The bonds of Street Commissioner Dennis McEade and Treasurer August Wahler were read and accepted. The bond of Michael Lauman for high constable was referred to the judiciary committee in conjunction with the borough attorney. The committee on rules and printing was instructed to have a new lot of books printed with the various committees just appointed in them and to include the old rules and regulations.

The street commissioner was instructed to repair Webster avenue, at the foot of Brook street, which is at present in a dilapidated condition, and to drain the street of waste water if possible. The reports of Street Commissioner George H. Jackson and Secretary William Jeffrey were read and approved.

The matter of placing fire alarm boxes at William street and Prescott avenue, Larch street, in the vicinity of the stove works, and at Sport Hill was laid over until a future meeting. Adjourned to meet at the regular meeting.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JEFFREY.

A large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Benjamin Jeffrey, which was held yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted at the Adams avenue chapel and were in charge of the Rev. James Dunn of Forest City. He paid a worthy tribute to the memory of the deceased.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Dunmore cemetery, by funeral director T. C. Letchworth, where interment was made.

Easter Frocks

We'll endeavor to tell you about them, but the best way is to come and see them.

The new comers have been arriving daily for weeks past. You will notice particularly that the gowns you see here are not to be seen elsewhere. That feature of exclusiveness we push very far—farther than any one else we know of. We get first pick usually, and use the privilege mercilessly. The results are shown in the collection.

The Fashion—present for us, and future for you—discloses some smart gowns, the certain finishes and lesser details of which will mark them in the eyes of the sophisticated, as being "all right."

"Swell" is to common a word for such supreme and dainty elegance.

Venetian Cloths, French Poplins, French Broadcloths, Covert Mixture, Cheviot Serges are leaders in this season's fabrics. Used last season? Oh yes, but even more popular this, and improved in appearance and colorings.

But there is no bond of sympathy between last Spring's and this Spring's styles—there is a radical departure. The overskirt is a prominent feature. It may be only a sham (for the purpose of reducing weight), but the overskirt effect must be there.

One Style

Shown by us, called the "Tunic," of Venetian Cloth—silk lined throughout—has full flounced skirt with over drapery, opening in front, with lapping at waist. The jacket—an Eton—has Modest collar with wide revers, silk faced and trimmed with appliques and embroidery. The overskirt trimmed in like manner, while the skirt proper has panels of silk with applique and embroidery trimmings.

There are other men-tailored gowns here, and the prices are from $11.98 to $69.50.

A quartette from Forest City furnished selections. Many floral tributes were given. The pall-bearers were Thomas Keer, Joseph Bell, John Evans, Edward Bryant, Rex Kimble and Samuel Watkins.

SEVERELY SCALDED.

Esther Powell, of Rigg street, was quite painfully scalded yesterday afternoon and will be confined to her residence for several weeks as a result. She was engaged in lifting a kettle of hot water from the stove when it tipped, throwing the water upon her left foot, scalding it.

Medical aid was called and her comfortably last evening and no serious results are expected.

PRELIMINARY AFFAIR.

The members of the Tripp Avenue Sunday school held a preliminary jubilee service last evening in the auditorium of the church in honor of their success in raising funds for the erection of the new addition which has been completed and which was to have been shown to the public last evening. The formal opening, however, will take place one week hence owing to an unavoidable delay in the complete arrangements.

The following excellent programme was rendered last night: Address, Helen Kraus; greeting, song, scholars, piano solo, Leora Johler; solo, Ethel Brady; instrumental selection, Anna Robertson; solo, Ralph Dexter; solo and chorus, Freda Ludwig and school.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.

The Young Ladies' Mission circle of the Presbyterian church conducted a successful social at the home of Miss Anna Bishop, on Fifth street, last evening. The musical programme prepared especially for the occasion was rendered in an excellent manner.

The members of the Dudley Street Baptist church will conduct a concert in the church parlors this evening. Among those who will take part are eight members of the Penn Avenue Baptist church choir, being Prof. Gilber, Miss Sadie Edwards, W. T. Jones, Prof. Tagardo. The affair will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Junior League of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their entertainment this evening. All are welcome.

The funeral of Lorenzo, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Micoator, of Smith street, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment was made in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Several members of the Junger Maennerchor, the leading choral society of this side, as members of the Thirtieth regiment, followed the fortunes of the regiment until its return Monday. Last night the returned soldiers members were tendered a banquet at Germania hall by the above society. Alfred Gutheinz presided and made a few remarks of welcome in opening.

