Three members of the board of trade, omprising a special committee, will go to Bridgeport, Conn., today to confer with Joseph Keller, a large planc manufacturer, on the subject of locating a factory in this city.

Secretary Atherton yesterday received a letter from L. K. Torbet, of Chicago, offering to locate a tin plate factory here. With $150,000 capital, he says, it will be possible to put up a first class six mill plant and provide a reasonable amount of working capital. Tin plate is now paying all the way from twenty-five per cent, to thirty-five per cent, profit. The matter will se submitted to the manufacturers' committee.

Dougherty Lads and Their Father Placed on Their Good Conduct.

Michael Dougherty, of Emmet street, and his sons. Willie, aged 12 years, and Dichard 4 years vounger arranged before Alderman Millar Wednesday morning. The father was charged with neglect and inhuman treatment of his children and the boys vere charged with vagrancy. Assoclated Charities Agent Mrs. W. B. Duggan appeared as prosecutrix. Much has been written about thes two striplings who nightly hang around saloons doing a tumbling act for pennies. When ordered home they would cry and say their father would whip them if they did not bring home so much money, Agent Duggan intends to break up the business and the arrests followed.

Yesterday the father stated that he was unaware of what the boys were doing. They, however, said that they gave all the money to him and he used it. Mrs. Dougherty cried for her husband and her sons, and Alderman Millar paroled the three for one week to see if they would keep their promise to quit the business.

CHARGED WITH OPENING LETTERS

MR. BOGERT, WILKES-BARRE'S POSTMASTER, ARRESTED.

Secret Service Officers Found Him at Midnight with Letters Addressed to Prominent Wilkes-Barreans Open Before Him on the Desk-Given a Hearing Before the United States Commissioner and Held in $4,000 Bail for His Appearance at Court.

Edward F. Bogert, postmaster of Wilkes-Barre, was arrested at midnight Wednesday, charged with tampering with the United States mails.

About two months ago several comclaints were lodged with the postal authorities at Washington that mail was disappearing or that which they received bore evidence of having been opened by a steaming process. The postal authorities subsequently detailed two secret service men on the case under order of Inspector Gorman. Wednesday night, after the mail from Baltimore and Washington had been distributed, Bogert entered the office and was seen to take several letters from the boxes and then go into his private office and carefully draw down a curtain. A few minutes later a detective, who was acting as clerk, turned on an electric light in the rear end of the office, this being a signal to two other secret service men who were sta-

The man on the inside carefully admitted his associates, one of whom was Inspector Gorman. The two men went at once to Bogert's private office and without the ecremony of knocking, entered and there found the postmaster seated at his dosk, on which lay three letters addressed to prominent business men of Wilkes-Barre and all of them

HE WAS SURPRISED. The postmuster was surprised and ot a little excited for a few moments, but soon recovered his composure. He was later escorted to his home by secret service men, where a warrant for his arrest was subsequently served. He was taken before United States Commissioner Gustav Hahn, where he gave ball in $4,000 for his appearance later. Mr. Bogert, besides being the editor of the Evening Leader of Wilkes-Barre, is a member of a large number of odges and for the past ten or twelve years has been an active member of the base ball association. He is a brother of the late Joseph K. Bogert, who was prominent in Democratic county and state politics and at the time of his death was postmaster. The news of the arrest created a big sensation, especially in political H. B. Gregory, one of the postoffice nspectors from Washington who helped make the arrest, stated to a reporter that he came here from Washington on Monday morning and had been at work on the case ever since. Frequent complaints had been made to the postal authorities at Washington as to irregularities in the Wilkes-Barre office and Mr. Gregory said a thorough investigation had shown that the allegations made were true.

Mr. Gregory would not divulge the ames of those who made the complaints, but did not hesitate to say that the evidence was ample to cause the arrest and establish the proof of the harges made. Deputy Gorman is in charge of the postoffice for the present

WHAT HIS PAPER SAYS. Postmaster Bogert would not be inerviewed, but in his paper, the Evening Leader, tonight appeared the folowing:

"There are always two sides to question and when there are three or four fellows, and one or two in paricular, clamoring for a political offic and hungry for the emoluments at tached thereto, there are sure to b schemes worked and plans formed to entrap the incumbent, cause his re moval and punish him otherwise, even if nothing further than the annoyance and chagrin that accomplishment of their devilish underhand work imposes When the diabolical schemers are fully shown up and their nefarious trickery exposed, there is a question as to which side will furnish the raciest reading." The inference to be drawn from the thove is that Bogert imagined himself the victim of a conspiracy to oust him from the postmastership and in order to discover the conspirators he opened letters addressed to Republican poli-

Detective Moir being assigned the case made short work of it. He located the lead "junk" shop of which Charles Wartosky, of 421 Oakford court, is proming avenue.

