THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1899.

"GRACE FOR GRACE."

(A Lenten Thought.)

For the Scianton Tribune Lord, give me strength, the creature cries, To do Thy blessed will. Give me the strength of Christ, Thy Son Jesus, the crucified. Give me the strength that bore him through His trial and his woes, The strength with which he met his death. And triumphed o'er the tomb.

That strength is thine, the Lord replies, Through faith, and hope and love, Through faith in Christ, through hope in Through love of His Dear Name. Yet even then, my faithful one, Know well another law. Strength cannot be supplied to men But in return for strength.

E'en Christ Himself came not to strength But by this same great law He grew in strength though strife with

By conquering His foes. So men must strive to conquer sin. And use their every power, Their trials and their woes to hear Their sorrow and their tears.

So here's the strength which I supply Through My Eternal Son In this way only is it man's. And can be without end. It's by this law alone that 1 Can ever strengthen men. It's by this law alone that they Receive My "grace for grace." -F. S. Ballentine. Scranton, Pa., March 16, 1999 . . .

The annual Wyoming conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will begin at Kingston, April 12. It has been expected that Bishop Newman would preside, but he is at present so ill that some doubts are entertained as to the possibility of his attendance. Already extensive preparations are being made for the conference, which will be a most important event in local Methodism, and the Kingston people will make adequate arrangements for the entertainment of the ministers and official visitors. Kingston has long heen considered a center of Methodism and the location of the conference school, Wyoming seminary, being there will greatly add to the interest of the gathering, and it is predicted that it will be one of the most successful conferences ever held. A number of the most celebrated ministers, leaders in educational work, and gifted orators of the church, will be present and take part in the proceedings. A portion of says: each day will be taken up by the business of the session and the remainder will be devoted to the anniversaries of the different societies, and also to lectures

The pastors from 215 pastoral charges, together with the candidates for admission the retired ministers and official visitors will bring to Kingston, will be over 300 men. The programme is nearly completed.

Some of the arrangements announced for the week are given below.

On Tuesday evening the temperance anniversary will be held and Hon. John G. Woolley, one of the most eloquent orators of this country, is expected to deliver the address. Dr. A. J. Palmer, of New York, one of the missionary secretaries, will preside at the meeting city are set forth with particular refmust move. Others will be changed Place, will also deliver an addrss. also.

. . . The special announcements for men's services in the Providence Presbyterian church are awakening general inquiry and anticipation particularly in the north end of the city. Tomorrow evening's service will be for ladies as well as for men, though Rev. Mr. Guild's address will be especially for men. He has selected a timely theme for the occasion, namely, "Man's Self Worth." Choir master C. F. Whittemore and choir have arranged a special programme of music as follows: the celebration of a month's mind mass at St. John's church on Thursday for the late Very Rev. Father Finnen. The Buck Praise God in His HolinessBuck Full Choral Founded on the 150th Psaim. Male Quartette ...Nearer My God to Thee officers of the mass were: Rev. E. A. Garvey, celebrant; Rev. N. J. Manus, deacon; Rev. R. A. McAndrew Messrs, Whittemore, John, Acker and sub-deacon; Rev. P. F. Quinnan, mas-Morgan.

At the close of the service, Professo George Walkenshaw a prominent organist, of Glasgow, Scotland, who is visiting in this city, will play the following selections on the organ: Andante MovementWely BachSchubert Heroque The service on Monday and Tuesday evenings will be Gospel services for men only. Boys, young men, middle-aged men and older men are corlially invited. On Monday evening Mr. F. W. Pearsall, secretary of the Railroad department of Young Men's Christian association will give the ad-dress on the subject "What the Child Brought." Mr. Joshua John will sing solo from the Gospel hymns. On Tuesday evening Mr. Mahy, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, will speak on the theme "What Must I Do." The Yoke Felows' and Workers' Band and Male quartette and Cornetist Stanton will also assist in these two meeings. The Gospel hymn singing will be made one of the prominent features of the two services. The meetings will begin promptly at 7.45 o'clock and close promptly at the expiration of one hour. . . .

The press committee for the eighteenth international convention 'hristian Endeavor to be held in Derolt July 5-10 has begun work by issuing a letter setting forth the attractions of Detroit in general, and of the coming convention in particular. Detroit expects to entertain at least 60,000 visitors on this occasion. This letter "Never was there brighter promse of great things for the Endeavor hosts, and never has a city felt a gladder thrill over certainty of blessings to come. The programme promises a five-day feast that will educate, edify and enthuse the thousands that will partake." The convention will be characterized by two new features, viz.: The employment of a higher grade of music than formerly, and lectures upon sociological questions and other present day problems. The latter feature is designed. however, to supplement and not to supplant the spiritual element which has always been the great characteristic of Christian Endeavor conventions. The attractions of Detroit as a convention
