I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. UNKNOWN MAN KILLED. Run Down by a Freight Train at Olyphant.

An unknown man, supposed to be a Poleander, was killed on the Delaware and Hudson road at Olyphant yesterday at noon. He attempted to cross the tracks at the depot in front of the fast north-bound freight and was struck by the engine and thrown beneath the wheels. His head was crushed and both legs were severed. He lived for half an hour but was not conscious at any time after being struck.

The remains are awaiting identification at Swirey's undertaking establishment. The man was about 25 years of age and fairly well dressed. Nothing upon his person would aid in identifying him.

THE LEADER. Scranton Store 124-126 Wyoming Ave. MILLINERY OPENING. Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21 and 22. THE first showing of spring millinery of 1899 in this store should be a deservedly grand occasion. Since the opening of this department four years ago, its growth and prosperity has been marked each year by mile-stones of success that leave no room for doubt as to its claim on the attention of the public. Thus it has transpired, too, that the amount of space now occupied by this department, is six times what it was then, and is now the largest and brightest department of its kind in all Scranton. The new Easter hats. All that human skill and artistic genius could conjure together, with a view to producing beautiful headgear for women is here for your inspection these days. It is a wonderfully complete exhibit, including all that is fashionable in toques, bonnets and large hats. Paris and New York hats are here. But will be lost sight of in a thousand of our own creation—the handiwork of our own skilled milliners. Many of the hats produced by our own work-rooms are direct copies of expensive models from London and Paris, but in these we have excluded all such that are unbecoming and grotesque, and have selected only what is most likely to suit the public fancy. Paris hats are often extreme and better suited to Paris than any other part of the globe. Still, the public wishes to see both—so here they are. Compare them at will. Compare them in beauty and price. The difference in the former, if any, will not be worth the disadvantage in the latter. Tuesday and Wednesday, this week, are therefore designated as SHOW DAYS—days on which there is a standing invitation to all the ladies of Scranton and vicinity to call, to inspect and to compare. They are days invented for the purpose of getting your bearings—days on which you are afforded ample opportunity to decide as to what the Easter hat should be like. Untrimmed millinery. In order to be able to accommodate all our spring orders we have been compelled to move our shirt waist and infants' wear department to the center of the store. The entire annex will be occupied by millinery alone, and where shirt waists were formerly sold you will now find the most amazing display of flowers. Special efforts will be made this season in untrimmed millinery. Stocks will be greater than ever, and some rare bargains in flowers and feathers are promised.
