THE GREATEST MONTH FOR TRADE

FEBRUARY HAS PASSED ALL RECORDS IN BUSINESS LINE.

In All the Years of Weekly Commercial Reporting There Has Been No Other Week Showing Returns Equalling the Past Six Days. Rapid Advance in Prices-Progress in Industries.

New York, March 3,-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow: The business for the past month was far the greatest ever known in February. Clearing house exchanges were about $7,000,000,000 against $1,597,553.844 last year and 54.2 larger than in 1892. In all the years of weekly commercial reporting there has been no other week which the reports from all parts of the country have been on the whole so good as they are this week. Moreover, during the past week there has been a general advance in wages, immediate or prospective. At most points the advance of 10 per cent, or more was entirely voluntary. It has averaged 5 to 10 per cent, in tin plate works and about 10 per cent, in other cases, and as it affects much over 100,000 bands it will add greatly to the purchasing power of the wage earners.

The returns of failures in February, while showing larger liabilities than in January, are highly encouraging. rather unusual number of large failures in scattered branches of manufacture has swelled the aggregate, including one concern for $1,000,000 in electrical apparatus, but in nearly all branches the statement indicates a remarkably healthy condition in spite of these failures, while in trading the defaulted liabilities are smaller than in January or any previous winter months for six years

In prices the striking feature has been the rapid advance in Iron and steel products, resulting from a demand greater than the works in the country can supply. All works of importance have been crowding with orders running to July 1 or later. But belated buyers have given life to concerns long inactive and as these can add but little to the output the markets have been entirely controlled by the buying de-

IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

"A Fool's Revenge."

Creston Clarke and an excellent company opened their engagement at the Lyceum last night in the powerful drama, "A Fool's Revenge." This company possesses exceptional interest to Scranton people, as Harry W. Storm is its manager, while a talented member, who was also with Mr. Clarke last season, is P. S. Barrett, of this city. The role assumed by Mr. Clarke last evening is most ungracious and repellant in character, but affords fine ope for his abilities as a tragedian. roles did not pale in these days of edy, he would reach his true place in that higher realm, where he would have Gibney-Hoeffler Company.

The Gibney-Hoeffler company, which will open a week's engagement at the Academy next Monday, comes from a successful engagement at Elmira, where it has been doing a "standing room only" business at every performance. The performances as presented by this company are on the continuous order, specialties being introduced between each act. Among the vaudeville people who will be seen with this company are DeHollis and Valori, comedy jugglers, from Koster and Blal's New York: the Barlows late of McSorly's Twins company: Mack and Fenton, Billy Stanford, German comedian and wooden shoe dancer; Lafe McKee, in illustrated songs; O. M. Cotton, Fred Godding, Frank Howard, the Gibney quartette and others. The opening bill on Monday wil be "Angie, the Country Girl." Ladies' half tickets ere offered for Monday night. Daily dime matinees will begin on Tuesday.

Rider's Burlesquers. Fred Rider's Moulin Rouge show is not composed, like too many burlesque entertainments of the present day, of a slow tiresome farce and a few cheap July specialties. Every line in the burlesque is amusing, every specialty is highclass and expensive and every performer, whether burlesque or specialty, is an artiste of recognized worth and merit. Much of the enjoyment of the comedy is due to the efforts of the omedians, Charles Harris, Cooper and Stewart and Monte Collins, The Moulin Rouge comes to the Gajety for three days, commencing Monday matinee.

"A Stranger in New York." Next Tuesday evening at the Lyceum theatre Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York" which created such a favorable impression when last presented here, will return fresh from its triumphant visit to London, England, where it was presented at the Duke of York's Thea-

Since the "Stranger" was last presented here Mr. Hoyt has added a lot of new scenes, much catchy music, novel and sensational vaudeville features stunning costumes and elaborate stage accessories that are spoken of as being the most extravagant he has ever bestowed upon any of his productions. No better selection could have been made for the title role than John D. Gilbert, a comedian who is foremost, and can be truthfully said to be the pinnacle of all fun makers. Others in the cast are Tom Martin, Sam Martin, John Mitchell, Edmond Elton, the Mc-Coy sisters, Charlotte Stolle, Alice Holbrook, Amy Muller and several others.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, March 3.-Stock dealings ere in moderate volume today, which induced sharp net gains generally, with a firm tone prevailing at the close Mr. Clarke should really be in the legit-femate drama and if Shakespearean day continued but a short time this The realizing which appeared yestermorning and the market quieted down vaudeville and often coarse farce com- with an appearance in many stocks of a hardening tendency. Traders were inclined to cover to some extent on a brilliant, sympathetic second in the the appearance of some so-called good buying which encouraged endeavors Mr. Clarke's interpretation of the for the long account. While there was "Fool" was powerful to a degree that a little activity on the part of the comrought his audience to the highest mission houses, the bulk of the day's pitch. The malevolence of a medieval operations appeared to be professional.

Some irregularity occurred in today's the intensity of which the well known bond market which, however, did not actor is capable. Miss Prince was a Impair the general undertone of firm-grace and sweetness are especially suited to the girlish part. Mr. George Parker's "poet" was exceeding well portrayed and Mr. Walter Percival has certainly found his vocation in the role of the villain, whose villainy is so deep as to make one shudder.

Miss Alice Yale gave an effective impersonation of the wronged duchess. Mr. Forrester did his bit of comedy work with Mrs. Carter's "Brigitta" specialise showed evidences of shoot contracts. Mr. Forrester did his bit of comedy work with mrs. Carter's "Brigitta" specialise showed evidences of shoot contracts. There was very heavy covering in Atchison Preferred and Burlington and quincy General Electric and some of the other specialise showed evidences of inside supportant than those to be produced this afternoon and evening, but it was eleverity taken. The others who were uniformly good were Messars. John Carter, J. J. Sambrook, Gustrav Chutts and Miss Ina Brooks. This afternoon the strong Russian play. "The Last of His Race." will be presented. The bill for this evening is "David Garrick."