In behalf of the guests of honor, responses to the chairman's address were made by Peter Zang, Jr., and Joseph Heirich. Short addresses were made by others of those present. Recitations, stories of camp life and songs were given during the course of the evening. The affair was in charge of a committee consisting of Alfred Gutheinz, Fred Herman, William Maus, Eugene Tannler and Fred Heinz.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. William Tannler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurm, Mr. and Mrs. George Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zang, Mr. and Mrs. William Zang, Mr. and Mrs. William Heinz, Mr. and Mrs. William Herbach, Mr. and Mrs. John Leder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koffer, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tannler, Mr. and Mrs. James East, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, and the Misses Lauretta Schneider, Mame Loftus, Emma Bals, Frances and Kate Levert, Jane Smith, Lulu Pontius, Elizabeth Schauer, Elizabeth Levert, Dora and Minnie Rencher, Minnie Zang, Emma Grabner, Emma Fackel, Barbara Brill, Carrie Hess, Minnie Haas, Wanda Bardenick, Mary Maus, Mame Storr, Florence Heitziel, Philip Levert, Peter Zang, Jr., George Maus, Arch Patterson, August Kupper, John Zolner, Fred Miller, George H-dreih, Oscar Budenbach, Alfred Gutheinz, John Schuck, Jacob Schuck, Joseph Geiger, Peter Marker, Fred Heinz, William Leuter, John Berghauer, Carl Berghauer, August Storr, Richie Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Courson, of Maple street, gave an informal dance last night in honor of their guest, Alfred Vohris, who recently returned from service in Porto Rico.

A Welsh "Elsteddof" in South Africa.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: It might be interesting to the Welsh section of your constituency to learn that the sons of Cambria are much in evidence in that distant land of gold and diamonds. By the last oceanic mail I received information that an "elsteddof" is to be held in the Golden City, Johannesburg, where there will be concentration of the best Welsh talent in the whole of South Africa. There will be vocal and instrumental music, recitations of Welsh poetry, extemporaneous speeches on topics given at the meeting, essays and addresses on historical and biographical subjects, etc., etc.

The prizes offered in several cases are very valuable. It is anticipated there will be very large congregations as those who have a happy and successful time, and let every Welshman say "Amen."

Believe me, etc.

Are Not Brighamites.

Editor of The Tribune.

