TICKET NO. 14,522 WINS.

The drawing for the handsome upright Emerson piano at Clarke Brothers' stores took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The stores were erowded with an eager throng, all on the tip-toe of expectancy, each awaiting the announcement of the name of person who might be fortunate enough to receive the prize.
Frank P. Erown and F. R. Kays were elected as judges and the tickets were placed in a wheel, and Miss Jennie Louvinder, aged 19 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Louvinder, of of the affair. Elmhurst, was selected to draw the winning ticket. The child was blind-folded and it was agreed that the tenth sicket taken from the wheel should be the winning card. The coveted one proved to be the property of Mrs. F. R. Stevens, of 226 North Ninth street, and the number was 14,522. A daughter of Mrs. Stevens was in the store during the drawing and when it was announced that her mother's ticket won the prize. the little one quickly ran to her home and made known the welcome news, When the judges announced that the piano had been wen by a resident of Sinth street, an Italian woman who
