SUDDEN DEATHS.

One Accompanied by Exceptionally Sad Circumstances.

Mrs. Robert Swan, of Canaan street, died Sunday of internal hemorrhage She had been confined to her bed a few days and her last hours were filled with the hope that she might live to see her son, Charles, who returned yes terday with the Thirtcenth regiment. She was born in Canaan forty-one years ago and has resided in this city just three weeks, having moved here from No. 7. She was a member of the Methodist church of Waymart. Mrs. Swan is survived by a husband, three sons, Charles, Harry and Albert, and two daughters, Nellie, of this city, and Mrs, William Hulister, of Philadelphia. The funeral will be held at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon. Services will be held in the church at Waymart and interment made in the Canaan cemetery. Mrs. Mary P. Walker became ill while on her way home to Bushwick from St. Rose's church. She was carried into Chief McAndrew's house, where she died of heart failure. She was seventy years old and the exertion of the long walk is supposed to have brought on the fatal attack. Her survivors are three daughters, Mrs Michaed Reirdon, Mrs. John Linnen and Mrs. Thomas Collins, and six sons, Joseph. George Thomas, John, James, Frank and Patrick, all of whom live in this city. Three sisters also sur-They are Mrs. Elizabeth vive her. #### COUNCILS MEET.

Approve Bills Aggregating $2.000. Ordinances Considered.

Select council met last evening and unanimously passed the telephone ordinance on final reading. By a similar vote the ordinance granting a franchise to the steam heat and power company was passed on two readings. Insurance was awarded as previously announced and a transfer of $110 made to meet the next premiums. A peti-tion for an are light was received from residents of Robinson street.

Common council disposed of a raft of concurrent business and passed a resolution instructing the city engineer to furnish councils with an estimate of the cost of connocting North and South Eirkett street. The Terrace street sidewall: orditance was tabled. The ordinance reducing the city engineer's salary was referred to the finance committee for a peaceful death.
