A Lively Fire in Coxton-Death of Jane Curl-The Very Latest News In and About the City.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the barn attached to the Albright house at Coxton went up in a blaze, and so sudden did this happen that those around the premises could do nothing to save the building. There were many fixtures and other articles in the place, including hay, outs and vehicles of every description, beardes several horses and cattle; but the latter were quickly removed. The balance, with the building, were reduced to ashes. This was not the only difficulty to overcome. The flames from the burning building communicated with the hotel, and for some time the united force of those in the vicinity and the Coxton shot hands, made a valiant fight to save a valuable property. This was accomplished, and thanks to a bucket brigade, the Coxton hotel is there today. The cause of the fire is divided between a pair of opinions. Two mysterious people were seen around the premises before the fire occurred, and it is possible that a very incly spark from a passing engine may have done the mischief. At any rate, there is a damage of one thousand dolhers and the bare is out of sight.

P. J. Mayock, a genial citizen from Miner's Mills, which we are informed is beenled this side of the county seat. and officen members of the Gus Hill Extravaganza company were collect ively under the protection of the Wy oming Valley house last evening. Jamer Newcomb went up to Carbondale last evening for the first time. It is probable he will say something about his experience in the Anthracite city if he requires.

The builders of this vicinity and others interested in that business were very weigh astonished yesterday mornno to see several carpenters, armed with the usual tools are reach a one story bullding on Mair street, and inside of an hour cur the front off. The sight was an arrusing one from the faci that the tenant who had a stock of miscellaneous goods to dispose of did not mind this disturbance a little He kept the sawdust from his goods, while an admiring throng gathered, but before the next hour was up a new front was on the shanty and the gater was several feet longer, by locating the improvement closer to the sidewalk. This means that the sidewalk at that particular point is not so wide as it was yesterday morning. If these kind of improvements continue p new opera nouse will be one of the possibilities at some remote time. Dr. Troxell is recovering from his tate indisposition. At the residence of Mrs. Margaret Bryden on Nafer street on Sunday last, after an illness of several months, occurred the death of Miss Jane Curl. at the age of 69 years. The deceased was born in Rothsay, Scotland, and was a member of a prominent family in that romantic and interesting town She spent the best portion of her life as a professional nurse and before coming to this country was employed by one distinguished family for twenty years, and the latter, who were constantly traveling. She had seen all that was worth seeing in the old world. She was gentle and kind, has done many deeds of charity in a humble way and has gone to a well-carned rest. Her sister, Mrs. Bryden, has the sympathy of many in this, her latest affliction. The funeral will take place this afternoon at two o'clock, with serat the home on Nafus street

"Angie, the Country Girl."

The Gibneys opened a weeks' engagement at the Academy of Music last night with a very satisfactory production of "Angle, the Country Girl," a modern version of "Only a Farmer's Daughter," in which Minnie Madern Fiske first came prominently into pubhe notice. Miss Nellie Gibney in the title role and Morgan Gibney in the eccentric character of Phineas Putnam, the farmer, proved themselves exceptionally clever artists.

The Hoeffler stock company, which forms the support, is quite capable. Specialties of a high grade are introduced between the acts.

This afternoon "Her Husband's Sin" will be produced and this evening the bill will be the "Black Flag."

Moulin Rouge Burlesquers.

There is no question that Fred Rider's Moulin Rouge Extravaganza company now at the Galety theater is one of the best burlesque organizations on the road. The features of the performances given yesterday were up to date from beginning to end and there was scarcely a dull number on the program. The opening sketch, entitled "A Fountain of Pleasure," sparkled with wit, funny situations and bright music But the specialty turns probably brought out the originality of the artists to best advantage. Wills and Collins, in their operatic burlesque; the two Fantas, acrobats and boxers, and their educated plg, and Harris and Walters, sketch artists, created an unusual amount of interest. The prem lers of terpsichore, the Maccar' sisters. gave an artistic exhibtion of the genuine article in old time ballet dancing. which is seldom seen in this age of high kicking, and the other dances arranged by Mile. Ceurbo were very pleasing. The entertainment increased in interest and merit from the opening until the ribbons of the Moulin Rouge dancers were thrown out at the audience just before the fall of the curtain. The Moulin Rouge company will be at the Galety today and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

"A Stranger in New York."

