Gillespie. All the others followed suit.

As soon as Mr. Gillespie was installed "President" Langstaff declared "nominations are now in order for treasurer."

Mr. Brooks echoed "nominations are now in order for treasurer."

Dr. Paine nominated E. M. Vernoy and he was unanimously chosen, both factions voting.

"We are now ready to hear nominations for collector," said Mr. Brooks.

"Nominations for collector are now in order," said Mr. Langstaff.

Mr. Murphy nominated George Mitchell. Mr. Shotton nominated Edward Farr. The use of Mr. Mitchell's name was not authorized and was done without the knowledge of that gentleman.

Dr. Paine called the roll and Messrs. Langstaff, Fuller and Murphy voted for Mr. Mitchell, and Messrs. Brooks, Shotton, Paine and Dickert for Mr. Farr.

Mr. Brooks declared Mr. Farr elected treasurer. Mr. Langstaff didn't say anything.

NOT IN THE RACE.

Mr. Langstaff was not in the race from this out. He moved to close the nominations after Mr. Dickert had named John F. Scragg for solicitor, thereby acknowledging Mr. Brooks as the presiding officer. Mr. Scragg was unanimously elected.

An outdoor physicians, Dr. Herman Bessey was selected for the North End in place of Dr. William Dunne; M. J. Williams was re-elected for the West Side; Dr. M. H. Quinn was given the South Side place, instead of Dr. A. J. Kolb; Dr. P. F. Gunster was re-elected for the central city.

When the election of a Dunmore doctor was reached Mr. Brooks stated that it was customary to allow the director from Dunmore to make this choice, and nodded to Director Murphy that it was up to him. Mr. Murphy caused a ripple of surprise to run through the room by nominating Dr. J. D. Garvey, to take the place of Dr. J. R. Murphy, the present incumbent, who is looked upon by the board as one of the most efficient outdoor physicians it ever employed. Dr. Murphy was present and showed the surprise of the other spectators.

Dr. Paine thought Mr. Murphy's act somewhat ungracious and placed Dr. Murphy's name in nomination. Mr. Shotton, Mr. Brooks and Dr. Paine consulted in whispers for a few moments and then Dr. Paine withdrew the name of Dr. Murphy, saying: "Let the Dunmore director do the appointing, we're satisfied." Dr. Garvey was, like the rest, the recipient of seven votes.

ACTION POSTPONED.

On motion of Dr. Paine the election of a superintendent, matron and resident physician at Hillside Home was put off until the next meeting. Messrs. Langstaff, Fuller and Murphy voted against postponement.

Mr. Gillespie, the new secretary, was brought in by Mr. Shotton at this juncture and motioned to take a place at the secretary's desk. The retiring secretary made a way for him, but during the remainder of the meeting stood by assisting his successor in a very courteous and amiable way.

The elder Langstaff, however, kept his place on the president's platform. By instruction of Mr. Brooks, Secretary Gillespie read the minutes of the meetings of Feb. 2, which the Langstaff people neglected to read when they pulled off their snap reorganization on Feb. 17. These were approved without comment.

Then the minutes of the meeting of Feb. 17 were read. Mr. Shotton moved that they be expunged from the records. The motion prevailed by the same four-to-three vote that marked the previous divisions.

Mr. Brooks then called for the regular order of business. The new member, Mr. Dickert, made himself very useful, translating the plaints of the Polish and German applicants for relief. He also made a very favorable impression generally.

A dozen women, most of them widows, and two aged men applied for relief. Mrs. Duggan, of the Associated Charities, appeared in the interests of three small children, whose father, John Burns, of Dunmore, ran away three years ago, and whose mother followed the father's example three weeks ago. They were committed to the care of St. Patrick's orphanage.

IS AN IMPOSTOR.