Wartosky said that he had purchased the lead from George Smith and William Magill Sunday night. All three were arrested. Wartosky was charged with receiving stolen goods and the two lads were charged with the theft They were given a hearing before A' derman Millar Wednesday night, Chief of Police Gurrell appearing as prosecutor. Wartosky was held in $300 ball for lus appearance at court on the charge against him, and George Smith was held in the same amount on the charge larceny. Young Magill was discharged upon his promise that he would appear before the grand jury as a witness against Wartosky.

Smith and Magill admitted their gu lt and said that Wartosky had "coache I" them. He denied this, and said the boys had told him they picked the lead up on the dump. There was afty pounds of it and the boys got a dollar for it.

Smith is said to be an incorrigible lad and his parents refuse to take him, preferring to have him sent to the reformatory. He is only it years old and his home is in Dodgetown. Magill is 13 years of age.

Connell Military Bill Endorsed by Dallas Board of Trade.

From way down in Texas comes the first announcement of favora...e action by a board of trade on the Connell National Militia bill. It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Scranton board of trade Secretary Atherton was instructed to communicate with the boards of trade throughout the country asking their co-operation in effecting the enactment of the bill. Yesterday the following was received by Secretary Atherton: DALLAS COMMERCIAL CLUB. Dallas, Texas, March 3, 1899.

n behalf of its passage. Yours truly, S. A. Fishburn, Secretary.

A number of other letters have been eceived announcing that the matter is before the board, and that favorable action on it is expected. COUNTERFEIT DOLLARS.

One coin may have a perfect edge and a depressed face, or vice versa. Again the figure 8 on some is rather wide. The dates are 1878, 1882 and 1884.

WORK ON NEW BRANCH ROAD BEGUN YESTERDAY.

It Will Be Four and One-Half Miles Long and Will Extend from Dickson City to the Capouse Colliery Keyser Vailey - Another Branch Will Connect with the Pine Brook Colliery and a New Washery Which the Carbon Coal Company Is About to Build.

That the Ontario and Western company proposes to make itself an important factor in the Lackawanna Valley coal business is strongly evidenced the improvement and extensive plans it now has under way. These comprise a branch railroad to the top of Keyser Valley, another to reach the Pine Brook colliery and a long switch to connect with a new culm washery of immense proportions which is soon to be crected near the old base ball park to become a feeder to its already extensive and growing coal business.

Work on the Keyser Valley road was ommenced yesterday at noon, under witnesses were examined resterday in the direction of Civil Engineer Frank G. Wolfe and Roadmaster Whitlock. It starts from the main line of the Ontario and Western at Dickson City, just south of the public road, near the public school house. Passing bebetween the two culm dumps, it crosses over Providence road, at grade, between Richmond's store and Storr's breaker and then swings around the rear of Richmond Hill farm on through the Genet farm and West tract, north Jesse Avery, J E. Bogart, David of Leggett's Creek breaker, thence Evans, Charles Salmon, John Salmon, across Gilbert street, between Durkin across Gilbert street, between Durkin and Rockwell streets, curving to the west through the waste lands in that part of the city and then taking a course through the property of James Ryne is skirts the high bank above Leggett's creek, crossing the creek at Pawnee street with square beam trestling 400 feet long and forty feet high,

THROUGH KEYSER VALLEY. Crossing West Market street at grade near Pawnee street, the road extends through the lands of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company to the big fill, north of the Cayuga breaker, parallelling Keyser avenue until it crosses under the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western main line through a stone arch culvert, just above the little mire settlement on the western side of Keyser avenue at the High Works. It approaches the Keyser Valley branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road at the brick yard and parallells it from this point to the Capouse colliery, which is its present terminus.

It would not be surprising if the road was continued on through Keyser Valley to Rendham, offering a new outlet for the independent Jermyn, Sibley and Austin collieries. This extension would also help solve the question of securing a Lackawanna valley entrance for the Pennsylvania company, which has been puzzling that company for the last decade or more.

Burke Bros, will build the big culvert at the high works and lay the foundation for the trestle. The road will be four and one-half miles in length and will require four months in building. Two hundred laborers will be put to work on it at once.

THE OTHER EXTENSIONS. The branch road for the Pine Brook colliery will follow the route Diamond branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road across the white bridge near the Stowers Packing house. The switch for the culm washery will connect with this branch near the eastern end of the bridge.

Work on the culm washery is to be pushed through with all possible speed, It is to be located in the field on the eastern side of the Delaware and Hudson read, just north of the steel rail bridge which extends over the Delaware and Hudson tracks north of Carbon street.

It will have a capacity of 525 tons a lay and will get its culm supply from the Pine Brook and old Fairlawn dumps. The washery will be operated by the Carbon Coal company, a new concern, of which William Richmond, of Green Ridge, is president.
