FUNERAL OF MRS. EDWARDS.

Held at the Moscow Methodist Church Yesterday Morning. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives at the funeral of MEETING OF THE GENERAL the late Mrs. John M. Edwards, which was held yesterday morning from the residence at Moscow. Many attended from this city. Wilkes-Barre and Carverton. The services were conducted at the residence by the Rev. Clay Snowdon, paster of the Mescow Methodist church, and the remains were then borne to the above church, where futher services were held,

At the church the Scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Mr. Snowden and prayer was offered by the Rev. F. A. Klug, of Parsons. The latter, in accordance to an oft expressed wish of the deceased, preached the funeral sermon. He chose his text, but spoke words of comfort and consolation. He touchingly referred to the day over twenty years ago when he had united the now separated couple in the bonds of matrimony. The choir sang several deceased. The members of the H. D. Swartz Division, Women's Relief corps, No. 17, of which deceased was an active member, also conducted the beautiful funeral rite of the corps. Hev. Mr. Snowden made a few appropriate oncluding remarks. At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed and later borne o the Methodist cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were sent by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, of which Mr. Edwards s a member, and were William Harrington, Richard Gillingham, Charles Simmons, Jonathan Thomas, Harry 'oglizer and C. Dennis. The flowersearers were Charles Depew, of the Brotherhood, and Gilbert and Charles Edwards, nephews of the deceased.

WILL FIGHT THE TRUST.

M. J. Kelly. Proprietor of The Lackawanna Steam Bakery, Will Enlarge His Plant and Make a Decided Stand Against His Unfair Competitor, the Trust - The Public Should Aid Him.

M. J. Kelly, proprietor of the Lackawanta Steam Bakery, is making exten-sive improvements in his mammoth baking establishment on avenue. Heretofore Mr. Kelly has been making crackers only, but as soon as his improvements are completed, he will also manufacture a superior line of fancy cakes. The recently organized trust, which has absorbed about all of the important bakeries in this locality, except the Lackawanna. Steam Eakery, and hopes to stifle all competition by foreing the independent manufacturers out of business, is doing all in its power to injure Mr. Kelly's business, but instend of selling out at the dictation of the Trust, he has decided to enlarge the capacity of his plant and thereby place himself in position to successfully compete with his gigantic competitor.

It will be to the interest of the consumers of crackers, cakes, etc., to insist on their grocers and bakers giving on them goods manufactured by the Lackawanna Steam Bakery, and thereby materially strengthen Mr. Kelly in his fight, which will benefit not only iome industry and labor, but the consumer as well, inasmuch as the Trust | On Mulberry street, east of Frankin a will cortainly raise prices as soon as they have the consumer entirely at their mercy.

The goods manufactured by the Lackawanna Steam Bakery are firstclass in every respect, and the people of Northeastern Pennsylvania should embrace this opportunity of patronizing a "not in the Trust" concern. Ask your dealer for goods made by the Lackawanna Steam Bakery, and insist on getting them.

There are also four common pleas de cisions against them.

It is not known at this time when the supreme court will hear the reargument, but in all probability it will not be before May, when the court meets at Harrisburg. When it is next argued an effort will be made to have all the cities interested in the decision submit paper books. These cities are: Pittston, Easton, Hazleton, Lebanon, Titusville, Meadville and Harrisburg.