To "A Stranger in New York" be ongs the distinction of playing to larger and more enthusiastic audiences last season than any of the other Hoyt comedies. Its presentation everywhere the "standing room only" sign has been used at nearly every performance. The cast this season includes John D. Gilbert, Tom Martin, Sam Marion, John Mitchell, Edmund Elton, H. J. West, Charles Church, and among the pretty comen are Alice Holbrook, Charlotte Stolle, the McCoy Sisters (the wonderful dancers), Bertha Boardman, Amy Muller and several others, "A Stranger in New York" will return to the Lyeum this evening, and Mr. Hoyt promises that the piece will come to us this time even better and brighter than

"Sunshine of Paradise Alley."

The return visit of Denman Thompon's "The Sunshine of Paradise Alley" takes place at the Lyceum next Friday evening, March 10. The success of "The Sunshine of Paradise Alley" is due wholly to its naturalness and simplicity. They enthrall one. It is not a story of slum life, but a story of the poor, and it is as clean as a whistle. Mr. Thompson has done for humble life in New York what he was the first to do for rural life, and he has imbued his latest stage pictures with the same sort of charm which has made his "Old 11. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

By Associated Press. New York, March 7 .- Prices dropped steadily today on somewhat restricted dealings, each rally affording the bears another level from which to attack prices. With some exceptions leading shares opened below Saturday's close. Speculation was purely professional and much was made of the firmness of money which at one time touched 31/2c. for call loans, at which price it closed. "The best authorities" were quoted as terming the money flurry as only a "dash in the pan." The improvement in demand for money in the dry goods and other lines of trade together with the preparations to finance the Central Pacific settlement with the government, the Chicago and Alton deal and some industrial combinations were responsible for the improved tone. The anthracite coal shares which were strong in the early dealings eased off sympathetically with the general market except for Delaware, Lackawanna and Western which in the final dealings ran up over eight points to 1621/2. Sugar was rather steady most of the day on the advance in refined article, but fell oft in the late dealings. Some realizing appeared in American Tobacco which broke some 5 points after an initial rise. The Grangers were inclined to heaviness, with Burlington, making a net loss of 2%. Most stocks showed considerable losses and the closing was weak. Total sales were 563,400 shares, Today's bond tracing was at the expense of values, many of the active issues giving way smartly. Total sales were $3,120,000 United States old 4s registered deelined 14 in the bid price.

New York, March 6.—The market opened active and irregular with coal stocks the leading feature. Rdg. com. and first and second preferred advanced ½ to 1 per cent, with large transactions, Ontario and Western and Jersey Central sympathizing with the movement. The buying was stributed to Morgan interests. Steel and wire, both common and preferred, very strong on the opening dealings advancing sharply about 1 per cent., which was subsequently lost on execution of profit taking orders. After opening London and Commission Houses were free sellers and the whole list reacted. B. Q. and Atch. being chief sufferers. London sold about 10,000 shares, chiefly Atchison, C. & O. and O. & W. On the decline some support was given at first but seemed to be withdrawn and commission houses seemed to be fairly large sellers. There was some evidence of buying and the street seemed be fairly large sellers. There was some dence of buying and the street seemed think that Standard Oil and Flout to think that Standard Oil and Flour Brokers took their specialties on the weakness of the market. The bank statement on Saturday has been followed by the general belief that money is inclined to work closer and that this view is borne out to a certain extent by the action of the bank and trust companies in New York, the largest of which today advanced rates over 1 per cent, on standing loans. There is enough uneasiness caused by the situation to make us believe any decided upward movement is unlikely at the present time. The public at large are quite as well educated as the average professional on the last attempt to get them in to the market was semewhat of a failure. The pools and interests which have been working for higher prices, are beginning to find this out, and while at the present time the market is likely to be supported against any heavy selling pressure, yet it is not probable a sustained advance throughout the whole list will be undertaken in the face of evident disposition of speculators to take profits on all bulges. During the early afternoon the market was very dull with apparently no attempt by leaders to take profits on all bulges. During the early afternoon the market was very dull with apparently no attempt by leaders to take profits on all bulges. During the early afternoon the market was very dull with apparently no attempt by leaders to take profits on all bulges. During the early afternoon the market was very dull with apparently no attempt by leaders to take profits on part of outsiders to take hold. We are inclined to think there may be some rally from present prices, but would advise sales on any pronounced bulge. The market could safely bought, however, on weak spots.