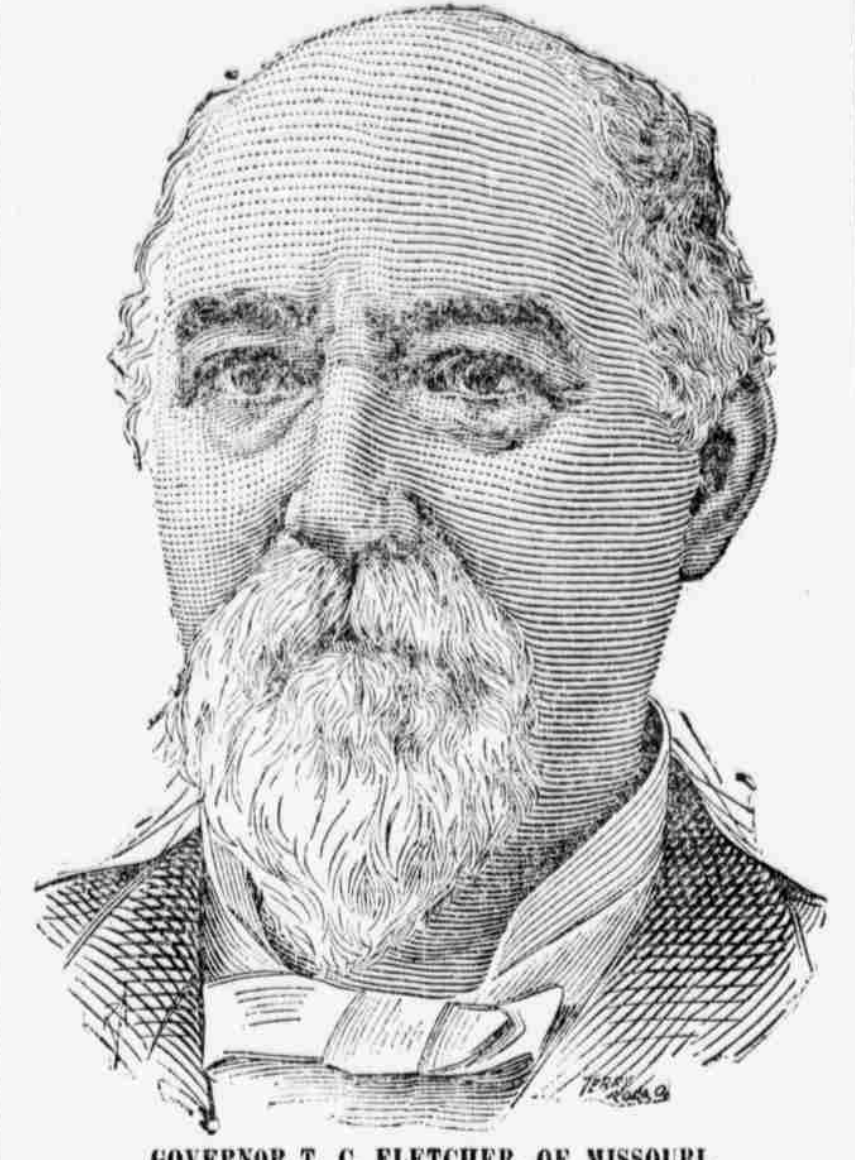

Sir: I beg most respectfully to call your attention to an error made in the issue of your paper of the 14th by your correspondent with regard to the petition passed by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. It is therein stated that this petition "comes from the members of that very church or sect in which Mr. Roberts is said to be an active member." This statement is entirely incorrect, as the Reorganized

MISSOURI'S WAR GOVERNOR

For Years a Victim of Aggravated Catarrh Doctors Failed to Give Any Relief, Pe-ru-na Cured Him.

GOVERNOR T. C. FLETCHER, OF MISSOURI.

Hon. Thomas C. Fletcher, the noted War Governor of the State of Missouri, is a great friend of Pe-ru-na. He writes:

The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen—For years I have been afflicted with chronic catarrh, which has gone through my whole system, and no one knows the torture and misery I have passed through. My doctor has prescribed various remedies, and I have never found any relief until I was persuaded by a friend to use Dr. Hartman's Pe-ru-na. After the use of one bottle I feel like a new man. It also cured me of a dropping I had in my throat, and built my system up generally. To those who are suffering with catarrh I take pleasure in recommending your great medicine. Very respectfully,

Thomas C. Fletcher.

35 W. 117th St., New York, Jan. 24, '99.

Dr. S. H. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

For an overworked brain and nervous prostration Pe-ru-na is invaluable, and for a general tonic it has no equal. In December, 1892, while connected with the St. Paul Press, I was taken violently ill with cerebral meningitis, and for two months my physicians had but slight hopes of my recovery. When I began to convalesce they told me I must have absolute rest for two weeks, for if I resumed my literary labors before that time I would either die or go insane. A church has no connection whatever with the church of which Mr. Roberts is a member. Some of the points of difference are: We do not believe in Brigham Young as a prophet, nor Salt Lake as a gathering place, neither in polygamy, nor the Adam-son theory, nor blood atonement, as taught by those apostates who have followed Brigham Young in his perverted doctrines. There are some members of the church in any part of the city, and some elders that represent Brighamism among us. We of the Reorganized church stand ready to publicly debate the question of right with them. We have fifty members of the Reorganized church in this vicinity, and in fact to them the public should know that we have no affinity with the apostate doctrines and practices of the Utah Mormons. Signed on behalf of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints by:

Minnie L. Armstrong, friend induced me to try Pe-ru-na, and, to my surprise, before I had finished taking one bottle I began to grow stronger and sleep better nights. I continued taking Pe-ru-na right along, until, at the expiration of three months, I was able to resume my labors on the Press, and completed a novel upon which I was engaged when taken ill; went to the World's Fair as newspaper correspondent and as one of the lady representatives, and neither "died nor went insane," as my physicians predicted. I have continued writing every day since and am in perfect health, entirely free from all nervous complaints, and sleep well. I cannot speak too highly of Pe-ru-na for a tired, worn-out brain, and insomnia and nervous prostration.

A. B. Bishop, Elder in Charge,
