PROSPECTUS.

It is no lenger a uniter of doubt that gas will be the universal fuel in town and cities or cooking purposes. Its convergence, comfort and economy insultrandy beneates a stronger demonstrated can with the use of imperfect and make-con with the use of imperfect and make-shift appliances. The rapid increase in the sale of these appliances make it clear that the field for fort and success in the sale of a com-mete, easily managed and economical gas cooker is fully ready for the harvesters. To this end the Brusen-Rumford com-pany, with offices at Coal Exchange, has been organized for the manufacture and sale of "the third Git." a perfect gas kitchener that has been a three years' subject of careful study.

Though occupying a space of only tweneast three by four feet, oreover, the form of the Grill is such it is ornamental rather than ugly it is thus made desirable whether the users live in pataces or apartments.

Further, its construction is such that it can be quickly set to work perfectly in any camp or mountain or set shore re-

It can be used in a closet of moderate size, or behind an ornamental screen in the corner of any apartment. It is hand-come enough to rland by itself as a useful piece of furniture.

Many other points of interest are set forth in a next bracklet which will be sent to any address when requested.

The strill was exhibited and a practical demonstration of its capacity was made before the Sergaton Board of Trade at its February meeting—sufficient food and suices in elegant variety for fifty people was prepared in the secretary's palatic. sances in elegant variety for fifty people was prepared in the secretary's palatial office while the board meeting was in progress and while the demonstrator had had no previous experience in fine cookery, the expression of satisfaction and positive deaght over the results obtained was universal.

The company begs to refer any who may be interested in the personal opinion of obsinterested parties to the honorable president and secretary of the board, or to any member of the board who was present on that occasion.

present on that occasion.
It is desired to place the grill on the general market early in the present season, and since all the details of manufacture are completed, it only remains to make the merits of the grill widely known to the general public.
Subscriptions to this end are myited—the immediate proposition being to place a quarter page advertisement in all the sading magazines under a yearly coneading magazines under a yearly con-ract. It is believed this will bring a mull order business sufficient to comble to company to pay a liberal dividend at the end of the first six months and cer-sidely within a year.

the end of the first six months and cer-sionly within a year.

The grills are to be made under con-tact and their cost will therefore be a outter of absolute certainty. The objec-lons which some investors have to man-finitoring enterprises do not obtain in blue case. There will be no necessity for a large

There will be no necessity for a large stock of grills on hand and none out on stime accounts—no slow accounts nor bad debts. The grills will be made and paid for at a fixed price only as fast as eash orders are received and the money from sales will be in hand to meet every inshed to examine the grill at the office of the company. No. 7 Coal Exchange.

The capital stock of the company will be $25.000 or 500 shares at $50 each—251 shares to be represented by the inventor. Mr. Theo, H. Diable.

The balance of stock to be sold at parter or cost, to be paid in when the full amount of $29 shares have been subscribed, the remaining 50 per cent, as it cribed, the remaining 50 per cent, as it seribed, the remaining 56 per cent, as it may be required.

No more aromising field for profitable by estimate the can be found any where today. The grill will be attractively set before the public in our magazine advertisements and we may reasonably expect liberal cash orders from every part of the l'nited States and beyond.

We may reasonably expect early and theral dividends on the moderate investment required and a consequent rapid increase in the value of our shares.

IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

"Sowing the Wind."

Most of our theater-goers remember Sydney Grundy's play, "Sowing the Wind," which was presented in this city a season or two ago and which is underlined for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 23, 24, 25, at the Academy, but a short outline of its story will suffice to bring it to mind more clearly that Rosamond, a popular London concert singer of mysterious parentage, and Ned Annesley, of aristocratic antecedents, are the hero and heroine. Ned's adopted father, Brabazon, when he learns of Ned's attachment, is decidedly opposed and forbids any such alliance, being himself a great stickler for social proprieties. But, unfortunately for him, his moral past does not belong to that class, which might have rendered his position wholly impregnable. In his younger days he has been guilty of a liason with a woman with whom the proprietles forbade marriage; she had borne a child, of whose existence he had been ignorant, and it turns out, after the story has developed to the proper dramatic point, that Rosamond is his own daughter. It is one of the most intensely emotional climaxes that Mr. Grundy has evolved which practically gives Resamond the victory over Brahazon and results in the promised union of Ned Annesly with the woman of his

New York, March 21 .- The professional character of the trading today was shown by the fact that of the 620,000 shares traded in nearly half were in the two stocks which moved most erratically, Sugar and Brooklyn Transit, Immediately after the opening the leading industrials were pressed for sale sympathetically with the sudden declines in Sugar and Prooklyn Transit. Sugar dropped 14 points from the highest in the morning and Brooklyn Transit 41/2 Subsequently they each recovered 7 points from the lowest, leaving Sugar per cent, off for the day and Breoklyn Transit 1% up. The general marshowed moderate sympathetic movements with the leaders and develoned weaknness when call money rates reached 6 per cent, and then railied when money worked easier to 3 per cent. The bulk of the business was transacted around 5 per cent., for call money and time money was up 1/2 to 4 per cent, for four to six months on railroad collateral with industrial collateral accepted at higher rates. London was a seller today of moderate amounts of the Union Pacifics, New ork Central and St. Paul which stocks, however, showed fractional advances. American and Continental Tobacco after wild fluctuations closed with some improvement. The Pacifics, except Northern Pacific preferred, were up fractionally, while Central Pacific and Southern Pacific gained over a point each.
