BILL AGAINST COUNTY.

Councils Want $110 for Rooms Used for Election Contests Hearings.

Several council held a special meeting last evening and Mr. Thompson introduced a resolution directing that a bill for $110 be sent to the county commissioners on account of the Langstaff-Kelly election contest.

Two petitions were received from residents of Fallbrook street. One asks for two fire hydrants and the other for two are street lamps.

Council adopted a resolution introduced by Mr. Switzer instructing the joint water committee to wait on the officers of the Crystal Lake Water company and ascertain how much they will charge the city for water for an unlimited number of fire hydrants.

The ordinance reducing the city engineer's salary from $1,200 to $700 passed final reading.

The telephone franchise ordinance passed the first two readings.

The city clerk was instructed to advertise for two more trunks.

The building committee recommended that $500 be paid ex-postmaster Nealon for the furnishings which Postmaster Thomas "needs in his business."

The body adjourned to meet Monday night.
