EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MUCH WANTED MAN TAKES FRENCH LEAVE.

Joseph Paskey Works the Old Trick of "Changing Clothes" on Constable Valkenberger, of Mahanoy City-Paskey Is Wanted In Carbon County for Jumping His Bail Piece-Observances In Honor of St. Patrick's Day-Funeral of Mrs. Logan-Will Go to Albany.

After spending a night in the West Scranton police station, Joe Paskey one of the proprietors of the "Red Onion" saloon at the corner of North Main avenue and Lafayette street, took French leave of Constable Valkenberger, of Mahanoy City, Wednesday

Paskey was arrested on a capias issued by the courts of Carbon county. charging him with jumping his ball bond about a year ago, when he was arrested on a charge of criminal intimacy with a young woman in Shenandoah, and was locked up for the night. The constable had arranged to take him to Pottsville on an early morning train, and left the police station with him about 4 o'clock in the Paskey asked permission to go to his house and eat breakfast and change his clothes. While he was eating breakrast a large plank was secured by some confederates and placed in his bedroom. When the prisoner went to his room, he locked the door and put the plank out of a window onto an ad-joining building and made his escape. Meanwhile, the constable, who was awaiting Paskev's return in the barroom, became suspicious after a reasonable length of time had passed and made an investigation. He quickly discovered that his man was gone, It was learned that Paskey was se creted by friends in the city until yesterday afternoon, when he left the city for New York, and up to a late hour no tidings of his whereabouts had been