Dr. Paine reported that Mrs. Paul Adamanski, of Barberstown, had imposed upon him for three orders for groceries, by representing that she was a resident of the West Side and very poor. The secretary was instructed to charge up the amount of the orders to the Taylor poor district and give them notice to remove Mrs. Adamanski from this district within five days, as the law provides. The woman's husband is in the Luzerne jail for breaking into Lehigh Valley freight cars at Pittston Junction. He is the man who informed on Ignatz Rosmozvitch for the Brakeman Howell murder and then went back on his story before the grand jury.

Just before adjourning a vote of thanks for efficient service was tendered the retiring secretary on motion of Mr. Shotton. Mr. Langstaff, Jr., returned thanks for the same and for the "kind treatment extended to me by the board."

The deposed chairman, Mr. Langstaff, stated to a Tribune reporter after the meeting that he will take the matter into the courts. The result of his two election contests will be watched with interest.

MAY YET BE CLEARED.

Detective Baring Obtained from Burglar Gleason, Who Died in Lackawanna Hospital, a Good Start on Corcoran Case.

Detective Herman Baring has a good start on the unravelling of the Corcoran murder mystery and if given assistance and practical encouragement by the authorities of Luzerne county he believes he can land the murderers behind the bars.

When John Gleason, who was shot by Postmaster Hauser at Delaware Water Gap, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, John Gilroy, clerk at the Pullman house, in Durycor, was brought to this county and identified Gleason as one of the suspicious men who paid two visits to Durycor before the Corcoran murder.

Two men came to the Pullman house three weeks before the murder and spent Saturday and Sunday. They made arrangements to return two weeks from that Sunday, and said they would have two other men with them. They arranged for accommodations for a week for the four. On the day specified the men arrived and registered at the Pullman house. They visited a number of places in Durycor during the day. One of them was Corcoran's hotel.

Sunday night the men suddenly left the Pullman house and the next night the office of the Danville Brewing company at Danville was entered by masked men who bound the watchman and blew open the safe.

The next night Davenport's store was visited by four men, and on Friday night of that week Corcoran's hotel was visited and the proprietor killed.

After Gleason had been identified by Gilroy, Detective Baring had a talk with the wounded man, and secured a statement about his connection with the Corcoran affair. He did not learn the names of the other men in the job, but with the information gained through the knowledge that Gleason was one of them they can be located.

Though Gleason knew he was going to die he would not betray his pals. There is hope that the Corcoran mystery may yet be cleared.

"In Union There is Strength."

The strength of every human being consists in the union, the harmonious working together, of every part of the human organism. This strength can never be obtained if the blood is impure. The blood goes to all parts. Purify it, or there can be no health or "strength."

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard prescription for purification of the blood. It never disappoints.

Eczema—"My daughter had eczema and it affected her eyes. The doctor said it was incurable. Her skin is now smooth and white and all on account of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken it for weakness and can now walk three or four miles easily." Mrs. E. A. HENRY, Sank Centre, Minn.

Sick Headache—"For years I tried different medicines for my sick headaches. Found no relief until I used Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is marvelous in its cures." Mrs. HENRY MILLER, Dankirk, N. Y.

Indigestion—"Hood's Sarsaparilla stands high in our family as the cure for indigestion and loss of appetite. It is excellent." Mrs. W. H. CUSHMAN, 119 E. Chestnut Street, Waltham, Mass.

Scrofula—"After 20 years of suffering with a cancerous sore on my neck, I am happy for being completely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It took 11 bottles to accomplish it. Her face is smooth, no scar." Miss E. A. STOKES, Epping, N. H.

"The statement of my daughter is exact." JOSEPH STOKES, Epping, N. H.

Crip—"Was in very bad condition after an attack of grip. Nothing helped me and I almost gave up hope. I am strong and feel better now than in twenty years, all because I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made my blood rich and pure." JOHN O. DUNBAR, 619 Russell Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

Rheumatism—"Inflammatory rheumatism caused me suffering so that I could not sleep or walk. Had no appetite and I became almost helpless. Finally used Hood's Sarsaparilla, with took away all my pain." Mrs. STRELA NOANS, Marion, Ohio.
